Critical Mass Dan Krzyzkowski,2017-11-16 It is September 1996 when college roommates Dennis Carew and Curt Tobinesk realize they share the same frustration about academic life and the separate demons they battle every day After they decide on a whim to take life by the horns the young men set out in the dark of the night on an unplanned road trip from Pennsylvania to Delaware in search of Gretchen Sorenz Denniss lost love The night is long and the road is full of secrets To pass the time Dennis relates the story of how he met fell in love with and ultimately lost the girl of his dreams Curt has his own story to tell This night marks the seventh anniversary of his fathers death a loss Curt has never completely overcome As the two friends trade chapters for miles it becomes mandatory for both to finish their stories before reaching the end of the road where Gretchen waits Finding Gretchen will be hard enough Winning her back may take a miracle In this tale of darkness faith love and heroism two young men troubled for different reasons find common ground in a unifying magical goal that leads them on an unforgettable adventure to find the inner peace they both so desperately need Dan Krzyzkowski attended Lafayette College in Easton Pennsylvania where he earned a degree in psychology He is the author of the novels The Caller and One Lane Bridge A writer and fisherman Krzyzkowski lives in Hunterdon County New Jersey and works for the US Postal Service

Oddkins Dean Koontz,Christopher Zavis,2012-09-04 The 1 New York Times bestselling author s visually stunning story about a magical band of living toys who learn to overcome their fears Toymaker Isaac Bodkins created the Oddkins a group of living toys for very special children who face difficulties in life and need true friends There s Amos the brave stuffed bear Skipppy the rabbit who dreams of being a superstar Butterscotch the gentle floppy eared pup Burl the elephant the wise and scholarly Gibbons and Patch the cat The Oddkins are given to children to inspire support and love them especially during times of adversity Only now the toys themselves are the ones who need help Before he dies Mr Bodkins delivers a dire warning to Amos the bear Watch out for an evil toymaker and his dangerous creations Locked up in the dark sub basement another group of toys is climbing out of boxes and crates and coming to life as well These bad toys like Rex and Lizzie the puppets with no strings Gear the vicious robot and Stinger the horrid buzzing bumblebee with his knife sharp stinger were made to hurt children not help them Leering laughing and deadly they are let loose into the world by a terrifying force Frightening as it may be the Oddkins must go on a journey to find Colleen Shannon Mr Bodkins s chosen successor as a life giving toymaker and the only person who can save them The stormy night is perilous and the Oddkins face a danger that threatens not only their magic but the magic in us all The Business of Children's Entertainment Norma Odom Pecora,2002-03-06 For over 20 years the development of children s television programming has been subsidized by toy manufacturers The result has been an increased commercialisation of children s popular culture the creation of a material world of childhood characterized by brand name toys games clothing and television characters Drawing on historical background and case studies this book presents a unique look at the development of children as targets of the media and commercial industries and examines the economic and social forces that have defined the evolution of children s entertainment This volume is of interest to professionals and students in media studies mass communication and related fields readers interested in contemporary children s culture and the content of children s programming AFI Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute,1971 The Poignant Years Horace N. Robinson,2016-05-27 Here is Americana at its best the WWII years America is doggedly hanging on awaiting the return of her heroes knowing there will be parades for some and processions for others The author an accomplished rhetoric instructor lived these poignant years and is in early sync with the reader through interesting insights into each poem He takes the reader on a heartfelt personal tour of small town America using real people coupled with poetic imagination The Poignant Years is historically accurate but more importantly it reveals what lies beneath major historical events This is where people live where they laugh and cry where they struggle and sympathize where they huddle together for warmth when fear is rife For small town America it was a slower time a time of deep relationships where the ritual of life was sharing It was a time of paucity dealing with harsh winters in clapboard houses but a time of morality when locks were not needed for security Hear the voices of the school children who fear Hitler s bomb laugh at the awkward expressions of the newly pubescent boy and empathize with the tender murmurings of the Gold Star Mother These are the voices of the admirable Americans who could only stand and wait Helen Kane and Betty Boop James D.
