University Magazine ,1829 Imdeduya Gunter Senft,2017-07-12 This volume presents five variants of the Imdeduya myth two versions of the actual myth a short story a song and John Kasaipwalova s English poem Sail the Midnight Sun This poem draws heavily on the Trobriand myth which introduces the protagonists Imdeduya and Yolina and reports on Yolina s intention to marry the girl so famous for her beauty on his long journey to Imdeduya s village and on their tragic love story The texts are compared with each other with a final focus on the clash between orality and scripturality Contrary to Kasaipwalova s fixed poetic text the oral Imdeduya versions reveal the variability characteristic for oral tradition This variability opens up questions about traditional stability and destabilization of oral literature especially questions about the changing role of myth and magic in the Trobriand Islanders society which gets more and more integrated into the by now literal nation of Papua New Guinea Sleep While I Sing Laurali R. Wright,1986 Our Singing World: Singing teen-agers Lilla Belle Pitts,1953 Kodaly in the Kindergarten Classroom Micheal Houlahan,Philip Tacka,2015-04-01 Kodaly in the Kindergarten Classroom provides teachers with a step by step road map for developing children s performance creative movement and literacy skills in an organic and thoughtful manner Over 100 children s books are incorporated into Kodaly in the Kindergarten Classroom as well as 35 detailed lesson plans that demonstrate how music and literacy curriculum goals are transformed into tangible musical objectives Each chapter contains key questions discussion points and ongoing assignments Scholarly yet practical and accessible this volume is sure to be an essential guide for kindergarten and early childhood music teachers everywhere Silver's Threads Penny Reilly,2013-11-13 life can be seen as a tapestry of tightly woven threads each thread linking everything in the web of life then a darkening colour a harsh sound a haunting cry ripples through the warp and weft to vibrate the threads of time ancient and mysterious bones discovered on the Yorkshire Wolds hold a secret hidden for centuries which must not be revealed a Grove of Wytches meet to celebrate the Mabon Rite of Equinox in Australia but strange energies are afoot that go beyond mortal comprehension four young women are brought together in the little Spa town of Springsmeet to work out the riddle of the inexplicable disappearance of their friend and teacher of the Old Ways a celebrated writer and lecturer one a gifted seer musician and weaver will learn of her ancestry long concealed in the veil one will learn of her natural gifts as an artist and writer one will be the gentle guide and healer who nurtures and supports everyone but herself and one must fight to control the anger and pain from the past to temper and hone it into a tool of great compassion all must learn to believe in their own gifts and in the Magick their teacher showed them to travel the portals into the realms where the Fae reside at the times of the year when the veil is thin and the Old Ones walk the land many will step forward to assist them in their search as blight spreads sticky dark threads across all the realms to the Birthing Tree where all life must return one day and where for one of them the greatest test to face is that Magick might indeed be real they must travel the inner realms to discover the truths of life itself Intermediate song reader James Matthew McLaughlin,1906 Focus: Music of South Africa Carol A. Muller,2010-04-15 Focus Music of South Africa provides an in depth look at the full spectrum of South African music a musical culture that epitomizes the enormous ethnic religious linguistic class and gender diversity of the nation itself Drawing on extensive field and archival research as well as her own personal experiences noted ethnomusicologist and South African native Carol A Muller looks at how South Africans have used music to express a sense of place in South Africa on the African continent and around the world Part One Creating Connections provides introductory materials for the study of South African Music Part Two Musical Migrations moves to a more focused overview of significant musical styles in twentieth century South Africa particularly those known through world circuits Part Three Focusing In takes the reader into the heart of two musical cultures with case studies on South African jazz and the music of the Zulu language followers of Isaiah Shembe The accompanying downloadable resources offer vivid examples of traditional popular and classical South African musical styles
