Gays, Lesbians, and Consumer Behavior Daniel L. Wardlow, 2014-01-02 Marketing practitioners have begun to target gays and lesbians as consumers although little is known about their buying behavior expectations in consumption or of their treatment in the marketplace Gays Lesbians and Consumer Behavior is the first attempt at presenting the roles treatment and expectations of gays and lesbians as consumers in the marketplace It asserts that homosexuality often entails a fully elaborated lifestyle many details of which revolve around and reflect differences from mainstream society These findings are of practical value since consumers businesses channels of distribution and media forms are all segmented addressing a diversity of attitudes and behaviors and reaching consumers through targeted marketing In Gays Lesbians and Consumer Behavior Editor Daniel L Wardlow brings together research which builds upon the theoretical and empirical bases of consumer behavior Each chapter contributes to an understanding of consumption in the gay and lesbian subculture and raises a series of questions and ethical concerns to guide future research in this area Chapters center on the four broad themes of consumption rituals presentation through consumption discrimination and tolerance and application and accommodation Specific topics covered include ritualistic consumption in a sub cultural context lesbian consumption of lesbian imagery discrimination issues in retail customer service and hotel reservations effects of homosexual imagery on advertising gift giving behavior among homosexuals using marketing in HIV AIDS prevention counseling market profiling and strategy suggestions accommodating gays and lesbians as consumers in the marketplace The research presented in Guys, Lesbians and Consumer Behavior draws from a diverse collection of academic disciplines and fields of inquiry to present a glimpse at the consumption behavior of gay men lesbians and bisexuals and at the marketing response to these different populations As a pioneering effort Guys, Lesbians and Consumer Behavior's scope is not comprehensive but deliberately broad to allow researchers to delineate avenues for subsequent research Many of the chapters are empirical or descriptive in nature and contain insights for academic and practitioner alike Academics in marketing psychology sociology consumer behavior gay and lesbian studies and cultural anthropology will find this a valuable addition to their reading material Marketing advertising and retailing professionals will be able to put the information and findings to practical use as they aim to reach more consumers and broaden their audience

Fashion, Agency, and Empowerment Annette Lynch, Katalin Medvedev, 2018-11-29 Fashion has always been strongly linked with the politics of gender and equality In this global and interdisciplinary collection leading authors explore the relationships between the dressed body fashion sex and power with an emphasis on the role of dress in both reinforcing and challenging social norms Covering a range of geographic and social contexts the book explores the role of fashion in empowering both individuals and groups to create transformation and change Taking us from the performance of black dandyism through stylized hats to the use of challenging dance forms and male inspired dress by female South African dancers to express independence and equality to ways in which recent Bond Girls have challenged traditional gender binaries the book provides a crucial entry point into discussions of fashion as an empowerment strategy Fashion Agency and Empowerment encourages the reader to critically examine the cultural and social impact of sexual objectification as well as to consider personal and shared narratives of self objectification and repression With chapters ranging from the iconic self fashioning of Princess Diana to a discussion of sex power and cultural constructions of masculinity Fashion Agency and Empowerment provides crucial insights into global fashion political structures and social life

The Persistence of Taste Malcolm Quinn, Dave Beech, Michael Lehnert, Carol Tulloch, Stephen Wilson, 2018-05-11 This book offers an interdisciplinary analysis of the social practice of taste in the wake of Pierre Bourdieu's sociology of taste For the first time this book unites sociologists and other social scientists with artists and curators art theorists and art educators and art design and cultural historians who engage with the practice of taste as it relates to encounters with art cultural institutions and the practices of everyday life in national and transnational contexts The volume is divided into four sections The first section on Taste and art shows how art practice was drawn into the sphere of good taste contrasting this with a post conceptualist critique that offers a challenge to the social functions of good taste through an encounter with art The next section on Taste making and the museum examines the challenges and changing social political and organisational dynamics propelling museums beyond the terms of a supposedly universal institution and language of taste The third section of the book Taste after Bourdieu in Japan offers a case study of the challenges to the cross cultural transmission and local reproduction of good taste exemplified by the complex cultural context of Japan The final section on Taste the home and everyday life juxtaposes the analysis of the reproduction of inequality and alienation through taste with arguments on how the legacy of ideas of good taste have extended the possibilities of experience and sharpened our consciousness of identity As the first book to bring together arts practitioners and theorists with sociologists and other social scientists to examine the legacy and continuing validity of Pierre Bourdieu s sociology of taste this publication engages with the opportunities and problems involved in understanding the social value and the cultural dispositions of taste after Bourdieu It does so at a moment when the practice of taste is being radically changed by the global expansion of cultural choices and the emergence of deploying impersonal algorithms as solutions to cultural and creative decision making

Consumer Value Morris Holbrook,2002-03-11 As shoppers what factors influence our decision to purchase an object or service Why do we chose one product over another How do we attribute value as part of the shopping experience The theme of serving the customer and customer satisfaction is central to every formulation of the marketing concept yet few books attempt to define and analyse exactly what it is that consumers want In this provocative collection of essays Morris Holbrook brings together a team of the top US and European scholars to discuss an issue of great importance to the study of marketing and consumer behaviour This ground breaking interdisciplinary book provides an innovative framework for the study of consumer value which is used to critically examine the nature and type of value that consumers derive from the consumption experience efficiency excellence status esteem play aesthetics ethics spirituality Guaranteed to provoke debate and controversy this is a courageous individualistic and idiosyncratic book which should appeal to students of marketing consumer behaviour cultural studies and consumption studies Philosophy, Religion and Politics: Essays in Honour of Very Rev. Fr. Moses Orshio Adasu Alloy S Ihuah PhD,2012-08-02 This book is a collection of critical essays in the areas of Philosophy Religion and Politics in the continent of Africa in honour the Very Rev Fr Moses Orshio Adasu a pastor Politician and twenty first century Existentialist in the category of the encyclopaedic Gabriel Marcel The book underscore the very important issue of the politics of regionalism as it interfaces nationalism The question of religious beliscosity and ethnic identity are critically examined as some of the very serious problems in the way of political integration and unity in Africa Ambitious and carefully argued the book speaks to students and scholars in disciplines other than Philosophy Religion and Political Science It is a necessary policy companion for policy makers and the general reader The book deals with many other aspects of the most fundamental problems of human existence Fashion, Women and Power Denise N. Rall,2021-12-10 This book addresses the relationships between fashion women and power One of the constants within the book is to question the enduring relationship between women and dress and how these inform and articulate the ways in which women remain represented as either suitable or not for public office and their behaviour is informed through dress when they are in power

The book critiques the interplays between politics power class race and expectation in relation to the everyday practice of getting dress and the more performative and symbolic function of dress as embodiment As never before women are in positions of political power and find themselves facing the maelstroms of mass media regarding their fashion their deportment and their right to govern The contributors offer a wide set of perspectives on women and their roles and their fashions when taking up powerful positions in Australia New Zealand United Kingdom and the United States From the United Kingdom the historical issues surrounding the movement towards rational dress for women seeking their rights to vote and exercise are interrogated The volume also explores viewpoints from East Asia such as the constricting role for common women upon entering the Imperial family in Japan From the United States come the troublesome media stories engulfing two significant American Democratic First Ladies Hillary Rodham Clinton and Michelle Obama From New Zealand the media reports on Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern upon her motherhood while serving in the office and on her clothing during the 2019 Christchurch massacre comprise a much needed contribution to the literature on women politics and dress Further the role of dress in politics broadly as a form of resistance will be examined in Australia from recent skirmishes over appropriate dress with ex prime minister Julia Gillard and other Australian female politicians The role of women and what their fashion selections mean continues via considerable debate during worldwide events Finally the theme of resistance and social media continues with an examination of protest dressing in the recent street battles in Hong Kong to how young Asian women have been influenced by the social media campaigns to encourage wearing the veil in Indonesia to Asian women negotiating femininity in political dress Primary readership will be among researchers scholars educators and students in the fields of fashion dress studies women and gender studies and media and history It will be of particular value as at graduate level and as a supplementary resource There may be some general appeal to those with an interest in the women or cultures at the centre of the discussions

Law, Culture and Visual Studies Anne Wagner, Richard K. Sherwin, 2013-07-11 The proposed volumes are aimed at a multidisciplinary audience and seek to fill the gap between law semiotics and visuality providing a comprehensive theoretical and analytical overview of legal visual semiotics They seek to promote an interdisciplinary debate from law semiotics and visuality bringing together the cumulative research traditions of these related areas as a prelude to identifying fertile avenues for research going forward Advance Praise for Law Culture and Visual Studies This diverse and exhilarating collection of essays explores the many facets both historical and contemporary of visual culture in the law It opens a window onto the substantive jurisdictional disciplinary and methodological diversity of current research It is a cornucopia of materials that will enliven legal studies for those new to the field as well as for established scholars It is a must read that will leave you wondering about the validity of the long held obsession that reduces the law and legal studies to little more than a preoccupation with the word Leslie J Moran Professor of Law Birkbeck College University of London Law Culture Visual Studies is a treasure trove of insights on the entwined roles of legality and visuality From multiple interdisciplinary perspectives by scholars from around the world these pieces reflect the fullness and complexities of our visual encounters with law and culture From pictures to places to postage stamps from forensics to film to folklore this anthology is an exciting journey through the fertile field of law and visual culture as well as a testament that the field has come of age Naomi Mezey Professor of Law Georgetown University Law Center Washington D C USA This highly interdisciplinary reference work brings together diverse fields including cultural studies communication theory rhetoric law and film studies legal and social history visual and legal theory in order to document the various historical cultural representational and theoretical links that bind together law and the visual This book offers a breath taking range of resources from both well established and newer scholars who together cover the field of law s representation in interrogation of and dialogue with forms of visual rhetoric practice and discourse Taken together this scholarship presents state of the art research into an important and developing dimension of contemporary legal and cultural inquiry Above all Law Culture and Visual Studies lays the groundwork for rethinking the nature of law in our densely visual culture How are legal meanings produced encoded distributed and decoded What critical and hermeneutic skills new or old familiar or unfamiliar will be needed Topical diverse and enlivening Law Culture and Visual Studies is a vital research tool and an urgent invitation to further critical thinking in the areas so well laid out in this collection Desmond Manderson Future Fellow ANU College of Law Research School of Humanities the Arts Australian National University Australia

Embodying Punishment Anastasia Chamberlen, 2018-10-05 Embodying Punishment offers a theoretical and empirical exploration of women s lived experiences of imprisonment in England It puts forward a feminist critique of the prison arguing that prisoner bodies are central to our understanding of modern punishment and particularly of women s survival and resistance during and after prison Drawing on a feminist phenomenological framework informed by a serious engagement with scholars such as Maurice Merleau Ponty Simone de Beauvoir Erwin Goffman Michel Foucault Sandra Lee Bartky and Tori Moi Embodying Punishment revisits and expands the literature on the pains of imprisonment and offers an interdisciplinary examination of the embodiment and identities of prisoners and former prisoners pressing the need for a body aware approach to criminology and penology The book develops this argument through a qualitative study with prisoners and former prisoners discussing themes such as the perception of the prison through time space smells and sounds the change of prisoner bodies the presentation of self in and after prison including the centrality of appearance and prison dress in the management of prisoner and ex prisoner identities and a range of coping strategies adopted during and after imprisonment including prison food drug misuse and a case study on women s self injuring practices Embodying Punishment brings to the fore and critically analyses longstanding and urgent problems surrounding women s multifaceted oppression through imprisonment including matters of discriminatory and gendered treatment as well as issues around penal harm and argues for an experientially grounded critique of punishment

Fashioning Identity Maria Mackinney-Valentin, 2017-02-09 We dress to communicate who we are or who we would like others to think we are telling seductive fashion narratives through our adornment Yet today fashion has been democratized through high low collaborations social media and real time fashion mediation complicating the basic dynamic of identity displays and creating tension between personal statements and social performances Fashioning Identity explores how this tension is performed through fashion production and consumption by examining a diverse series of case studies from ninety year old fashion icons to the paradoxical rebellion in normcore and from soccer jerseys in Kenya to heavy metal band T shirts in Europe Through these cases the role of time gender age memory novelty copying the body and resistance are considered within the context of the contemporary fashion scene Offering a fresh approach to the subject by readdressing Fred Davis seminal concept of identity ambivalence in Fashion Culture and Identity 1992 Mackinney Valentin argues that we are in an epoch of status ambivalence in which fashioning one s own identity has become increasingly complicated
