Building, Lighting and Engineering ,1929 New South Wales Railway and Tramway Budget ,1914 The New South Wales Industrial Gazette ,1918 Legacies of Violence Robert Mason,2016-12-01 Whether in the form of warfare dispossession forced migration or social prejudice Australia's sense of nationhood was born from and continues to be defined by experiences of violence Legacies of Violence probes this brutal legacy through case studies that range from the colonial frontier to modern domestic spaces exploring themes of empathy isolation and Australians imagined place in the world Moving beyond the primacy that is typically accorded white accounts of violence contributors place particular emphasis on the experiences of those perceived to be on the social periphery repositioning them at the center of Australia's relationship to global events and debates "Red Ted" Ross Fitzgerald,1994 E G Theodore one of Australia's most enterprising and unusual political figures was Treasurer and Premier of Queensland and later Federal Treasurer and Deputy Prime Minister of Australia in the Scullin Labor government Setting the Record Straight Colin Symes,2004-11-29 The words surrounding music influence how we listen to it Chinese Australians Sophie Couchman,Kate Bagnall,2015-01-27 In Chinese Australians Politics Engagement and Resistance key scholars explore how Chinese Australians in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries influenced the communities in which they lived on a civic or individual level With a focus on the motivations and aspirations of their subjects the authors draw on biography world history case law newspapers and immigration case files to investigate the political worlds of Chinese Australians The book also introduces current literature and thinking about the history of the Chinese in Australia and includes a postscript that reflects on the importance of historical analysis to current day political science Chinese in Australian Fiction, 1888-1988 , Australian Mechanical Engineering ,1929 The American Occupation of Australia, 1941-45 John McKerrow,2013-07-26 Over 120 000 American troops were stationed in Australia during the Second World War Hundreds of thousands more passed through the country between 1941 and 1945 Because of Japan's conquest of the Philippines in 1942 Australia was transformed into the principle base for the United States Army in the Southwest Pacific This American occupation of an allied country resulted in several areas of tension between friends The examination of these fault lines which have for the most part received little attention from historians is the purpose of this book Jurisdictional and policing disputes and problems between Australian workers and American authorities are examined American personnel committed thousands of crimes during the occupation many of which were notorious How Australians reacted to these crimes and how the American military sought to limit their negative effect on wartime relations is a major focus of this book How the US military tried to protect GIs from prosecution by spiriting them out of Australia is also explored Other areas of tension such as race and gender relations which have been looked at by other historians are examined in a new light this book provides novel insights and challenges the existing historiography with regard to relations between black Americans and Australian civilians How leaders on both sides

in particular Douglas MacArthur and John Curtin managed crises and relations between civilians and GIs are studied Sexual relations an area of particular concern for authorities were directed towards short term flings and prostitution In contrast authorities did all they could to discourage long term relations i e marriage Authorities obsessed over interracial sexual relations and doubled efforts to discourage them Conflicts between American personnel and Australian civilians during the occupation did not threaten the alliance against Japan Nevertheless there were myriad problems between allies that led to friction and ill will These problems demanded management from above
