The Classic Vision:

The Classic Vision Murray Krieger, 1971 Neo Classic Vision Dr. Balwinder Singh, 2016-04-29 The tragic vision judiciously lies embedded in the clash between morality and immorality As such immorality is more pronounced in John Dryden's All for Love In this tragedy all limits of immorality are broken The hero Antony falls flat into the grip of the heroine Cleopatra Whatever order she gives he blindly bows before her Antony an awesome warrior is rendered all pale in front of her What a pitiable situation Antony was an expert in winning land battles but at the behest of Cleopatra he had to go in for sea battle and lost and later out of shame had to commit suicide Antony's situation comes to such a pass that even Cleopatra has to admit Sunk never more to rise V 85 See the evolutionary trajectory traveled by tragedy First it was fate then it was character and now it's immorality that dragged the hero into tragic situation The Classic Vision Murray Krieger, 1973

The Tragic Vision Murray Krieger, 2019-12-01 Originally published in 1973 Literary critics who have studied tragedy and the tragic vision failed in Murray Krieger's estimation to define exactly what they saw as the tragic vision in general terms An aim of his book is to create a tentative definition of tragic and to flesh out what the author sees as the definition most illuminating of modern literature and the modern mind In order to do this Krieger distinguishes between what he sees as the tragic vision and tragedy tragedy from his perspective is an object's literary form whereas tragic vision refers to a subject's psychology the subject's view and version of reality In light of the shriveling of the tragic concept in the modern world and the reduction of a total view to the psychology of the protagonist Krieger contends that the protagonist in a tragedy is now more appropriately designated a tragic visionary than a tragic hero Möbian Nights Sandor Goodhart, 2017-08-24 I died at Auschwitz French writer Charlotte Delbo asserts and nobody knows it Möbian Nights Reading Literature and Darkness develops a new understanding of literary reading that in the wake of disasters like the Holocaust death remains a premise of our experience rather than a future Challenging customary aesthetic assumptions that we write in order not to die Sandor Goodhart suggests with Kafka we write to die Drawing upon analyses developed by Girard Foucault Blanchot and Levinas along with examples from Homer to Beckett Möbian Nights proposes that all literature works autobiographically which is to say in the wake of disaster with the credo I died therefore I am and for which the language of topology for example the Möbius strip offers a vocabulary for naming the deep structure of such literary critical and scriptural sacrificial and anti sacrificial dynamics Möbian Nights Sandor Goodhart, 2017-08-24 Utilizing insights drawn from mathematical topology from French critical theory and literature and from Holocaust studies Sandor Goodhart articulates a new understanding of the relation of literary reading to disaster Murray Krieger and Contemporary Critical Theory Bruce Henricksen, 1986-05-19 Why do smokers claim that the first cigarette of the day is the best What is the biological basis behind some heavy drinkers belief that the hair of the dog method alleviates the effects of a hangover Why does marijuana seem to affect one's problem solving capacity Intoxicating Minds is in the author's words a grand excavation of drug myth Neither extolling nor condemning drug use it is a story of scientific and artistic achievement war and greed empires and religions and lessons for the future Ciaran Regan looks at each class of drugs describing the historical evolution of their use explaining how they work within the brain s neurophysiology and outlining the basic pharmacology of those substances From a consideration of the effect of stimulants such as caffeine and nicotine and the reasons and consequences of their sudden popularity in the seventeenth century the book moves to a discussion of more modern stimulants such as cocaine and ecstasy In addition Regan explains how we process memory the nature of thought disorders and therapies for treating depression and schizophrenia Regan then considers psychedelic drugs and their perceived mystical properties and traces the history of placebos to ancient civilizations Finally Intoxicating Minds considers the physical consequences of our co evolution with drugs how they have altered our very being and offers a glimpse of the brave new world of drug therapies

The Four Vision Quests of Jesus Steven Charleston, 2015-05 Christian theology as seen through the lens of Native American tradition A unique look at Christian biblical interpretation and theology from the perspective of Native American tradition this book focuses on four specific experiences of Jesus as portrayed in the synoptic gospels It examines each story as a vision quest a universal spiritual phenomenon but one of particular importance within North American indigenous communities Jesus experience in the wilderness is the first quest It speaks to a foundational Native American value the need to enter into the we rather than the I The Transfiguration is the second quest describing the Native theology of transcendent spirituality that impacts reality and shapes mission Gethsemane is the third quest It embodies the Native tradition of the holy men or women who find their freedom through discipline and concerns for justice compassion and human dignity Golgotha is the final quest It represents the Native sacrament of sacrifice e g the Sun Dance The chapter on Golgotha is a discussion of kinship balance and harmony all primary to Native tradition and integral to Christian thought

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk, 1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use

Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture

Beyond the Biblical Horizon Jo Cheryl Exum, 1999 This special issue of Biblical Interpretation devoted to the Bible and the Arts reflects the growing scholarly interest in the ways the Bible and biblical stories themes and ideas have been represented in Western culture by means of literature and the visual arts
