Paulus Hector Mair's Ars Athletica Volume I Paulus Hector Mair,2022-12-31 To those who study the physical culture of arms in medieval Europe the German Fechtbücher treatises on combat arts are among the most important surviving documentary sources no other region in Europe produced such an extensive body of writings on the techniques of medieval combat Among these and indeed among the martial arts treatises produced by any culture the massive compendia commissioned by the scholar swordsman Paulus Hector Mair 1517 1579 stands out as uniquely ambitious and monumental The text survives in three manuscript copies each consisting of two volumes with each manuscript running to approximately 1200 pages and includes about 17 weapon forms depending on how one counts them from two handed sword to rapier armoured combat to sickle and scythe each form consists of anywhere from 8 to 136 lavishly illustrated techniques in many cases followed by one or more seminal texts on the form The various weapon forms are mutually integrated with each other in techniques and vocabulary and collectively offer an enormous volume of interpretable material The combination of text and image in the illustrated techniques offers obvious advantages to the understanding of a physical practice and Mair is unique among the German masters in systematically giving instructions to both combatants so that as one learns how to perform a technique they also learn how to counter it Lastly one of the most important features of the Ars Athletica is the Latin translation which serves as something of a Rosetta stone for interpreting the vocabulary of these long lost martial arts In this series Dr Jeffrey Forgeng translator of the equally seminal Fechtbücher of Joachim Meyer and Hans Leckuchner has compiled a team of translator practitioners to tackle Mair's opus Over a decade of work has gone into transcribing translating and annotating the Ars Athletica Treatise on the Martial Arts presenting both the original German and Latin as well as a modern English translation Volume One of this series presents the Longsword which was the traditional centerpiece of the German medieval tradition and provides the core instruction through which all other weapons of the tradition can be understood In three languages and full color illustrations readers will find a complete curriculum of cuts thrusts disarms and grapples even using the sword as a short spear which forms the foundation for armoured combat the subject of a later volume

Dürer's Fight Book Dierk Hagedorn,Daniel Jaquet,2022-06-02 Albrecht Dürer is probably the most famous German artist of the Renaissance if not of all time His works are world famous and he was a master in numerous artistic disciplines such as woodcut copperplate engraving drawing and painting What is less well known is that he was interested in weapons and fencing throughout his life He produced several woodcuts for a tournament book by Emperor Maximilian I but he devoted himself much more thoroughly to the subject of duels in his own extensive fencing manuscript D rers fight book stands out from the mass of illustrated fencing manuscripts because of its outstanding quality In well over 100 elaborate drawings the master uniquely depicts dynamic pairs of fighters practising contemporary combat techniques such as wrestling or sword and dagger fighting Since its creation more than 500 years ago the fight book has never been published in its entirety This edition offers the complete contents of the manuscript for the very first time All illustrations are reproduced in color and the complete text is presented in a letter perfect transcription as well as a translation into modern English Albrecht D rers fight book offers a unique new look at D rer the artist and D rer the fighter
