Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1975 Women's Health Issues Across the Life Cycle Angela Sammarco, 2016-02-03
Women's Health Issues Across the Life Cycle: A Quality of Life Perspective is a unique text that explores a wide variety of health issues and concerns for women to offer a holistic approach to care. Presented within a quality of life framework, it provides a women-centered perspective to explore the range of factors that can impact women's health and well-being throughout the major life stages. The first text of its kind, Women's Health Issues Across the Life Cycle: A Quality of Life Perspective examines the ways in which the physical, psychological, spiritual, socioeconomic, and family domains impact women's quality of life. It also offers current research specific to women's health, health promotion strategies, and interventions, case studies, critical thinking questions, and Internet resources for more information. Family Violence From a Global Perspective Sylvia M. Asay, John DeFrain, Marcee Metzger, Bob Moyer, 2013-06-17 This one-of-a-kind edited collection draws on the expertise of authors from 16 countries representing 17 cultures to tell the story of domestic violence in their respective parts of the world. The book incorporates a strengths-based approach including individual, relationship, community, and societal strengths. The collection draws on multiple perspectives: academics, counselors, organizers, activists, and victims to determine strengths and analyze how they can translate into greater safety for victims, increased accountability of perpetrators, and improved policy formation and research. Each chapter focuses on the lived experiences of victims of intimate partner violence, child abuse, or elder abuse and includes information about the abuser, the family, the community, and the culture. Essays into Vietnamese Pasts K. W. Taylor, John K. Whitmore, 2018-05-31 Essays that demonstrate ways to read the pasts of Vietnam through detailed analyses of its art, chronicles, legends, documents, and monuments. The book's many voices undermine the idea of a single Vietnamese past. All the essays, while varied, are connected by their common concerns with language and text. "Women, Workers, and Race in LIFE Magazine" Dolores Flamiano, 2017-07-05 The tension between social reform photography and photojournalism is examined through this study of the life and work of German-born Ansel Mieth, 1909-1998, who made an unlikely journey from migrant farm worker to LIFE photographer. She was the second woman in that role after Margaret Bourke-White. Unlike her colleagues, Mieth was a working-class reformer with a deep disdain for LIFE's conservatism and commercialism. In fact, her work often subverted LIFE's typical representations of women, workers, and minorities. Some of her most compelling photo essays used skillful visual storytelling to offer fresh views on controversial topics birth control vivisection labor unions and Japanese American internment during the Second World War Her dual role as reformer and photojournalist made her a desirable commodity at Life in the late 1930s and early 40s but this role became untenable in Cold War America when her career was cut short Today Mieth's life and photographs stand as compelling reminders of the vital yet overlooked role of immigrant women in twentieth century photojournalism Women Workers and Race in LIFE Magazine draws upon a rich array of primary sources including Mieth's unpublished memoir oral histories and labor archives The book seeks to unravel and understand the multi layered often contested stories of the photographer's life and work It will be of interest to scholars of photography history women's studies visual culture and media history
