Social Control Of Religious Zeal A Study:

The Social Control of Religious Zeal Jon Miller, 1994 How has the organization of the Christian missionary movement managed to persist for almost two centuries Jon Miller covers the activities of the Evangelical Missionary Society of Basel Switzerland from 1828 to 1918 as it struggled to bring its Pietist religious beliefs to the people of the Gold Coast of West Africa The mission gave different social classes an opportunity to interact in a way that would have been unlikely in Europe Many of the missionaries became socially mobile over the generations through their evangelical work In matters of governance Pietist beliefs called for concentrated power at the center That discipline channeled the zeal of the missionaries but it alienated ordinary members and suppressed their initiative while at the same time allowing creativity among eccentric nonconformists Miller interprets these contradictions explores their consequences at home and abroad and explains how the mission persisted despite the personal pain its members experienced The mission remains active and influential in Africa to this day This study of the passage of an organization through time will interest organizational sociologists sociologists of religion and students of social theory and social change Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion Ralph L. Piedmont, David O. Moberg, 2003-10-01 Various articles are presented covering psychological sociological and cross cultural topics or relevance to religious spiritual researchers and academics The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in the Study of Religion Steven Engler, Michael Stausberg, 2013-06-17 This is the first comprehensive survey in English of research methods in the field of religious studies It is designed to enable non specialists and students at upper undergraduate and graduate levels to understand the variety of research methods used in the field The aim is to create awareness of the relevant methods currently available and to stimulate an active interest in exploring unfamiliar methods encouraging their use in research and enabling students and scholars to evaluate academic work with reference to methodological issues A distinguished team of contributors cover a broad spectrum of topics from research ethics hermeneutics and interviewing to Internet research and video analysis Each chapter covers practical issues and challenges the theoretical basis of the respective method and the way it has been used in religious studies illustrated by case studies The Reports of Theophilus Opoku Michelle Gilbert, Paul Jenkins, 2024-03-21 Theophilus Opoku a 19th century pastor in the Gold Coast wrote 37 reports to the Basel Mission between 1868 and 1908 In this volume Gilbert and Jenkins introduce and annotate his detailed and vivid reports which provide rare insight into conversion rites everyday life and conflict in the kingdom of Akuapem Slavery in the Global Diaspora of Africa Paul E. Lovejoy, 2019-03-07 The collective significance of the themes that are explored in Slavery in the Global Diaspora of Africa bridge the Atlantic and thereby provide insights into historical debates that address the ways in which parts of Africa fitted into the modern world that emerged in the Atlantic basin The study explores the conceptual problems of studying slavery in Africa and the broader Atlantic world from a perspective that focuses on Africa and the historical context that accounts for this influence Paul Lovejoy focuses on the parameters of the enforced migration of enslaved Africans including the impact on civilian populations in Africa constraints on migration and the importance of women and children in the movement of people who were enslaved The prevalence of slavery in Africa and the transformations of social and political formations of societies and political structures during the era of trans Atlantic migration inform the book s research The analysis places Africa specifically western Africa at the center of historical change not on the frontier or periphery of western Europe or the Americas and provides a global perspective that reconsiders historical reconstruction of the Atlantic world that challenges the distortions of Eurocentrism and national histories Slavery in the Global Diaspora of Africa will be of interest to scholars and students of colonial history African history Diaspora Studies the Black Atlantic and the history of slavery

Introduction to the Sociology of Missions Robert L. Montgomery, 1999-11-30 While much work has been done to apply anthropological insights to the study of missions the sociological perspective has been generally neglected by missiologists This volume defines the sociology of missions as a discrete subdiscipline within the sociology of religion and provides a working set of conceptual resources for those involved in mission work to use in furthering their understanding of their task The author reviews the major areas of sociology that are most relevant to missions and presents his findings as a basis for discussion and a stimulus to further exploration of relevant sociological concepts and theories One of his main goals is to increase dialogue between missiologists and sociologists of religion by providing the former with a sociological perspective and the latter with a deeper understanding of the missionary enterprise

From Mission to Modernity Paul Sedra, 2011-03-30 In this pioneering account of Egyptian educational history Paul Sedra describes how the Egyptian state under Muhammad Ali Pasha sought to forge a new relationship with children during the nineteenth century Through the introduction of modern forms of education brought to Egypt by evangelical missions the state aimed to ensure children s loyal service to the state whether through conscription or forced labour However these schemes of educational reform most prominently Joseph Lancaster s monitorial system led to unforeseen consequences as students in Egypt s new modern schools resisted efforts to control their behaviour in creative and complex ways and these acts of resistance themselves led to new forms of political identity Tracing the development of a distinctly Egyptian modernity From Mission to Modernity is indispensable for all those interested in Egyptian history and the history of modern education and reform

Pietism and Community in Europe and North America, 1650-1850, 2010-10-25 Pietist movements challenged traditional forms of religious community group formation and ecclesiology Where many older accounts have emphasized the individual and subjective nature of Pietists to the exclusion of community one of the hallmarks of Pietism has been the creation of groups and experimentation with new forms of religious association and sociality The essays presented here reflect the diverse ways in which Pietists struggled with the tension between the separation from the world and the formation of new communities from the seventeenth to the nineteenth century in Europe and North America Presenting a range of methodological perspectives the authors explore the processes of community formation the function of communicative networks and the diversity of Pietist communities within the context of early modern religious and cultural history Religious History and Culture Series Volume 4 Subseries Editors Joris van Eijnatten Fred van Lieburg

Preserving Order Amid Chaos John Rhodes Paige, 2000-11-01 To say that education in Africa is under stress is all too obvious News reports from that continent seem to describe only war and violence poverty and malnutrition corruption and mismanagement or natural disasters that destroy or threaten already frail infrastructures most news from Africa is bad news When an education system survives in a country like Uganda long subjected to the whims of despotic leadership it warrants an investigation This book tells the story of four senior secondary schools during a time of war and intractable social conflict examining a complex topic through multiple perspectives such as documentary history oral history ethnography and organization theory The author develops a broad picture of the Amin Obote years and the accompanying political and social chaos in Uganda while at the same time filling in the crucial details essential for developing an understanding of school survival in the Kaborole District The author's intensive field work gives this study a unique dimension by preserving a record of African voices students teachers parents alumni board members community leaders a rich tableau of the local conditions for school survival
