The Neighbor:

Listening to the Neighbor Byungohk Lee, 2015-05-12 The Trinity can be understood as a social community with members speaking and listening to one another in love or as Luther understood the Trinity as conversation then God's mission essentially involves in mission in dialogue Byungohk Lee contends the church has to embrace the dialogical dimension in missional terms because the triune God is the subject of mission The missional church conversation has taken it for granted that local churches should speak and listen to their neighbors In contrast for many churches in Asia including Korea mission has generally tended to be practiced in a monological rather than dialogical manner The neighbor has not been regarded as a conversational partner of the church but only as the object for its mission In Listening to the Neighbor Lee shows that some local churches have participated in God's mission by listening to their neighbors He argues that listening is not a technique but a multifaceted learning process in missional terms The church must nurture its hearts eyes and ears in order to listen to the sigh of its neighbors

The Fence and the Neighbor Adam Zachary Newton, 2012-02-01 The Fence and the Neighbor traces the contours of two thinkers Emmanuel Levinas and Yeshayahu Leibowitz who crossed the divide between Talmud and philosophy proper Adam Zachary Newton shows how the question of nationalism that has so long haunted Western philosophy the question of who belongs within its fence and who outside has long been the concern of Jewish thought and its preoccupation with law limits and the place of Israel among the nations To those unfamiliar with Talmudic thought Newton shows how deeply its language and concerns shape Levinas He also offers an introduction to Leibowitz a conservative religious thinker who was an outspoken gadfly and radically critical voice in the Israeli political scene Together their common origin in Jewish Eastern Europe a common concern with national allegiance and the common fence of religious Judaism that makes them intellectual neighbors are voiced in penetrating and original dialogue

Works of Love Robert L. Perkins,1999 To claim that Works of Love is an important philosophical essay is to assume hazardous burden of proof The book s title is an allusion to the Bible s injunction that we should love our neighbor as we love ourselves a far cry far instance from Diotoma s ladder of erotic desire up which we climb from the love of bodies until we catch a vision of that single sea of beauty beauty itself Plato Symposium This contrast given that some of some of our neighbors may not be particularly likable or one may even be a determined enemy suggests immediately to some that a book with such an obviously religious title must be excessively moralistic and at best full of sermon helps for the harried clergy or at worst laden with rules for the unlearned laity A casual perusal of a few paragraphs however shows these put down views of the book to be unfounded

Piety and Responsibility John N. Sheveland,2016-04-22 This book analyzes the writings of Karl Rahner Karl Barth and Vedanta Desika to disclose how each construes piety and responsibility as integral to each other Each theologian expresses a fundamental unity of love of God and love of neighbour Sheveland explores this unity in ecumenical and interreligious frameworks showing how these authors privilege theology as practice enactment or simply as ethical He uses the Renaissance genre of musical polyphony as a methodological tool by which to explore the aesthetic quality and the similarity in difference of the theological voices being compared Polyphony s application to comparative theology includes the avoidance of caricature domestication and antagonism In place of these is offered a fundamentally aesthetic paradigm by which to hear theological voices in terms of their unity in distinction The Teachings of Emanuel Swedenborg: Vol III Emanuel Swedenborg, 2016-10-20 Swedenborg experienced dreams and visions in which he was appointed by the Lord to write a heavenly doctrine to reform Christianity He claimed that the Lord had opened his eyes so that he could freely visit heaven and hell and talk with angels demons and other spirits His best known book is Heaven and Hell The destruction of the world is not meant by the day of the last judgment Those who have not known the spiritual sense of the Word have understood that everything in the visible world will be destroyed in the day of the Last Judgment for it is said that heaven and earth are then to perish and that God will create a New Heaven and a New Earth Here are all three of his Last Judgment books Last Judgment Last Judgment Continued and Last Judgment Posthumous
