The Cliff Walk A Memoir Of A Job Lost And A Life Found:

The Cliff Walk Don J. Snyder, 1998-12 The Cliff Walk Don J. Snyder, 1998-07-20 Snyder's account of temporarily losing his way in life presents a heartrending and inspiring memoir that confronts the not so secret fear that haunts every American who works for a living Atlanta Journal Constitution Author publicity Sociology of Self-Knowledge: Course Topic as well as Pedagogical Strategy Mohammad H. Tamdgidi, Khaldoun Samman, 2005-09-01 This Fall 2004 Spring 2005 III 1 2 double issue of Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge demonstrates the extent to which the sociology of self knowledge as advanced by this journal from its inception can serve as both a course topic as well as a pedagogical strategy in teaching sociology and related subjects The issue includes student papers of various faculty at UMass Boston and a symposium of student and faculty papers organized by Khaldoun Samman from Macalester College Samman had earlier taken the step of turning his senior seminar into a course on the sociology of self knowledge and encouraging his students all graduating seniors at Macalester to subject their own lives and troubles to their sociological imaginations The student papers included in the issue as a whole are highly demonstrative of how self and socially critical and liberating the sociology of self knowledge can be Authors use a variety of class and outside readings as well as films and documentaries to explore in depth currently unresolved issues in their lives while making every effort to move in depth to relate their personal troubles to broader public issues Contributors include Deborah D Isabel Claudia Contreras Katherine Heller Rebecca Tink Caitlin Farren Haing Kao Harold Muriaty Rachel A DeFilippis Lee Kang Woon N I B Sharon Brown Jennifer Lambert Anonymous Jorge Capetillo Ponce Khaldoun Samman also as journal issue guest editor Ellen Corrigan Jeremy Cover Jesse Mortenson Jessica Sawyer and Mohammad Tamdgidi also as journal editor in chief Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge is a publication of OKCIR The Omar Khayyam Center for Integrative Research in Utopia Mysticism and Science Utopistics For more information about OKCIR and other issues in its journal's Edited Collection as well as Monograph and Translation series visit OKCIR's homepage The Demise of the Library School Richard J. Cox, 2010 In The Demise of the Library School Richard J Cox places the present and future of professional education for librarianship in the debate on the modern corporate university The book is a series of meditations on critical themes relating to the education of librarians archivists and other information professionals playing off of other commentators analyzing the nature of higher education and its problems and promises Tick Tock, Don't Stop Robert S. Swiatek, 2003-07 One of my earlier books this was the first one about work Sitting down to consider all the jobs I've had it was only then that I realized I had quite a few some without pay One of the chapters lists them Other chapters discuss management consulting the union both of the workers as well as the group fighting the confederacy the minimum wage why we work and working smart rather than working hard Fine Homebuilding, 1998 Academic Lives Cynthia G. Franklin, 2012-03 Since the early 1990s there has been a proliferation of memoirs by tenured humanities professors Although the memoir form has been discussed within the flourishing field of life writing academic memoirs have received little critical scrutiny Based on close readings of memoirs by such academics as Michael B rub Cathy N Davidson Jane Gallop bell hooks Edward Said Eve Sedgwick Jane Tompkins and Marianna Torgovnick Academic Lives considers why so many professors write memoirs and what cultural capital they carry Cynthia G Franklin finds that academic memoirs provide unparalleled ways to unmask the workings of the academy at a time when it is dealing with a range of crises including attacks on intellectual freedom discontentment with the academic star system and budget cuts Franklin considers how academic memoirs have engaged with a core of defining concerns in the humanities identity politics and the development of whiteness studies in the 1990s the impact of postcolonial studies feminism and concurrent anxieties about pedagogy and disability studies and the struggle to bring together discourses on the humanities and human rights The turn back toward humanism that Franklin finds in some academic memoirs is surreptitious or frankly nostalgic others however posit a wide ranging humanism that seeks to create space for advocacy in the academic and other institutions in which we are all unequally located These memoirs are harbingers for the critical turn to explore interrelations among humanism the humanities and human rights struggles

On Your Marx Randy Martin,2002 Reclaims Marx for today through a fundamental reconsideration of how his works should be read Why and how does Marx speak to our day Seeking to reestablish the link between Marx socialism and the Left this book negotiates the common ground between orthodox marxism and postmarxism to show how Marx can elaborate the present More than a claim for his relevance this book is also a forceful statement about how theory relates to political project and organization What Randy Martin asks does Marx have to say to the discourses of radical democracy postmodernism and globalization all of which purport to solve problems that emerge in Marx s writings A reading of Marx can in fact disclose the limitations of the contemporary modes of criticism identifying the difficult conceptual problems that cannot be avoided or overcome Using readings of Marx to restage contemporary political discussions On Your Marx reengages orthodox and postmarxist understandings in a critical and constructive conversation In doing so the book points to powerful new alliances between cultural and political theorists and activists opening new possibilities for mobilization and social justice
