Robert Kerr

The Comfortable House:

The Gentleman's House Robert Kerr, 1865 The Gentleman's House Robert Kerr, 2012-03-08 This 1864 guide to stately home building for gentlemen by a leading architect includes a history of British domestic life Comfort in the Eighteenth-Century Country House Jon Stobart, 2021-09-21 Country houses were grand statements of power and status but they were also places where people lived This book traces the changes in layout the new technologies and the innovations in furniture that made them more convenient and comfortable It argues that these material changes were just one aspect of comfort in the country house feeling comfortable was just as important as being comfortable Achieving this involved the comfort and solace to be found in daily routines religious faith and above all relationships with family and friends Such emotional comforts and the attachment to things and places that embodied and memorialized them made country houses into homes Annual Report of the Commissioner of Labor United States. Department of Labor, 1892 A History of European Housing in Australia Patrick Troy, 2000-06-22 This collection of essays first published in 2000 was the first systematic attempt to explain the social administrative technical and cultural history of European housing in Australia Written by a collaborative team of scholars from a wide range of disciplines it explains how Australian housing has evolved from the ideas brought by the first settlers and what makes Australian housing distinctive in social terms This book covers a broad range of topics including the ways in which houses reflect social values and aspirations the relationship between houses and gardens the home as a site of domestic production and consumption and an exploration of how housing provides the basis for developing a sense of community The book will be invaluable for students of urban affairs and those engaged in housing and the design professions as well as policy makers and analysts in the public and private sectors House documents, 1893 Bradshaw's monthly railway and steam navigation guide George Bradshaw, 1862 Comfort in Contemporary Culture Dorothee Birke, Stella Butter, 2020-10-06 Comfort is a prominent and highly loaded concept as popular discourses on cosy environments safe spaces but also the importance of getting out of your comfort zone attest This volume is the first to investigate comfort as a cultural narrative and emotional touchstone in contemporary culture Taken together the contributions to the volume offer an overview of different approaches to and conceptualisations of comfort in linguistics in literary media and cultural studies and art history They showcase how comfort serves as a valuable lens to analyse contemporary artworks and developments e g live theatre broadcasting or political interventions in the US American media sphere The Baptist Home Mission Monthly, 1883 Bradshaw's continental [afterw.] monthly continental railway, steam navigation & conveyance guide. June 1847 - July/Oct. 1939 George Bradshaw, 1856
