Social Credit For Beginners An Armchair Guide:

Social Credit for Beginners Stephen Osborne, Tom Osborne, 1986      Social Classes and Social Credit in Alberta Edward Bell, 1993 The Social Credit party in Alberta has traditionally been presented as petty bourgeois in its ideology and appeals reflecting what was believed to be the dominant class in the province at the time Edward Bell challenges these widely held interpretations of the ideology popular class basis and behaviour in office of the early Social Credit movement 1932 40      The Other Canon of Economics, Volume 1 Erik Reinert, 2024-02-13 Other Canon Economics Essays in the Theory and History of Uneven Economic Development brings together key essays on development economics from one of the most prolific and important development economists and historians of economic policy today Erik S Reinert argues through essays ranging from 1994 to 2020 that neo classical economics damages developing countries the theory of comparative advantage leaves out a number of factors which make economic activities qualitatively different as carriers of economic growth Based on a long intellectual tradition started by the Italian economists Giovanni Botero 1589 and Antonio Serra 1613 and later used in virtually all presently industrialised countries Reinert shows that the country which exports increasing returns goods e g high end manufacture has advantages over the country which exports diminishing returns goods e g commodities This has important implications for today s development strategies that Reinert argues should be seen as industrial strategies      Social Discredit Janine Stingel, 2000 In Social Discredit Janine Stingel exposes a crucial yet previously neglected part of Social Credit history the virulent anti Jewish campaign it undertook before during and after the Second World War While most Canadians acknowledged the perils of race hatred in the wake of the Holocaust Social Credit intensified its anti Semitic campaign By examining Social Credit s anti Semitic propaganda and the reaction of the Canadian Jewish Congress Stingel details their mutual antagonism and explores why Congress was unable to stop Social Credit s blatant defamation She argues that Congress s ineffective response was part of a broader problem in which passivity and a belief in quiet diplomacy undermined many of its efforts to combat intolerance Stingel shows that both Social Credit and Congress changed considerably in the post war period as Social Credit abandoned its anti Semitic trappings and Congress gradually adopted an assertive and pugnacious public relations philosophy that made it a champion of human rights in Canada Social Discredit offers a fresh perspective on both the Social Credit movement and the Canadian Jewish Congress substantively revising Social Credit historiography and providing a valuable addition to Canadian Jewish studies

The New Age Arthur Moore, 1929

Innovation and Entrepreneurship in the Public Sector Wendy D. Chen, David B. Audretsch, 2025 Entrepreneurship extends beyond startups and technological innovations Most entrepreneurship literature omits the initiatives that are prioritized in the public sector Likewise much public administration literature does not apply an entrepreneurial lens to the examination of the public sector To that point a central theme of this book is the argument that entrepreneurship and innovation both currently and have previously taken place in the public sector although their focus differs from their private sector counterparts The chapter sets the stage for the remainder of the book providing the contexts in which to examine the government's role in innovation and being entrepreneurial in its efforts to address social ills Provided by publisher
