The New Citizenship Of The Family Comparative Perspectives:

The New Citizenship of the Family Henry Cavanna, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 This volume offers international comparative perspectives and critical analyses of the interconnections between family behaviour and its political regulation the new economics of the family and the role of the family in building citizenship Family Diversity

Olaf Kapella, Christiane Rille-Pfeiffer, Marina Rupp, Norbert F. Schneider, 2010-03-17 Family in all its aspects Familienbande International experts provide an overview of the current state of the art of European family research and outline the multiple formations structures and configurations of family in Europe Four aspects are discussed in depth family images sex gender roles globalisation and family development processes Influenced by globalisation European countries experience processes which still have greatly varying consequences Cultural differences reflected in a range of family schemes and national family policies are one reason for the continued existence of differences in the scope and speed of change processes Quite generally images and concepts of family have become more heterogeneous and flexible The flip side of this coin is that family members are increasingly faced with the challenges of achieving a satisfactory work life balance a task aggravated by globalisation We therefore need to ask how family policy can help families enjoy adequate freedom of action and latitude for their decision making To summarise a read well worth the effort for all experts working in family research and family policy Revisiting Gender and Migration Pinar Yazgan, M. Murat Yucesahin, 2017-06-04 Sections of the book Introduction Revisiting Gender in the Context of Migration edited by Pinar Yazgan and M Murat Y ce ahin Chapter Two Deconstructing Gender Migration Relationship Performativity and Representation by M Murat Y ce ahin Chapter Three Gendered Pathways Central Asian Migration through the Lens of Embodiment by Natalia Zotova Chapter Four For Love or for Papers Sham Marriages among Turkish Potential Migrants and Gender Implications by I k Kulu Glasgow Monika Smit and Roel Jennissen Chapter Five Undocumented Migrant Women in Turkey Legislation Labour and Sexual Exploitation by Emel Co kun Chapter Six Family Perspective in Migration A Qualitative Analysis on Turkish Families in Italy by G l nce Beqo Chapter Seven Marriage and Divorce in the Context of Gender and Social Capital The Case of Turkish Migrants in Germany by Sevim Atila Demir and Pinar Yazgan Chapter Eight Effects of Refugee Crisis on Gender Policies Studies on EU and Turkey by Pelin S nmez

Writing the Body Politic Mark Featherstone, Thomas Kemple, 2019-08-08 This book brings together key essays from the career of social theorist John O'Neill including his uncollected later writings focusing on embodiment to explore the different ways in which the body trope informs visions of familial economic personal and communal life Beginning with an exploration of O'Neill's work on the construction of the biobody and the ways in which corporeality is sutured into social systems through regimes of power and familial socialisation the book then moves to concentrate on O'Neill's career long studies of the productive body and the ways in which the working body is caught in and resists disciplinary systems that seek to rationalise natural functions and control social relations The third section considers O'Neill's concern with the ancient early modern and psychoanalytic sources of the post modern libidinal body and a final section on the civic body focuses specifically on the ways in which principles of reciprocity and generosity exceed the capitalist individualist body of neo liberal political theory The volume also includes an interview with O Neill addressing many of the key themes of his work a biographical note with an autobiographical postscript a select bibliography of O Neill s many publications and an extensive introduction by the editors A challenging and innovative collection Writing the Body Politic A John O Neill Reader will appeal to critical social theorists and sociologists with interests in the work of one of sociology s great critical readers of classical and contemporary texts

Family Policy. A Relational Approach Pierpaolo Donati,2012-08-25T00:00:00+02:00 1534 3 9 Family Disintegration

Anton Purcell,2002 The contemporary family is being distracted disturbed and distraught by societal pressures from every direction The nuclear family concept believed crucial to child rearing is becoming pass according to census data Or has the wave of disruption to families crested It is hoped that this bibliography will serve as a useful tool to researchers seeking further information on families and the pressures being exerted upon them in the 21st century Social Attitudes in

Northern Ireland - the 9th Report Katrina Lloyd,Paula Devine,Anne Gray,Deirdre Heenan,2004-01-20 This book is an essential resource on attitudes to social and political issues in contemporary Northern Ireland Within this report an authoritative group of academics and those involved in informing policy making within the community summarise and interpret data from the annual Northern Ireland Life and Times survey Topics explored include the extent of change in attitudes centred on religion politics and community relations Other topics contribute to the more general social policy debate and include health social capital lifelong learning men s issues culture and attitudes to work This is the ninth report in the series on social attitudes in Northern Ireland The chapters draw on data from the 2000 and 2001 Northern Ireland Life and Times surveys as well as on data from previous years thus providing an in depth examination of changing values in Northern Ireland

European Childhoods Allison James,Adrian L. James,2008-01-23 The United Nations Convention of the Rights of the Child resulted in even greater global awareness of the significance of children s rights and perspectives The contributors to this book explore the extent to which children s interests are finding expression in different societies in Western Europe

Children and the Good Life Sabine Andresen,Isabell Diehm,Uwe Sander,Holger Ziegler,2010-09-21 In April 2009 an inspiring international conference was held at Bielefeld on the topic Children and the Good Life New Challenges for Research on Children The focus was on how we can define and measure a good life for children growing up in the modern world This tied in with discussions on how convincing universalistic theories are what research on children can contribute and how children themselves can be integrated into the research process and debates on the good life Discourses and the production of knowledge on the good life or well being require a guiding idea or a theoretical frame This frame can come from the feminist ethic of care or from the Human and Children s Rights Convention from the idea of welfare or from the Capability Approach Globalization and Identity Alan Carling,2005-10-28 Globalization is often perceived in rather simplistic terms as a single universal process leading ultimately to global equality and global democracy The contributors to Globalisation and Identity take a different view Drawing on their expertise across a variety of disciplines they argue that globalisation is far more complex a fact reflected in a range of key problems centred on issues of equality and identity now facing peoples and governments around the world How can one successfully integrate immigrant populations within the structures of state and civil society Is national identity compatible with cultural diversity What are the contradictions posed in the contemporary world by the movement of populations How does one integrate state structures and national societies themselves within an emergent international political order and a global civil society Questions of globalisation and identity are of vital importance to aims of global harmony and global equality and this timely work provides a rich and integrated exploration of many of the key issues
