Rethinking Language Arts Nina Zaragoza, 2013-12-02 In Rethinking Language Arts Passion and Practice Second Edition author Nina Zaragoza uses the form of letters to her students to engage pre service teachers in reevaluating teaching practices thus bringing to life a vision of an alternative classroom environment in which the teacher is the prime mover and creative leader Zaragoza discusses and explains the need for teachers to be decision makers reflective thinkers political beings and agents of social change in order to create a positive and inclusive classroom setting This book is both a critical text that deconstructs the way language arts are traditionally taught in our schools as well as a visionary text with clear no nonsense directions on how to provide much needed change in our schools Selective Mutism In Our Own Words

Cheryl Forrester, Carl Sutton, 2015-12-21 An eye opening and enlightening collection of stories from people living with Selective Mutism SM this book provides a much needed platform for people with SM to share experiences of the condition in their own words Exploring all aspects of SM from symptoms and diagnostic criteria to triggers and the consequences of being psychologically unable to speak the stories in this book dispel the myths around this often misunderstood condition Far from refusing to talk or choosing not to the contributors offer genuine insights into why they simply cannot speak in certain situations or in front of certain people Children teens and adults from the UK and US share experiences of feeling isolated struggling at school and finding ways to communicate Letting people with SM know that they are not alone with the condition the book will also help family friends and professionals to understand what it is like to live with SM Annual Report of the Department of the Interior United States.
