Small Town Graces Ken Chapman, 2003 There is an old yarn about a stranger passing through a small town The stranger stopped for gas and a soft drink at a service station Seeing an old timer seated on a bench the stranger decided to engage the man in a conversation Have you lived here all your life he asked Reflecting on the question for a moment the old timer responded Not yet Just like the old timer in the preceding story we too need to reflect on the things that matter the most in our lives so that we can joyfully say Not yet Each story in this collection will help the reader reflect on the graces that many of us feel are in short supply in our hurried fast paced lives These graces though difficult to describe or define show us that the simple things are often most profound and are at the center of our lives in our best moments In Small Town Graces Dr Chapman shares some of these graces which have come to him over the years
