State Politics in Zimbabwe Jeffrey Herbst, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990

Toward Peace and Security in Southern Africa Harvey Glickman, 1990 First Published in 1990 This volume originates with a conference at Haverford College April 28 30 1989 On that weekend an international group of scholars inside and outside governments from Africa and elsewhere assembled to address the theme Toward Peace and Security in Southern Africa The conference was based on a sense of urgency concerning the continuing plight of the region reflected in the renewed state of emergency in South Africa and the declining economies in southern Africa as well as paradoxically a sense of impending opportunity for South Africa and the region as manifested in the Angola Namibia accords recently negotiated

A Life's Mosaic Phyllis Ntantala, 1993-01-01 Like Trotsky I did not leave home with the proverbial one and six in my pocket I come from a family of landed gentry and could have chosen the path of comfort and safety for even in apartheid South Africa there is still that path for those who will collaborate But I chose the path of struggle and uncertainty from the Preface Born into the small social elite of black South Africa Phyllis Ntantala did not face the grinding poverty so familiar to other South African blacks Instead her struggle was that of a creative articulate woman seeking fulfillment and justice in a land that tried to deny her both The widow of Xhosa writer and historian A C Jordan and mother of African National Congress leader Z Pallo Jordan she and her family experienced a period of tremendous change in South Africa and also in the United States where they moved during the 1960s She discovers similarities in the two countries including the arrogance of power Anchored in history and culture A Life's Mosaic sharply reveals the world and the people of South Africa As the story of a political exile it represents the dislocations that have caused universal suffering in the second half of the twentieth century Phyllis Ntantala discusses the cruelty of racism the cynicism of political solutions and the hopes of those who live in both a world of exile and a world of dreams
