Pavilions, Pop Ups and Parasols Leon van Schaik, Fleur Watson, 2015-06-02 Around the world, a new architectural form is emerging. In public places, a progressive architecture is being commissioned to promote open ended, undetermined, lightly programmed or unprogrammed interactions between people. This new phenomenon of architectural form, Pavilions, Pop Ups and Parasols, is presaged by rapidly changing social relationships flowing from social media such as Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. The nexus between real and virtual meeting is effectively being reinvented by innovative and creative architectural practices. People meet in new and responsive ways; architects meet their clients in new forums; knowledge is met and achieved in new and interactive frameworks. It contrasts bluntly with the commercially structured interactions of shopping malls and the increasingly deliberate interactions available in cultural institutions. These experiences imbue a new type of client: casually engaged, flocking, hacking, crowd funding and self helping. Contributors include Rob Bevan, Pia Ednie Brown, Roan Ching Yueh, Dan Hill, Martyn Hook, Minsuk Cho, Andrea Kahn, Felicity Scott, Akira Suzuki. Contributing architects include Alisa Andrasek, Biothing, Peter Cook, CRAB studio, CJ Lim, Studio 8, Tom Holbrook, 5th Studio, Matthias Hollwich, HWKN, Mamou Mani Architects, Benedetta Tagliabue, EMBT.

Pop-Up Robert Wernli, 2015-11-13 Pop Up is a suspense thriller set along the US-Mexico border. Vigilantes and white supremacists mobilizing. US president Antonio Villas, elected by fed-up voters to solve the county's problems, is in over his head. Operation Pop Up, his top secret effort to resolve the border conflict, fails catastrophically. Caught in the middle of the escalating border war is Pulitzer Prizewinning investigative reporter Sam Brashly who fights for his life and the sovereignty of the United States

Mazin Grace Dylan Coleman, Claire G Coleman, 2024-06-04 Growing up on the Mission isn't easy for clever Grace Oldman. When her classmates tease her for not having a father, she doesn't know what to say. Papa Neddy says her dad is the Lord God in Heaven, but that doesn't help when the Mission kids call her a bastard. As Grace slowly pieces together clues that might lead to answers, she struggles to find a place in a community that rejects her for reasons she doesn't understand. In Mazin Grace, Dylan Coleman fictionalises her mother's childhood at the Koonibba Lutheran Mission in South Australia in the 1940s and 50s. Woven through the narrative are the powerful rhythmic sounds of Aboriginal English and Kokatha language. Mazin Grace is the inspirational story of a feisty girl who refuses to be told who she is, determined to uncover the truth for herself.

Pop-Up Books Nancy Larson Bluemel, Rhonda Harris Taylor, 2012-02-02 A convincing explanation of why interactive or movable books should be included in the library collection that documents their value as motivational instructional tools in all areas of the school curriculum across many grade levels. Pop up books possess universal appeal. Everyone from preschoolers to adults loves to see and tactilely experience the beautiful three dimensional work of Robert Sabuda. David A Carter and other pop up book creators. Sabuda himself was inspired to become a pop up book artist after experiencing the 1972 classic pop up The Adventures of Super Pickle. The effect of these movable books on young minds is uniquely powerful. Besides riveting children's attention, pop up books can also help build motor skills, teach cause and effect and develop spatial understanding of objects. Based on their direct experience and many presentations to teachers and librarians, the authors have provided template lesson plans with curriculum and standards links for using the best pop up books currently available in the instructional program of the school. The book also includes profiles of the most notable authors, a history of the format, definitions of terms such as flap book and paper engineer, and information on how to create movable books. Librarians will find the section regarding collection development with the format, how and where to acquire them, proper storage methods, and the annotated listing of the authors' 50 favorite pop ups extremely helpful.

Munsey's Weekly ,1923 Playing with the Book Hannah Field,2019-07-02 A beautifully illustrated exploration of how Victorian novelty picture books reshape the ways children read and interact with texts The Victorian era saw an explosion of novelty picture books with flaps to lift and tabs to pull pages that could fold out pop up scenes and even mechanical toys mounted on pages Analyzing books for young children published between 1835 and 1914 Playing with the Book studies how these elaborately designed works raise questions not just about what books should look like but also about what reading is particularly in relation to children s literature and child readers Novelty books promised or threatened to make reading a physical as well as intellectual activity requiring the child to pull a tab or lift a flap to continue the story These books changed the relationship between pictures words and format in both productive and troubling ways Hannah Field considers these aspects of children s reading through case studies of different formats of novelty and movable books and intensive examination of editions that have survived from the nineteenth century She discovers that children ripped tore and colored in their novelty books despite these books explicit instructions against such behaviors Richly illustrated with images of these ingenious constructions Playing with the Book argues that novelty books construct a process of reading that involves touch as well as sight thus reconfiguring our understanding of the phenomenology of reading
