Social Partnerships And Social Relations New Strategies In Workforce And Economic Development:

Social Partnerships and Social Relations Janet Boguslaw, 2002 An understanding of the problems of workforce and economic development has led to innovative regionally focused industry labour public sector partnerships This study suggests that social partnerships are not simply technical problem solving forums They lead to development rather than piece meal technical problem solving activities when they restructure regional social relations through which new opportunities emerge Trade Unions and Workplace Training Richard Cooney, Mark Stuart, 2013-05-07 Trade Unions and Workplace Training examines the changing role of trade unions in the provision of vocational education workplace training and skill development It reflects upon the role that unions have played in the reform of vocational education and training systems the nature of union involvement in consultative mechanisms at a national and industry level the nature of union involvement in skill formation at the workplace and the development of mechanisms for the articulation of employee voice in the design delivery and assessment of vocational training The book provides a collection of studies of Canada Australia United States United Kingdom France Germany and Norway by leading researchers in the field Distinctive accessible and original all the chapters are written in a style that illustrates the relevance of academic debates and research data to practice and the book includes a number of the chapters written by trade union practitioners

Sustainability Challenges and Solutions at the Base of the Pyramid Prabhu Kandachar, Minna Halme, 2017-09-08 Around the turn of the millennium it had become painfully evident that development aid charity or global business as usual were not going to be the mechanisms to alleviate global poverty Today there is little dispute that poverty remains the most pressing global problem calling for innovative solutions One recent strategy is the Base of the Pyramid BoP concept developed by Prahalad and Hart which relies on entrepreneurial activity tapping into the previously ignored markets of the economically most disadvantaged It is a process requiring innovations in several disciplines technological social and business This book covers a number of areas First much of the current BoP discussion emphasises targeting products to the needs of the poor But do we actually know what the real needs of the poor are This book takes a bottom up human centred approach and examines examples that truly engage the poor in BoP product and service development What types of needs assessment methodologies are indicated considering the cultural differences in BoP countries Are the existing methodologies adequate Do they need to be redefined and redeveloped Second the book considers how we can balance poverty alleviation and stimulate economic growth without stressing the ecosystem Tragically the poor are hardest hit by the adverse effects of environmental deterioration such as water shortages climate change or the destruction of habitats While the economic welfare of the poor is critical the BoP approach must balance its inherent paradox of encouraging greater consumption while avoiding further pressures on environmental sustainability The link between the BoP approach and sustainable development is a key feature of this book Third it looks at innovation and asks what kinds of bottom up innovation open source technological social and business support BoP initiatives and sustainable development Fourth the book deals with the relationship between development assistance and BoP Is a BoP strategy the antithesis to development aid or can these two co exist or even complement each other Finally the book raises questions about the relationship between corporate responsibility and BoP Is BoP a new form of corporate neo colonialism or a new form of corporate responsibility Although the BoP concept has unleashed an extensive and generally enthusiastic response from academics businesses NGOs and governments the knowledge domain around this concept is still in the early stages of development This book addresses that need with a focus on the needs of the end users the poor as a starting point for BoP products and innovations With contributions from both supporters and critics it provides a treasure trove of global knowledge on how the concept has developed what its successes and failures have been and what promise it holds as a long term strategy for alleviating poverty and tackling global sustainability Healthy Work Namir Khan,Nina Nakajima,Willem H. Vanderburg,2004 The latest in a series focused on improving health conditions this volume addresses work environments bringing together diverse sources of literature that support preventive approaches to work design and organization This reference provides an overview of relevant literature to engineers managers accountants occupational health and safety specialists and industrial hygienists so that they and other professionals can understand what has caused our workplaces to become primary sources of physical and mental illness By focusing on diagnostic and prescriptive approaches managers can implement designs and decisions that prevent or greatly reduce undesired and harmful effects Other titles in the series include Healthy Cities Sustainable Production Sustainable Energy Family Disintegration Anton Purcell,2002 The contemporary family is being distracted disturbed and distraught by societal pressures from every direction The nuclear family concept believed crucial to child rearing is becoming pass according to census data Or has the wave of disruption to families crested It is hoped that this bibliography will serve as a useful tool to researchers seeking further information on families and the pressures being exerted upon them in the 21st century Arms Diffusion Thomas W. Zarzecki,2018-12-20 Weapons proliferation is one of the most pressing global concerns following the end of the Cold War Despite the absence of an overarching superpower conflict armaments and related technologies have continued to spread throughout the international system This has been particularly true in areas like East Asia and the Middle East where the traditional two party arms races are not readily apparent This text addresses these concerns and shortcomings using data on fourteen specific military technological innovations that diffused throughout the international system from 1960 to 1997 Book Review Index Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2005-09 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year Regional Development Agencies and the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Bill: Oral and written evidence Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Business and Enterprise Committee, 2009 Regional Development Agencies and the Local Democracy Economic Development and Construction Bill Fourth Report of Session 2008 2009 Social Partnership and Governance Under Crises Nelson, Carol, 2019-05-15 Social dialogue is critical for defining relations within and between different constituencies and bringing divergent interests towards a consensus To bring understanding to the management of these dynamics of convergence and divergence analyzing network relations that underlie social processes and structures of governance is necessary for growth Social Partnership and Governance Under Crises is a collection of innovative research that focuses on the development of network relations while furthering the studies on governance of the public sector under crisis conditions While stressing topics that include labor studies political economy and public administration this book is ideal for public policy practitioners public administrators government officials development agencies academicians researchers and students The 21st-Century Community College: A Strategic Guild To Maximizing Labor Market Responsiveness, Vol. 2, September 2004 ,2004 Proceedings of the 2023 2nd International Conference on Public Service, Economic Management and Sustainable Development (PESD 2023) Zhikai Wang, Qiuqing Wu, Songsong Liu, Guoliang Wang, Jia Li, 2024-01-09 This is an open access book 2023 2nd International Conference on Public Service Economic Management and Sustainable Development PESD 2023 will be held from Oct 27 to 29 in Xiamen China It dedicates to create a platform for academic communications between specialists and scholars in the fields of Public Service Economic Management and Sustainable Development PESD 2023 is the Public Service Economic Management and Sustainable Development conference aimed at presenting current research being carried out Economic development provides the basic material basis for public services and public services create a good social foundation for economic development At the same time social and economic aspects need to jointly promote sustainable development The idea of the conference is for the scientists scholars engineers and students from Universities all around the world and the industry to present ongoing research activities and hence to foster research relations between the Universities and the industry This conference provides opportunities for the delegates to exchange new ideas and application experiences face to face establish business or research relations and find global partners for future collaboration Trade Unions and Democracy Geoffrey Wood, 2017-09-29 Trade Unions and Democracy explores the role of trade unions as products of and agents for democracy As civil society agents unions may promote democracy within the wider society especially in the case of authoritarian regimes or other rigid political systems by acting as watchdogs and protecting hard won democratic gains Established democratic institutions in many advanced societies are facing new challenges The problem with using trade unions for this purpose is that they remain locked in a cycle of political marginalization and decline Beyond this there are ironically serious questions about whether unions themselves internally function as democracies Certainly there are tensions between rank and file membership and an authoritarian leadership with this infighting having possible effects on strategic deals or alliances and member accountability and actions On the other hand trade unions continue to represent a significant component of society within most industrialized countries and in many case they have a demonstrated capacity for working with other elements of civil society Looking forward trade unions may be able to play a vital role in channeling and focusing spontaneous popular upsurges In the process they may revitalize themselves through use of greater internal democracy and become geared toward more diverse constituencies The question is will they fulfill this promise or continue to suffer from internal breakups and external breakdowns Can trade unions save themselves and democracy or will both deteriorate in time Trade Unions and Democracy brings together a distinguished panel of leading and emerging scholars in the field and provides a critical assessment of the current role of trade unions in society It explores their capacity to affect political policies to ensure greater accountability and fairness It also explores the nature of and extent to which internal representative democracy actually operates within trade unions themselves Mark Harcourt is a professor in the Department of Strategic Management and Leadership at Waikato University in New Zealand The Bibliographic Index ,2005

Comparative Employment Relations in the Global Economy Carola Frege,John Kelly,2013-07-24 Employment Relations is widely taught in business schools around the world Increasingly however more emphasis is being placed on the comparative and international dimensions of the relations between employers and workers It is becoming ever more important to comprehend today s work and employment issues alongside a knowledge of the dynamics between global financial and product markets global production chains national and international employment actors and institutions and the ways in which these relationships play out in different national contexts This textbook is the first to present a cross section of country studies including all four BRIC countries Brazil Russia India and China alongside integrative thematic chapters covering all the important topics needed to excel in this field The textbook also benefits from the editors and contributors experience as leading scholars in Employment Relations The book is an ideal resource for students on advanced undergraduate and postgraduate comparative programmes across areas such as Employment Relations Human Resource Management Political Economy Labour Politics Industrial and Economic Sociology Regulation and Social Policy Independent review of the Working for Health programme and its Multi-Partner Trust Fund World Health Organization,2024-02-12 The Working for Health five year action plan for health employment and inclusive economic growth 2017 2021 draws on the recommendations of the report of the United Nations High level Commission on Health Employment and Economic Growth It is delivered principally through the joint intersectoral W4H programme and its Multi Partner Trust Fund MPTF in partnership with WHO ILO and OECD A major part of its objectives is to stimulate workforce actions in alignment with national regional and global strategies and plans These actions are delivered at country and regional level through multisectoral Member State led collaboration and catalytic technical and financial support Other joint W4H work includes developing and adapting key global public goods including an international platform for health worker mobility an interagency data exchange platform an ILO and OECD approach to anticipating the skills needs of health workers and a methodology for measuring employment impact This document presents the findings of an independent end of project review of the Working for Health five year action plan for health employment and inclusive economic growth 2017 2021 Working for Health Multi Partner Trust Fund over the first action plan period This included direct support to 13 countries two economic regions and three global projects The review is based on the evaluation criteria of relevance efficiency effectiveness impact and sustainability The review also looks to the future of sustaining investment and support for implementation of subsequent projects under the new Working for Health 2022 2030 Action Plan and its MPTF which was extended by Member States at the Seventy fifth World Health Assembly in May 2022 Challenge Social Innovation Hans-Werner Franz,Josef

Hochgerner,Jürgen Howaldt,2012-12-13 In recent years social innovation has experienced a steep career Numerous national governments and large organisations like the OECD the European Commission and UNESCO have adopted the term Social innovation basically means that people adopt new social practices in order to meet social needs in a different or more effective way Prominent examples of the past are the Red Cross and the social welfare state or at present the internet 2 0 transforming our communication and cooperation schemes requiring new management concepts even empowering social revolutions The traditional concept of innovation as successful new technological products needs fundamental rethinking in a society marked by knowledge and services leading to a new and enriched paradigm of innovation There is multiple evidence that social innovation will become of growing importance not only concerning social integration equal opportunities and dealing with the greenhouse effects but also with regard to preserving and expanding the innovative capacity of companies and societies While political authorities stress the social facets of social innovation this book also encompasses its societal and systemic dimensions collecting the scientific expertise of renowned experts and scholars from all over the world Based on the contributions of the first world wide science convention on social innovation from September 2011 in Vienna the book provides an overview of scientific approaches to this still relatively new field Forewords by Agn s HUBERT Member of the Bureau of European Policy Advisers BEPA of the European Commission and Antonella Noya Senior Policy Analyst at OECD manager of the OECD LEED Forum on Social Innovations Strategic Cooperation and Partnerships Between Australia and South Asia: Economic Development, Trade, and Investment Opportunities Post COVID-19 Medhekar, Anita,Saha, Sreeparna,Haq, Farooq,2022-02-11 The COVID 19 pandemic has forced countries around the globe into lockdown imposing trade and travel restrictions with devastating economic impacts on all sectors of the economy In working toward greater economic stability Australia has been strengthening its trade relations with other countries which is reflected through its increased strategic relations with India However it is now essential to explore how Australia is working to further expand its collaboration with other South Asian countries and find new markets and opportunities for trade investment tourism international education and business dealings for its resources services manufacturing and technology sectors Strategic Cooperation and Partnerships Between Australia and South Asia Economic Development Trade and Investment Opportunities Post COVID 19 provides an overview of the Australian trade and investment relationship with South Asian countries and identifies the trends and developments of bilateral trade agreements in strategic areas of trade tourism investment education prior and post COVID 19 Covering topics such as international trade climate change policy and macroeconomics it is ideal for policymakers practitioners industry professionals government officials academicians researchers instructors and students
