The Nargun And The Stars:

Giant Despair Meets Hopeful Martha Westwater, 2000-04 A burgeoning literature for young adult readers exists Yet much of it depicts a despairing disillusioned world telling tales of teenagers suffering from family breakdown violence peer pressure sexual abuse and even suicide But such bleakness need not translate into depression and fear for vulnerable adolescents When we look at YA fiction from another perspective what may emerge is a literature of great power an authenticity Julia Kristeva argues that so long as human beings have love we have hope Taking up this theme Martha Westwater reads six YA novelists Aidan Chambers Robert Cormier Kevin Major Jan Mark Katherine Paterson and Patricia Wrightson through Kristevan theory to find a glimmer of hope amidst our cultural crises A welcome addition to the undeservedly sparse literature on Young Adult fiction Publisher's description Meet the Authors Deborah Kovacs, 1995 A collection of writers of upper elementary and middle school books discuss their work each author includes a list of selected titles words from the author and a list of selected titles words from the author and a writing activity for you and your students

An Historical Geography of Tourism in Victoria, Australia Ian Clark, 2014-01-01 A Historical Geography of Tourism in Victoria Australia Case studies is concerned with the emergence of tourism in colonial Victoria Australia It explores a fundamental set of questions how does a tourist site come in to being How does a tourist gaze emerge in a settler society How does an era of discovery segue into tourism And how was the tourist map of Victoria created by settler colonists Through the application of the classical models of MacCannell Butler and Gunn to construct the history of tourism at eight case studies this work shows that Victoria's tourism landscape is dynamic and constantly changing There are many other significant natural and cultural attractions in Victoria and much more research needs to be undertaken to understand more fully the evolution of Victoria's tourism landscape The Nargun and the Stars - Teacher's Resource Book Matthew Clauson, 2009 A Time to Read Mary Ruth Wilkinson, Heidi Wilkinson Teel, 2000-06 In a Time to Read Mary Ruth K

Wilkinson and her daughter Heidi Wilkinson Teel have compiled a helpful guide to children's books. More than a bibliography, A TIME TO READ also includes essays on the nature of children's families, literature and story, and how these hold together in a Christian life, reflecting Mary Ruth's 30 years' experience teaching a literary and Christian approach to children's books.

Deconstructing the Hero Margery Hourihan, 2005-08-19 This book sets out to explore the structure and meanings within the most popular of all literary genres, the adventure story. Deconstructing the Hero offers analytical readings of some of the most widely read adventure stories, such as Treasure Island, the James Bond stories, and Star Wars. The book describes how adventure stories are influential in shaping children's perception and establishing values. When many of these stories define non-white, non-European people as inferior and women as marginal or incapable, we should be worried about what they are teaching our children to think. Margery Hourihan shows how teaching children to read books critically can help to prevent the establishment of negative attitudes, discourage aggression, and promote values of emotion and creativity.

Fear and Temptation Terry Goldie, 1993 Goldie skillfully reveals the ambivalence of white writers to indigenous culture through an examination of the stereotyping involved in the creation of the image of the Other. The treacherous redskin and the Indian maiden, embodiments of violence and sex, also evoke emotional signs of fear and temptation of white repulsion from and attraction to the indigene and the land. Goldie suggests that white culture, deeply attracted to the impossible idea of becoming indigenous, either rejects native land claims and denies recognition of the original indigenes or incorporates these claims into white assertions of native status. After comparing the works of Canadian author Rudy Wiebe and Australian author Patrick White, Goldie concludes by linking the results of his literary analysis to wider cultural concerns, particularly land rights. He shows that literary views of natives, both positive and negative, emphasize the same characteristics, and he suggests that escape from this limited vision may open the door to solving the problems of native sovereignty.
