The Cinema Of Otto Preminger:

The cinema of Otto Preminger Gerald Pratley, 1968 The World and Its Double Chris Fujiwara, 2008 Otto Preminger was one of Hollywood's first truly independent producer-directors. He sought to address the major social, political, and historical questions of his time in films designed to appeal to a wide public. Blazing a trail in the examination of controversial issues such as drug addiction (The Man with the Golden Arm) and homosexuality (Advise and Consent) and in the frank, sophisticated treatment of adult material (Anatomy of a Murder), Preminger broke the censorship of the Hollywood Production Code and the blacklist. He also made some of Hollywood's most enduring film noir classics including Laura and Fallen Angel. More than anyone else, Preminger represented the transition from the Hollywood of the studios to the decentralized wheeling and dealing of New Hollywood of today. Chris Fujiwara's studious, informative, often astutely argued Gerald Peary The Phoenix biography follows Preminger throughout his varied career, penetrating his carefully constructed public persona and revealing the many layers of his work.

Otto Preminger Gary Bettinson, 2021-11-15 Otto Preminger (1905-1986) whose Hollywood career spanned the 1930s through the 1970s is popularly remembered for the acclaimed films he directed, among which are the classic film noir Laura, the social realist melodrama The Man with the Golden Arm, the CinemaScope musical Carmen Jones, and the riveting courtroom drama Anatomy of a Murder. As a screen actor, he forged an indelible impression as a sadistic Nazi in Billy Wilder's Stalag 17 and as the diabolical Mr. Freeze in television's Batman. He is remembered too for drastically transforming Hollywood's industrial practices. With Exodus, Preminger broke the Hollywood blacklist, controversially granting screen credit to Dalton Trumbo, one of the exiled Hollywood Ten. Preminger, a committed liberal, consistently shattered Hollywood's conventions. He routinely tackled socially progressive yet risqué subject matter, pressing the Production Code's limits of permissibility. He mounted Black cast musicals at a period of intense racial unrest. And he embraced a string of other taboo topics: heroin addiction, rape, incest, homosexuality, that established his reputation as a trailblazer of adult-centered storytelling, an enemy of Hollywood puritanism, and a crusader against censorship.

Otto Preminger Interviews compiles nineteen interviews from across Preminger's career, providing fascinating insights into the methods and mindset of a wildly polarizing filmmaker. With remarkable candor, Preminger discusses his filmmaking practices, his distinctive film style, his battles against censorship and the Hollywood blacklist, his clashes with film critics, and his turbulent relationships with a host of well-known stars, from Marilyn Monroe and Frank Sinatra to Jane Fonda and John Wayne.

Otto Preminger Foster Hirsch, 2011-06-22 The first full-scale life of the controversial, greatly admired yet often underrated director/producer who was known as Otto the Terrible. Nothing about Otto Preminger was small, trivial, or self-denying. From his privileged upbringing in Vienna as the son of an improbably successful Jewish lawyer to his work in film and theater in Europe and later in America, his range as a director was remarkable: romantic comedies (The Moon Is Blue), musicals (Carmen Jones, Porgy and Bess), courtroom dramas (The Court Martial of Billy Mitchell, Anatomy of a Murder), adaptations of classic plays Shaw's Saint Joan screenplay by Graham Greene political melodrama Advise and Consent war films In Harm's Way film noir Laura Angel Face Bunny Lake Is Missing He directed sweeping sagas from The Cardinal and Exodus to Hurry Sundown and small scale pictures adapting Françoise Sagan's Bonjour Tristesse with Arthur Laurents and Nelson Algren's The Man with the Golden Arm Foster Hirsch shows us Preminger battling studio head Darryl F. Zanuck defying and undermining the Production Code of the Motion Picture Association of America and the Catholic Legion of Decency first in 1953 by refusing to remove the words virgin and pregnant from the dialogue of The Moon Is Blue he released the film without a Production Code Seal of Approval and then two years later when he dared to make The Man with the Golden Arm about the then taboo subject of drug addiction When he made Anatomy of a Murder in 1959 the censors objected to the use of the words rape sperm sexual climax and penetration Preminger made one concession substituting violation for penetration the picture was released with the seal and marked the beginning of the end of the Code Hirsch writes about how Preminger was a master of the invisible studio bred approach to filmmaking the so called classical Hollywood style lengthy takes deep focus long shots of groups of characters rather than close ups and reaction shots He shows us Preminger in the 1950s becoming the industry's leading employer of black performers his all black Carmen Jones and Porgy and Bess remain landmarks in the history of racial representation on the American screen and breaking another barrier by shooting a scene in a gay bar for Advise and Consent a first in American film Hirsch tells how Preminger broke the Hollywood blacklist when in 1960 he credited the screenplay of Exodus to Dalton Trumbo the most renowned of the Hollywood Ten and hired more blacklisted talent than anyone else We see Preminger's balanced style and steadfast belief in his actors underacting set against his own hot tempered personality and finally we see this European born director making his magnificent films about the American criminal justice system Anatomy of a Murder and about the American political system Advise and Consent Foster Hirsch shows us the man enraging and endearing and his brilliant work The Cinema of Eric Rohmer Jacob Leigh, 2012-05-03 Presents in chronological order the themes and ideas of his twenty three feature films and the complexity of their cinematic style The Cinema of John Carpenter Ian Conrich, David Woods, 2004 The aim of this book is to give John Carpenter's output the sustained critical treatment it deserves It comprises essays that address the whole of Carpenter's work as well as others which focus on a small number of key films The Cinema House and the World Serge Daney, 2022-09-06 The writings of one of the greatest film critics of his generation on the auteur approach of the French New Wave to a more structural examination of film One of the greatest film critics of his generation Serge Daney wrote for Cahiers du Cinéma before becoming a journalist for the daily newspaper Libération The writings collected in this volume reflect Daney's evolving interests from the auteur approach of the French New Wave to a more structural examination of film psychoanalysis and popular culture Openly gay throughout his lifetime Daney rarely wrote explicitly about homosexuality but his writings reflect a queer sensibility that would influence future generations In regular intellectual exchanges with Gilles

Deleuze Félix Guattari and Roland Barthes Daney wrote about cinema autobiographically while lyrically analyzing the transition from modern cinema to postmodern media A noted polymath Daney also published books about tennis and Haiti's notorious Duvalier regime His criticism is open and challenging polyvocal and compulsively readable The Films of Jean Seberg Michael Coates-Smith, Garry McGee, 2014-01-10 Here is the first comprehensive examination of the international film career of Iowa born actress Jean Seberg 1938-1979 Bursting onto the scene as star of Otto Preminger's controversial Saint Joan 1957 the 19 year old Seberg encountered great difficulty recovering from the devastating criticism of her performance The turnaround came in 1959 with her brilliant work in Jean Luc Godard's new wave classic A bout de souffle Breathless Though her Hollywood prospects were harmed by subsequent political involvements Seberg continued to work with some of Europe's finest directors Her later films offer a fascinating view of the movie industry in the 1960s and 1970s and of a courageous actress always ready for a new challenge A biographical sketch provides a framework for detailed scrutiny of her 37 films Background information and a critical evaluation is provided for each title Success in the Cinema Money Making Movies John Howard Reid, 2006-06-01 Basically there are three measures of success in the cinema First off are pictures like The Crowd and Applause that achieve rave reviews and even go on to win awards but don't recover their negative costs Then there are the movies the critics hate but the public enjoys All three versions of Back Street for instance Finally come the pictures everyone loves like From Here To Eternity or Sunset Boulevard In the annals of success in Hollywood's Golden Age one name stands out above all others Cecil B DeMille His famous pictures reviewed here include both versions of The Buccaneer The Crusades Sign of the Cross The Story of Dr Wassell and Union Pacific But the book also notes a DeMille B movie that tied up a fair amount of money but proved so unpopular it was released in some territories as a support The book also covers some of Hollywood's other disastrous failures including the M G M movie that cost over 4 million to make and returned virtually nothing The Catholic Crusade Against the Movies, 1940-1975 Gregory D. Black, 1998-01-13 For more than three decades the Catholic church through its Legion of Decency had the power to control the content of Hollywood films From the mid 1930s to the late 1960s the Catholic Legion served as a moral guardian for the American public Hollywood studios submitted their films to the Legion for a rating which varied from general approval to condemnation This book details how a religious organisation got control of Hollywood and how films like A Streetcar Named Desire Lolita and Tea and Sympathy were altered by the Legion to make them morally acceptable Documenting the inner workings of the Legion The Catholic Crusade against the Movies also examines how the changes in the movie industry and American society at large in the post World War II era eventually conspired against the Legion's power and so lead to its demise
