The hand on the right is wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt. They are holding hands in a supportive grip. The background is a blurred sunset over a body of water, with the sun low on the horizon, creating a warm orange and yellow glow. The sky is a mix of orange, pink, and blue.

The Expedition to Borneo of H. M. S. Dido Henry Keppel, 2009 The visit of her majesty's ship Dido to Borneo and her services against the pirates occupy comparatively so small a portion of this volume that some excuse may be necessary for its leading title It was only by undertaking to make the account of them part of the narrative that I could prevail upon my friend Mr Brooke to intrust me with his Journal for any public object and when I looked at his novel and important position as a ruler in Borneo and was aware how much of European curiosity was attached to it I felt it impossible not to consent to an arrangement which should enable me to trace the remarkable career through which he had reached that elevation I hope therefore to be considered as having conquered my own disinclination to be the relater of events in which I was concerned in order to overcome the scruples which he entertained against being the author of the autobiographical sketch embracing so singular a portion of his life which I have extracted from the rough notes confided to me That his diffidence in this respect was groundless will I trust be apparent from these pages however indifferently I may have executed my unusual task during a long homeward sea voyage and from the growing interest which has arisen throughout the country for intelligence on the subject of Borneo and the adjacent archipelago I venture also to indulge the belief that the general information will be deemed no unfit adjunct to the story of personal adventure Egypt in 1855 and 1856; Tunis in 1857 and 1858 W.H.
