Social Work And Housing:

Social Work, Housing, and Homelessness Robert Hagan, Anya Ahmed, 2025-03-19 Shelter is a basic human requirement yet housing in the UK has increasingly been perceived as an asset rather than the secure base everyone requires for their basic physical and mental health needs and well being This book examines how all types of housing have become precarious for many service users with whom social workers will engage and makes some suggestions regarding action and best practice Showing how people become homeless and the difficulties finding a way out of this the housing options for specific populations including care leavers those with disabilities families and older people will be examined All this will be framed in the context of social work practice building practitioner knowledge and confidence around an area that affects everyone but the significance of which is sometimes underexamined in holistic assessments Packed with reflective examples and case studies each chapter also includes a tuning in exercise to help prepare the reader for what the chapter will tackle with concluding thoughts on these exercises at the chapter end This book is suitable for both undergraduate and postgraduate social work students as they begin to think of more specialised areas of work in their second or subsequent years as well as social work practitioners who will be increasingly aware of the pressures of housing costs on those with whom they work

Social Work and Housing Gillian Stewart, John Stewart, 1993 Social Work and Housing written for students and practising social workers examines an important but hitherto neglected area Based on analyses of real cases the book develops understanding of clients housing circumstances and shows what positive help social workers can provide by integrating the knowledge and skills required with policy and practice analysis The authors placing their analysis in the context of feminist and class issues examine difficulties caused by the condition of housing its effect on health the breakdown of relationships between household members and the stigmatisation of clients because of where they live A welcome book in a very neglected area of social work Probation Journal

Homelessness Prevention and Intervention in Social Work Heather Larkin, Amanda Aykanian, Calvin L. Streeter, 2019-06-26 This important text provides a comprehensive survey of homelessness in America its scope and causes its diverse populations and the array of responses at the individual community and systems levels Expert contributors explore the links between trauma and homelessness the cycle of homelessness and health mental health problems and barriers preventing people from accessing services Case studies of effective programs and practices focus on science based interventions broad understanding of client needs and close coordination between systems and agencies Finally specialized chapters discuss issues and experiences common to homeless youth and young adults including housing instability on college campuses and empowerment based strategies for engaging youth voice in programming Included in the coverage Homelessness and health disparities a health equity lens Affordable housing and housing policy responses to homelessness Street talk homeless discourses and the politics of service provision Multisectoral collaborations to address homelessness Trauma informed care in homelessness service settings challenges and opportunities Incorporating youth voice

James P. Hubbard, 2018-07-05 In 1973 President Nixon halted new construction of public housing claiming that the U S government had become the biggest slumlord in history Four decades earlier in the depths of the Great Depression strong political support for federally subsidized low income housing had resulted in the Housing Act of 1937 By the 1950s growing criticism of the housing constructed by local authorities and prejudice against poor residents particularly African Americans fueled opposition to new projects This book documents the lively and wide ranging national debate over public housing from
