The Parables in Q Dieter Roth, 2018-05-17 Few New Testament topics have been discussed as often and as intensely as Q the hypothesized second major source alongside the gospel of Mark for the gospels of Matthew and Luke and the parables And yet no monograph to date has been devoted to considering the parables in Q In addition to filling this gap in New Testament scholarship Dieter T Roth addresses the need to move scholarship on both Q and the parables forward along methodological and interpretive lines Roth considers Q not as a text behind Matthew and Luke that needs to be reconstructed but rather as an intertext between Matthew and Luke that offered plots characters and images in parables that were taken up by Matthew and Luke and utilized in their own respective texts In addition Roth draws on recent parables research in his examination of the 27 parables in Q two spoken by John the Baptist one by the Centurion and 24 by Jesus in order to consider their purpose and function in this early Christian text The Coming Deluge of His Glory Nestor Kouassi, 2019-06-14 It's obvious that we are living in an exceptional time Exceptional times require exceptional measures As in Psalm 2 there is an effort by world rulers to dethrone God and eradicate from society any references to Christ. Consequently a war has been declared against Christ's Church which at this point in history is in a lethargic state. A defiant departure from God and a slow purge of His helpful boundaries has led to emptiness of souls, moral decadence, arrogance, division, confusion. The Sovereign God is however going to respond to the seemingly insurmountable challenges we face in a unique way. God is coming down through what we know as a revival and an awakening to heal the wounded world. The book states: This exceptional divine intervention is what The Coming Deluge of His Glory is about. It chronicles the author's fascinating and unusual history with God from a voodoo saturated village in Benin West Africa to the United States. A unique journey that has given birth to a unique divine perspective. This book is a compelling vision of a glorious season ahead. Heaven is ready to touch the Earth. God is coming down like an overwhelming flood to make His purpose established on Earth. Nestor said: He describes in the book the descriptive visions and insights the Holy Spirit instilled in him about the so awaited revival and awakening. The Coming Deluge of His Glory will stir up faith, hope and love in believers through captivating revelations and Nestor's knowledge of God's agenda for His kingdom. It's a proclamation of the coming of God's army, a lion generation of Christians whose mission is to conquer, rule and reign with a royal authority and power. It will set your heart on fire and help you explore the intensity of the Father's sublime love.

The Nature and Demands of the Sovereign Rule of God in the Gospel of Matthew Margaret Hannan, 2006-06-15. This work argues that the author of the Gospel of Matthew structures his work as a Bios or biography of Jesus so as to encapsulate in narrative form the essence of his theological understanding of God's Basileia, sovereign rule as proclaimed and taught in the teaching and healing mission of Jesus. Evidence for this is found in Matthew's careful use of structural markers to divide his story of Jesus into significant thematic sub-sections in which he uses a series of Basileia logia at incisive points to highlight aspects of Jesus' teaching and healing mission. In this way Matthew is able to portray Jesus as God's promised Messiah who instructs his disciples through discourse and narrative, hence in word and example in the nature and demands of God's sovereign rule. By structuring his Gospel as a story, Matthew depicts Jesus giving instructions to his disciples and also instructs the readers of the text. Hence Matthew's Gospel becomes a manual of instruction on the nature and demands of God's sovereignty. Its purpose is to ensure that not only the members of the Matthean community but all future disciples of Jesus are competently trained to carry out Jesus' commission: Go therefore and disciple all the nations (28:19-20). In this way the good news of God's saving presence is proclaimed to all the nations until God's eschatological reign is finally established. LNTS 308.
