WILSON, 1977 Dolphin Square Terry Gourvish, Terence Richard Gourvish, 2014-09-25 Dolphin Square the large imposing red brick building on the North bank of the Thames was and is no ordinary block of flats Created for MPs peers and entertainers required to work in London the Square was built on a massive scale to a high density in the mid 1930s It was a pioneering example of concrete design and when built was the largest single residential building in Europe This book tells the story of the project and captures what it has been like to live in the square for figures including Sir Menzies Campbell Alistair Darling William Hague Mo Mowlam Sir David Steel Christine Keeler Sid James Barbara Windsor and Princess Anne Beginning with the antecedents of the seven acre site the book charts the square's changing ownership and eventual creation of the Dolphin Square Trust which managed the flats on a non profit making basis for 40 years Its unique blend of quasi charitable purpose and commercial management enabled long standing tenants to enjoy below market rentals before the Trust came under immense pressure to realise the value of the existing leases and sell them off in 2006 provide a detailed examination of a major example of urban property speculation and management Publisher's description

Confessions A. N. Wilson, 2022-09-01 Known for his journalism biographies and novels A N Wilson turns a merciless searchlight on his own early life his experience of sexual abuse his catastrophic mistakes in love sacred and profane and his life in Grub Street as a prolific writer Before he came to London as one of the Best of Young British novelists and Literary Editor of the Spectator we meet another A N Wilson We meet his father the Managing Director of Wedgwood the grotesque teachers at his first boarding school and the dons of Oxford one of whom at the age of just 20 he married Katherine Duncan Jones the renowned Shakespearean scholar The book begins with his heart torn present day visits to Katherine now for decades his ex wife who has slithered into the torments of dementia At every turn of this reminiscence Wilson is baffled by his earlier self whether he is flirting with unsuitable lovers or with the idea of the priesthood His chapter on the High Camp seminary which he attended in Oxford is among the funniest in the book We follow his unsuccessful attempts to become an academic his aspirations to be a Man of Letters and his eventual encounters with the famous including some memorable meetings with royalty The princesses dons paedophiles and journos who cross the pages are as sharply drawn as figures in Wilson's early comic fiction But there is also a tenderness here in his evocation of those whom he has loved and hurt the most
