Small Town Brownny:

Small-town Brownny Simon Silva,1998 It tells the story of a young man struggling to understand his turbulent past his place in a family of farm workers in California and his identity The Impossible Land Phillip H. Round,2008 In this study of the relationship between the natural landscape and human storytelling Phillip Round brings together a century of stories produced in and about California s Imperial Valley a 6 000 square mile desert region along the borders of Mexico and Arizona One of America s driest and most barren areas the Imperial Valley was transformed at the beginning of the twentieth century when irrigation made it an agricultural oasis The story neither begins nor ends there however In Round s investigation of storytelling in this valley he finds a wide range of styles and subjects from tales credited with establishing a desert aesthetic movement in America to stories that mythologized desert reclamation as America s moral imperative from memoirs of dustbowl refugees Japanese Americans and Chicanos to the migration stories of Native peoples Round s analysis of the relationship between the regional and the national the personal and the political the romantic and the real in western American literature provides readers with a new vantage point from which to view such twenty first century challenges in the West as illegal immigration ecological disaster scientific innovation and cultural displacement If I Ever Get Back to Georgia, I'm Gonna Nail My Feet to the Ground Lewis Grizzard,2012-01-01 Lewis Grizzard got his first newspaper job when he was ten years old Thirty odd years later thirty very odd years he s still in the newspaper business and he s still infuriated by it still tickled by it and still very much in love with it If I Ever Get Back to Georgia I m Gonna Nail My Feet to the Ground is all about that anger that great humor and that even greater passion for something that affects every single one of us the daily newspaper Grizzard begins with his first writing job covering a Boy s Church League team in Newman Georgia and continues through his college years in Athens Georgia where he learned how to do such things as prepare a front page headline and layout in case Jesus Christ ever returned to earth Headline HE S BACK He examines the great Atlanta years and the cold Chicago winters as sports editor of the Sun Times during which Grizzard lost his second wife his cool and very nearly his sanity but also learned an awful lot about life liberty and the pursuit of happiness This is Grizzard s funniest and his best book yet Teaching and Learning in the New Latino Diaspora Edmund T. Hamann,Socorro G. Herrera,Enrique G. Murillo,Stanton Wortham,2024-11-22 This volume does more than document an educational dynamic that impacts Latino populations across the United States it also connects educational challenges to concrete plans for how those problems can be resolved Both experienced and new scholars describe strategies and outline policies to support academic success affirm identity and belonging and show how educational institutions can be transformed to better serve Latino constituencies in a post pandemic world where insistent efforts at right of belonging and affirmation counter Trumpian xenophobia and hostility Examples from elementary education to higher education supply familiar points of entry but also challenge readers to explore scenarios and strategies that they have not previously considered Each chapter begins with empirical documentation of an educational problem involving Latino populations where their presence is relatively new mainly post IRCA and goes on to outline how that problem can be resolved The text includes depictions of how youth participatory action research can diversify teacher education recruitment what authentically welcoming college campuses might look like how high school literature classes could include more Latino authors and much more Book Features Includes detailed examples of practice to assist teachers and school leaders in restructuring their classrooms and programs to better serve Latino students Describes settings and scenarios from across the United States that will be familiar to those teaching leading or preparing to do so Focuses on the new diaspora as distinct from states with traditionally large Latino populations Argues that lagging educational outcomes are far from inevitable and that inclusion engagement and success are possible and worth striving for
