Swimming With Dolphins A Healing Experience:

Swimming with Dolphins Lisa Tenzin-Dolma, 1997 In Swimming with Dolphins Lisa Tenzin Dolma presents a collection of fifteen personal accounts which fuel the debate that dolphins are more intelligent than humans Dolphin Healing Horace E. Dobbs, 2015-11-05 Internationally renowned dolphin expert Dr Horace Dobbs tells the incredible story of over two decades work with dolphins and reveals new research that shows how dolphins can inspire us not only with their beauty and intelligence they can also heal us physically and emotionally Dobbs explores possible scientific explanations for the healing power of dolphins which he supports with many heart warming tales of personal transformation These stories include that of Bill who after swimming with dolphins was completely cured after 12 years of depression Lilo who s terminal cancer regressed and the incredible story of Eve a severely autistic girl who uttered her first word good after meeting a dolphin The book also examines the success of organised dolphin healing around the world including the work of the famous Dolphin Healing Centre in Kyoto Japan Inspiring and deeply moving Dolphin Healing heralds a breathtaking new development in communications between humans and dolphins Dolphins and Their Power to Heal Amanda Cochrane, 2000 Just Passing Thru Lorna Idol, Ph.D., 2019-05-22 There is romantic erotic love There is game playing uncommitted love There is obsessive possessive love and there is friendship based love There is pragmatic practical love and there is gentle caring unconditional love Where does self love fit in Just Passing Thru is a tale of a self absorbed and wealthy ladies man and an emotionally immature but brilliant and successful corporate consultant who crash into one another in a passionate attraction that intertwines them yet confuses them Belinda and Anton are caught in negative and positive powerful pulls that thrust them onto the same path and then forcibly pull them apart again and again as they just pass through different types of love that could lead them down the path to self actualization or down the path to self destruction Just Passing Thru is an account of the romance confusion and inevitable growth that can result when alcoholism and co dependency get mixed up with self empowerment and intelligence as the driving and conflicting forces Who has the most to lose Who has the most to gain The church girl or the party boy Belinda wants to gain true love Will she find it with Anton A good partner will ride with you until hell freezes over and even a little while on the ice But when will enough be more than enough Abducted Michael Alan, 2025-07-28 Abducted is a love story about a father s desperate search for his beloved abducted daughters It details criminal parental abduction international search and rescue efforts abuse coercive thought reform or brainwashing as well as cult manipulation and indoctrination It documents the unique life experience of raising two profoundly gifted daughters one a medically complicated special needs child The story is a tribute to the heroic resilience of both children and is written in their honor The Holistic Animal Handbook Kate Solisti-Mattelon, Patrice Mattelon, 2004 The Holistic Animal Handbook is the first book to bring together practical information about diet nutrition and training with animal communication and emotional balancing techniques The book guides readers into helping their companion animals themselves and encourages them to work as well with veterinarians, trainers and health care practitioners. It includes chapters that explain how to prepare healthy, holistic recipes and Bach Flower Remedies for restoring an animal's emotional balance and solutions for common behavioral and training problems. Focusing primarily on dogs, cats and horses but relevant to virtually all animals, the book presents a dual premise: healthy companion animals are better equipped to help the humans they love just as educated humans are better able to comprehend their animals' needs.

Dolphin Song Lauren St. John, 2008-05-01 The second exciting adventure in the dramatic Legend of the Animal Healer series. Martine is just getting used to her new life on the game reserve with her grandmother and the white giraffe, Jemmy, when she must go away. Her class is going on a trip an ocean voyage to watch the sardine run, a spectacular natural phenomenon off the coast of South Africa. But the exciting adventure takes a dramatic turn when Martine and several of her classmates are thrown overboard into shark-infested waters. They are saved by a pod of dolphins and end up marooned on a deserted island. Now the castaways must learn to work together not only to survive but to help the dolphins who are now in peril.

Virtual Environments in Clinical Psychology and Neuroscience Giuseppe Riva, Brenda K. Wiederhold, E. Molinari, 2006-12-15 Virtual Reality (VR) offers the potential to develop human testing and training environments that allow for the precise control of complex stimulus presentations in which human cognitive and functional performance can be accurately assessed and rehabilitated. However, basic feasibility and human issues need to be addressed in order for this technology to be reasonably and efficiently applied in clinical psychology. The book, written in a scholarly style, will provide rationales for virtual reality's applicability in clinical psychology. We will review the relevant literature regarding theoretical and pragmatic issues for these applications and provide a description of ongoing work developed world-wide. The topics directly involve critical issues for clinicians, designers and users and will be discussed with scientific competence without neglecting clarity and empirical cases with suggestions for actual use. The book is divided in three main sections: VR in clinical psychology opportunities and challenges; VR in treatment of phobias and VR in clinical assessment and therapy.

The Trauma Tool Kit Susan Pease Banitt, 2012-12-19 2013 Nautilus Silver Award Winner. In 2010 the Department of Veterans Affairs cited 171,423 Iraq and Afghanistan war veterans diagnosed with PTSD out of 593,634 total patients treated. That's almost 30 percent. Other statistics show 35 percent. Nor, of course, is PTSD limited to the military. In twenty years as a therapist, Susan Pease Banitt has treated trauma in patients ranging from autistic children to women with breast cancer, from underage sex slaves to adults incapacitated by early childhood abuse. Doctors she interviewed in New York report that even before 9/11 most of their patients had experienced such extreme stress that they had suffered physical and mental breakdowns. Those doctors agree with Pease Banitt that stress is the disease of our times. At the 2009 Evolution of Psychotherapy conference, Jack Kornfield noted, "We need a trauma tool kit." Here it is. Most people, Pease Banitt says, experience trauma as a terminal blow to their deepest sense of self. Her techniques restore a sense of wholeness at the core level from which all healing springs. The uniqueness of her book lies in its diversity and accessibility. She assesses the values and limitations of traditional and alternative therapies and suggests methods that are universally available Almost anybody can grow some lavender in a pot she notes or find a tree to sit under a journal to write in or Epsom Salts in which to soak They can learn exercises of the mind and breath work to regulate the body Besides such resources Pease Banitt s tools for healing include Skills to build a first aid kit to respond to any traumatic event Insight into the causes of stress mentally and physically Motivation to deal with stress sooner rather than later An insider s knowledge about maintaining health The ability to make good decisions for effective interventions Increased resilience to overwhelming events She closes with a look at public policy and public health issues and the need for new therapeutic models If trauma is the disease of our time then healing from trauma individually and globally can pave the way for a brighter future This book provides the tools The Heart of Healing Christine Hibbard PhD,2016-12-19 In this inspiring memoir Dr Chris Hibbard a psychotherapist specializing in emotional trauma tells us stories of healing and transformation from her years traveling to many of the most troubled parts of the world determined to help survivors of war She has worked with refugees and survivors in Kosovo the Middle East and Uganda helping to heal the wounds left by war genocide and illness She shares the most memorable stories of her own compelling insights on healing learned in her personal life and meeting with healers in New Zealand Hawaii Syria and Brazil In most of these places she responded to a calling to facilitate recovery and wholeness in herself and others But along the way it was the others who taught Chris lessons about the true nature of healing the bravery it takes to forgive ones enemies and the transformational power of the human spirit
