Symbolic Narratives African Cinema:

Symbolic Narratives/African Cinema June Givanni, 2019-07-25 In the conference Africa and the History of Cinematic Ideas held in London in 1995 film makers cultural theorists and critics gathered to debate a range of issues Views were exchanged on such topics as imperialism and the problems of distribution African Cinema: Manifesto and Practice for Cultural Decolonization Michael T. Martin, Gaston Jean-Marie Kaboré, 2023-08-08 Challenging established views and assumptions about traditions and practices of filmmaking in the African diaspora this three volume set offers readers a researched critique on black film Volume One of this landmark series on African cinema draws together foundational scholarship on its history and evolution Beginning with the ideological project of colonial film to legitimize the economic exploitation and cultural hegemony of the African continent during imperial rule to its counter historical formation and theorization It comprises essays by film scholars and filmmakers alike among them Roy Armes Med Hondo F rid Boughedir Haile Gerima Oliver Barlet Teshome Gabriel and David Murphy including three distinct dossiers a timeline of key dates in the history of African cinema a comprehensive chronicle and account of the contributions by African women in cinema and a homage and overview of Ousmane Semb ne the Father of African cinema Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike, 2014-02-27 Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to lay bare the diversity and essence of African cinema discourse It is an anthology of historical reflections critical essays and interviews by film critics historians theorists and filmmakers that signifies a dialogue and engagement apropos the ideology and cultural politics of film production in Africa The contributors are extremely concerned not only with the history of African cinema but with its future and its potential This book then is not limited to the expansion of the discourse on African cinema but tries to approach the definition of the critical canon within the exigencies and manifestations of art and African sociopolitical practices The authors view these practices as an investment in a cultural imperative stemming from the quest to delineate how critical methodologies are derived from and shape contemporary historical and cultural practices Hence the contributions are less about the usual constrictive method of analysis and more about illustrating manifestations of an interrogative critical methodology that is certainly an offspring of an indigenous African critical cum cinematic culture and paradigms Gender Terrains in African Cinema Dominica Dipio, 2019-04-12 Gender Terrains in African Cinema reflects on a body of canonical African filmmakers who address a trajectory of pertinent social issues Dipio analyses gender relations around three categories of female characters the girl child the young woman and the elderly woman and their male counterparts Although gender remains the focal point in this lucid and fascinating text Dipio engages attention in her discussion of African feminism in relation to Western feminism With its broad appeal to African humanities Gender Terrains in African Cinema stands as a unique and radical contribution to the field of African film studies which until now has suffered from a paucity of scholarship African Film Studies Boukary Sawadogo, 2018-10-09

African Film Studies An Introduction is an accessible and authoritative textbook on African cinema as a field of study The book provides a succinct and comprehensive study of the history aesthetics and theory of sub Saharan African cinematic productions that is grounded in the field of film studies instead of textual interpretations from other disciplines Bringing African cinema out of the margins into the discipline of mainstream film studies and showcasing the diverse cinematic expressions of the continent the book covers Overview of African cinema s Questions our assumptions about the continent s cinematic productions and defines the characteristics of African cinema across linguistic geographic and filmic divides History of African and African American cinema Spans the history of film in Africa from colonial import and appropriation of the gaze to the quest for individuality It also establishes parallels in the historical development of black African cinema and African American cinema Aesthetics Introduces new research on previously unexplored aesthetic dimensions such as cinematography animation and film music Theoretical Approaches Addresses a number of theoretical approaches and critical frameworks developed by scholars in the study of African cinema All chapters include case studies suggestions for further reading and screening lists to deepen the reader s knowledge with no prior knowledge of African cinema required Students teachers and general film enthusiasts would all benefit from this accessible and engaging book

African Art, Interviews, Narratives Joanna Grabski, Carol Magee, 2013-05-28 Joanna Grabski and Carol Magee bring together a compelling collection that shows how interviews can be used to generate new meaning and how connecting with artists and their work can transform artistic production into innovative critical insights and knowledge The contributors to this volume include artists museum curators art historians and anthropologists who address artistic production in a variety of locations and media to question previous uses of interview and provoke alternative understandings of art

Focus on African Films Françoise Pfaff, 2004-07-13 Focus on African Films offers pluralistic perspectives on filmmaking across Africa highlighting the distinct thematic stylistic and socioeconomic circumstances of African film production

African Film Josef Gugler, 2003 In African Film Re imagining a Continent Josef Gugler provides an introduction to African cinema through an analysis of 15 films made by African filmmakers These directors set out to re image Africa their films offer Western viewers the opportunity to re imagine the continent and its people As a point of comparison two additional films on Africa one from Hollywood the other from apartheid South Africa serve to highlight African directors altogether different perspectives Gugler s interpretation considers the financial and technical difficulties of African film production the intended audiences in Africa and the West the constraints on distribution and the critical reception of the films

African Film and Literature Lindiwe Dovey, 2009 Analyzing a range of South African and West African films inspired by African and non African literature Lindiwe Dovey identifies a specific trend in contemporary African filmmaking one in which filmmakers are using the embodied audiovisual medium of film to offer a critique of physical and psychological violence Against a detailed history of the medium s savage introduction and exploitation by colonial powers in two very different African contexts Dovey examines the complex ways in which African filmmakers are preserving mediating and critiquing their own cultures while seeking a united vision of the future More than merely representing socio cultural realities in Africa these films engage with issues of colonialism and postcolonialism updating both the history and the literature they adapt to address contemporary audiences in Africa and elsewhere Through this deliberate and radical re historicization of texts and realities Dovey argues that African filmmakers have developed a method of filmmaking that is altogether distinct from European and American forms of adaptation

African Filmmaking Roy Armes, 2006-08-07 Armes offers a wealth of information and a unique perspective on the history and future of African filmmaking
