Hamilton, 1888      A First Sketch of English Literature Henry MORLEY (Professor of English Literature at University College, London.), 1873      English Literature, Theology and the Curriculum Liam Francis Gearon, 1999-01-10

The Theology in Dialogue Series explores the relationship between theology and different secular academic disciplines which appear within the degree programs of colleges and universities Each volume begins with a chapter and a reply providing a thoughtful justification for the interaction of theology and the particular subject This is followed by a theoretical analysis of this interaction and a range of case studies illustrating the situation in the classroom

English Literature Theology and the Curriculum explores the nature and authority of religious writings and their influence on secular literature What makes it distinctive is the manner in which it investigates the textual dynamic between the two disciplines by combining both theory and case study in a single collection of writings It discusses interdisciplinary dialogue offers case studies on literature and theology from Anglo Saxon verse to the twentieth century novel and looks at curriculum considerations The eminence and breadth of the contributors is outstanding Praise for English Literature Theology and the Curriculum A superbly rich collection as valuable to those involved in literary studies as to theologians It breathes life and real engagement Times Educational Supplement Fascinating and scholarly collection This is an excellent book Though some of the chapters are better than others none is a dud Its contributors and editor are to be congratulated Journal of Beliefs and Values These substantial essays deserve more extensive comment than a brief review permits Liam Gearon s chapter prompted this reviewer to embark on a reading of Brian Moore s work a rewarding undertaking for which his chapter proved an invaluable guide International Journal of Children's Spirituality Perhaps what is most noteworthy about Liam Gearon's edited volume is that it combines theory with practical applications and concludes with reflections on the implications for teaching ample food for thought for instructors designing courses in literature theology or interdisciplinary subjects

Teaching Theology Norton's Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular, 1851 Literature, theology and feminism

Heather Walton, 2019-01-04 This book offers an authoritative overview of the broad and complex terrain of feminist theorising concerning the relationship between literature and theology as it has developed over the past several decades It provides the first comprehensive evaluation of the significance of women's literature in the development of feminist theology and offers a critique of the variety of reading practices currently employed by religious feminists As well as illuminating current reading strategies the work argues that it is now appropriate for feminists to develop new ways of reading the divine in women's writing Drawing upon the pioneering work of Helene Cixous Julia Kristeva and Luce Irigaray the work sets out a new framework for feminist religious reading that is both creative and challenging and which will be of interest both to scholars and students in this area Through its artful and compelling feminist reconsiderations the book makes a refreshing and significant contribution to the general field known as literature and theology
