Room The Last Days of Man on Earth and numerous others It also considers the ways in which contemporary cinema has become increasingly hyper conglomerised leading to films with ever higher budgets and fewer creative risks Along the way the author discusses such topics as the death of film itself to be replaced by digital video the political and social tensions that have made these visions of infinite destruction so appealing to the public and the new wave of Hollywood war films coupled with escapist comedies in the post 9 11 era Encompassing both questions of physical and filmic mortality Visions of the Apocalypse is a meditation on the questions of time memory and the cinema s seemingly unending appetite for spectacles of destruction
