Boundaries of Touch Jean Halley, 2010-10-01 A history of the shifting and conflicting ideas about when where and how we should touch our children Discussing issues of parent child contact ranging from breastfeeding to sexual abuse Jean O Malley Halley traces the evolution of mainstream ideas about touching between adults and children over the course of the twentieth century in the United States Debates over when a child should be weaned and whether to allow a child to sleep in the parent's bed reveal deep differences in conceptions of appropriate adult child contact Boundaries of Touch shows how arguments about adult child touch have been politicized simplified and bifurcated into naturalist and behaviorist viewpoints thereby sharpening certain binary constructions such as mind body and male female Halley discusses the gendering of ideas about touch that were advanced by influential social scientists and parenting experts including Benjamin Spock Alfred C Kinsey and Luther Emmett Holt She also explores how touch ideology fared within and against the post World War II feminist movements especially with respect to issues of breastfeeding and sleeping with a child versus using a crib In addition to contemporary periodicals and self help books on child rearing Halley uses information gathered from interviews she conducted with mothers ranging in age from twenty eight to seventy three Throughout she reveals how the parent child relationship far from being a private or benign subject continues as a highly contested politicized affair of keen public interest The Complete Book of Christian Parenting and Child Care William Sears, Martha Sears, 1997-09-15 This total child care book offers Christian centered medically authoritative advice on every aspect of parenting from choosing an obstetrician to disciplining teenagers As parents of eight children William and Martha Sears draw on thirty years of practical and professional experience resulting in a valuable reference book no family should be without Because I Said So Sarah Ockwell-Smith, 2023-09-14 A vital read not just for parents but anyone who values the next generation Psychologies A provocative new book which challenges every aspect of modern parenting Daily Mail Society is making great strides in increasing awareness of oppression and injustice but one group remains mistreated children Commonly recommended parenting and discipline methods treat children in ways that would cause uproar if adults were treated similarly Children's needs and feelings are frequently dismissed and ignored by adults Children are taught to blindly obey adults in the name of respect although respect is so rarely shown to them We are a society that is afraid of treating children kindly as evidenced by the almost constant uproar and ridicule of the gentle parenting movement In this timely book bestselling author and parenting expert Sarah Ockwell Smith blends childcare history sociology psychology and current affairs to raise awareness of childism the unconscious discrimination of children in our world and why it impacts everybody Essential for parents carers teachers and anybody who works with children Because I Said So is both a thought provoking guide and an urgent call to action It will help you to understand your own upbringing and how this has shaped your beliefs and behaviour prompt you to consider the prevalence of childism in society today so that you can change the way you look after the children in your care or reinforce the approach you are already taking and consider how we can transform the way our society treats children to create positive lasting change for generations to come Childism is an issue that has been ignored and avoided for far too long If we want to change the world for the better we must start with treating our children better Reset Your Inner Clock Michael Terman Ph.D., Ian McMahan Ph.D., 2013-10-29 An enlightened approach to insomnia depressed mood fatigue and other sleep related problems of everyday life harnessing the power of light therapy to reset the natural clock Sleep problems and depressed mood often go hand in hand forming a frustrating cycle Michael Terman Ph D has devoted his career to studying the brain functions that feed these disorders In Reset Your Inner Clock Terman and Ian McMahan Ph D reveal the heart of his findings a powerful program that recalibrates our internal clocks our exquisitely designed natural sensitivity to the timing and brightness of light exposure These delicate mechanisms are often decimated by the modern demands of a 24/7 lifestyle Beginning with a questionnaire that pinpoints the problem areas Terman helps readers decipher when their natural internal night begins and ends The treatment process can then start incorporating the power of natural light and when necessary supplemental light therapy His approach has brought relief to thousands of sleep sufferers as well as those burdened by bipolar disorder seasonal affective disorder depression sleep disorders due to around the clock work schedules and other impediments to vibrant health For the first time his findings are now available for a general audience sharing the essential elements of chronobiology in clear authoritative scientifically grounded chapters that are easy to apply to a variety of situations
