Small Change Francois Truffaut, 2000-05 Small Change shot in the French Provinces is a story about children Truffaut has captured the essence of each age group the verbally precocious three year old who pushes the family cat out the window only to follow it nine stories to the ground the teenage boy yet to experience his first kiss but hopelessly infatuated with his best friend's mother the uncooperative eight year old daughter of the local policeman who when left alone as punishment uses her father's bullhorn to complain to the neighbors she is starving the brothers who having insufficient pocket money to buy a stolen compass cut a younger classmate's hair and borrow his barber money Small Change contains precise and moving descriptions of the various stages of a secure childhood of the fun and freedom one experiences as a child but throughout the film Truffaut makes a stunning comparison with another child who lives in the same town who attends the same school He compares the life of Julian who is hated and abused by his mother whose mere existence is despised because he is a child In Small Change Truffaut makes an eloquent and traumatic appeal for the rights of children

François Truffaut Annette Insdorf, 2020-08-31 Truffaut's films beautifully demonstrate the idea that a film can express its director as personally as a novel can reveal its author Moreover his development of a gently self-conscious visual style made him more than the entertainer he believed he was there is genuine artistry in his motion pictures He affected the course of French cinema indeed world cinema by blending auteurist art with accessible cinematic storytelling Unlike other New Wave directors such as Jean Luc Godard Truffaut preferred idiosyncratic characters like the semi autobiographical Antoine Doinel and universal emotions especially desire and fear to political tracts or didactic essays Instead of the elitism or self-indulgence that
