The Gone Man:

The Road Joe Penhall, Cormac McCarthy, 2014-05-27 You think I come from another world don't you Filled with all these strange things you've never seen Well I do I guess Cormac McCarthy's post-apocalyptic novel was awarded the 2007 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction and the James Tait Black Memorial Prize for Fiction in 2006 Released shortly after his No Country for Old Men was turned into an Oscar-winning film The Road's cinema version of the novel is directed by John Hillcoat stars Viggo Mortensen and Charlize Theron and is an official selection for the 66th Venice Film Festival 2009 Joe Penhall's adaptation is a faithful careful crafting of the book for the screen fully evoking the atmosphere of menace and desperation The Road is set a few years after an unexplained cataclysmic world disaster has left the earth poisoned barren and hostile While ash blocks out the sun and the earth no longer fosters plant or animal life men either starve or join the marauding gangs of cannibals The plot follows an unnamed father and son on a bleak epic across the wasteland and features a series of horrific encounters in a merciless world starved of life and hope This edition includes a full list of cast and crew credits

Theater of Man J. A. Fernandez-Santamaria, 1998 Born in Spain and long-time resident of Bruges Juan Luis Vives is one of the keenest and most neglected minds of the northern Renaissance A many-sided intellect and critical observer of the contemporary scene Vives' contribution includes treatises on metaphysics psychology education rhetoric logic religion and social reform And it is precisely the central premise of this monograph that what links these diverse works together and turns Vives' literary production into a whole larger than the sum of its parts is the author's single-minded commitment to the Socratic dictum that an unexamined life is not worth living But because man's Fall caused him to lose his pristine ability to accomplish that task as an individual he must now do it in the context of a God-mandated man-created institution society whose origins and evolution Vives explains in Stoic terms Building on a foundation of Socratic Aristotelian optimism and Augustinian pessimism he concludes that social man can indeed reach the bonitas which alone makes beatitude possible But at a price for Vives the Skeptic insists that man must forego the use of that ratio speculativa which seduces him into thinking that he can probe into nature's being and understand his own divine nature
