Cognitive Archaeology David Whitley, Johannes Loubser, Gavin Whitelaw, 2019-11-28 Cognitive Archaeology Mind Ethnography and the Past in South Africa and Beyond aims to interpret the social and cultural lives of the past in part by using ethnography to build informed models of past cultural and social systems and partly by using natural models to understand symbolism and belief How does an archaeologist interpret the past Which theories are relevant what kinds of data must be acquired and how can interpretations be derived One interpretive approach developed in southern Africa in the 1980s has been particularly successful even if still not widely known globally With an expressed commitment to scientific method it has resulted in deeper well tested understandings of belief ritual settlement patterns and social systems This volume brings together a series of papers that demonstrate and illustrate this approach to archaeological interpretation including contributions from North America Western Europe and sub Saharan Africa in the process highlighting innovative methodological and substantive research that improves our understanding of the human past Professional archaeological researchers would be the primary audience of this book Because of its theoretical and methodological emphasis it will also be relevant to method and theory courses and postgraduate students The Science of Society William Graham Sumner, Albert Galloway Keller, Maurice Rea Davie, 1927 Vols 1 3 paged continuously Vol 4 by W G Sumner A G Keller and M R Davie Published under the auspices of the Sumner Club on the foundation established in memory of Philip Hamilton McMillan of the class of 1894 Yale College Bibliographical note v 4 p 1193 1268

Iroquoian Women Barbara Alice Mann, 2000 Iroquoian Women The Gantowisas provides a thorough organized look at the social political economic and religious roles of women among the Iroquois explaining their fit with the larger culture Gantowisas means more than simply woman gantowisas is woman acting in her official capacity as fire keeping woman faith keeping woman gift giving woman leader counselor judge Mother of the People This is the light in which the reader will find her in Iroquoian Women Barbara Alice Mann draws upon worthy sources be they early or modern oral or written to present a Native American point of view that insists upon accuracy not only in raw reporting but also in analysis Iroquoian Women is the first book length study to regard Iroquoian women as central and indispensable to Iroquoian studies

Gender, Song, and Sensibility Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2002-08-30 The authors present a historical picture of gender relations in Highlands New Guinea by exploring domains of imagination as revealed in courting songs ballads and folktales from across the Highlands but with particular reference to field areas in the western Highlands Texts and or translations are from a rich corpus of materials previously unpublished in English The examples draw the reader into the imaginative world of the people while the analytical framework sets the discussion firmly into debates within interpretive anthropology The aim is to re examine the images of gender relations in Highlands New Guinea by revealing the sensuous and emotional modalities of expressive folk genres and their aesthetic qualities Ideas and practices centered on female spirit entities are shown to be important and pervasive in cult contexts and these spirits were felt to have a significant influence on relations of courtship marriage and reproduction Both women and men are also shown to have complex expressions of emotional dispositions in the spheres of courting and the choice of marital partners By entering into these domains the book modifies earlier analyses that have concentrated on antagonism behavioral taboos separation and domination as themes in gender relations in Highland societies

The Seven Skins of Esther Wilding Holly Ringland, 2024-02-06 A haunting magical novel about joy grief courage and transformation from the international bestselling author of The Lost Flowers of Alice Hart On the afternoon that Esther Wilding drove homeward along the coast a year after her sister had walked into the sea and disappeared the light was painfully golden The last time Esther Wilding's beloved older sister Aura was seen she was walking along the shore towards the sea In the wake of Aura's disappearance Esther's family struggles to live with their loss To seek the truth about her sister's death Esther reluctantly travels from Lutruwita Tasmania to Copenhagen and then to the Faroe Islands following the trail of the stories Aura left behind seven fairy tales about selkies swans and women alongside cryptic verses Aura wrote and had secretly tattooed on her body The Seven Skins of Esther Wilding is a sweeping deeply beautiful and profoundly moving novel about the far reaches of sisterly love the power of wearing your heart on your skin and the ways life can transform when we find the courage to feel the fullness of both grief and joy

Three Annemarie Monahan, 2012-05-01 One yellow April morning a 17 year old girl asks herself Do I dare to eat a peach Three different answers will send her down three very different paths That morning is long past Now she is 41 Kitty Trevelyan has been happily married 23 years Happily enough Until her professor asks her for coffee and kisses her Dr Katherine North's memory of two lovers chafes her like a hair shirt After reading one has died she contacts the other only to discover that she has been renounced for God ntonia searches the sea horizon every evening In the last light she can glimpse it a feminist Utopia built on an abandoned oil rig led by her charismatic and bipolar lover Her lost Eden made by Eves Who are we Who haven't we been Have we dared Three of one woman's possible lives are about to collide

American Anthropologist, 1925 Reading Diversity through Canadian Picture Books Ingrid Johnston, Joyce Bainbridge, 2014-01-31 What is the value of picture books in educating a diverse society This collection of original essays explores how preservice teachers from faculties of education across Canada engage with issues of diversity and national identity as represented in children's picture books Based on research drawn from education courses and student teaching experiences the book illustrates new and culturally relevant approaches to curricula that meet the needs of increasingly diverse student bodies The volume focuses on picture books as a central body of texts drawing on recent reading theory and exploring the implications of bringing the works into school classrooms Together the essays offer a unique cross Canada perspective on how picture books can help students and teachers explore identities uncover personal and national histories and locate a sense of place
