Social Problems In Africa New Visions:

Social Problems in Africa Apollo Rwomire, 2001-07-30 Despite the recent growth of research on social problems facing the people of sub Saharan Africa there remains a critical lack of conceptual epistemological and empirical research and documentation This sophisticated new book attempts to fill that gap by synthesizing interpreting and extending the existing literature on conditions that constitute serious impediments to socio economic development in Africa It provides an original and up to date survey of key problems ranging from poverty and inequality to violence and crime The contributors all of whom have lived or worked in Africa show how social problems emerge how they are defined and how various actors attempt to deal with them This timely book provides a much needed analysis of the major issues and debates regarding the dynamics of social problems in the African context Social Problems in Africa is broken into four parts The first introduces readers to the nature of social problems in general and provides a framework for analyzing and understanding social problems in an African context Part II on culture human rights and democracy examines these crucial aspects of social problems in Africa as well as issues such as language and colonialism Part III focuses on poverty and inequality while conflict and violence is the focus of Part IV Together the chapters in this volume provide the most comprehensive and systematic approach to the issues available bringing much needed attention to the problems in Africa from the perspective of scholars who have lived and worked there

Pillars of the Nation Kristen E. Cheney, 2008-09-15 How can children simultaneously be the most important and least powerful people in a nation In her innovative ethnography of Ugandan children the pillars of tomorrow s Uganda according to the national youth anthem Kristen E Cheney answers this question by exploring the daily contradictions children face as they try to find their places amid the country s rapidly changing social conditions Drawing on the detailed life histories of several children Cheney shows that children and childhood are being redefined by the desires of a young country struggling to position itself in the international community She moves between urban schools music festivals and war zones to reveal how Ugandans are constructing childhood as an empowering identity for the development of the nation Moreover through her analysis of children s rights ideology national government strategy and children s everyday concerns Cheney also shows how these young citizens are vitally linked to the global political economy as they navigate the pitfalls and possibilities for a brighter tomorrow

The Routledge Handbook of Postcolonial Social Work Tanja Kleibl, Ronald Lutz, Ndangwa Noyoo, Benjamin Bunk, Annika Dittmann, Boitumelo Seepamore, 2019-07-30 The Routledge Handbook of Postcolonial Social Work reflects on and dissects the challenging issues confronting social work practice and education globally in the post colonial era By analysing how countries in the so called developing and developed world have navigated some of the inherited systems from the colonial era it shows how they have used them to provide relevant social work methods which are also responsive to the needs of a postcolonial setting This is an analytical and reflexive handbook that brings together different scholars from various parts of the world both North and South so as to distill ideas from scholars

relating to ways that can advance social work of the South and critique social work of the North in so far as it is used as a template for social work approaches in postcolonial settings It determines whether and how approaches knowledge bases and methods of social work have been indigenised and localised in the Global South in the postcolonial era This handbook provides the reader with multiple new theoretical approaches and empirical experiences and creates a space of action for the most marginalised communities worldwide It will be of interest to researchers and practitioners as well as those in social work education

Comparative Criminology Across Western and African Perspectives Sungi, Simeon P.,Ouassini, Nabil,2022-06-03 Crime prevention is essential to the success of any civilization Effective criminal justice systems contribute greatly to the prevention of crime However clashing traditional and modern theories regarding appropriate action within criminal justice organizations can cause these systems to fail even when personnel is beyond reproach Successfully blending traditional and modern theories on criminal justice can bolster justice systems and allow them to be successful Comparative Criminology Across Western and African Perspectives is a critical scholarly publication that addresses comparative issues pertaining to empirical research and theoretical frameworks on criminology in Africa Highlighting topics such as policing ethics criminal theory and victims rights this book is ideal for academicians law enforcement victim advocates lawmakers correctional officers correctional rehabilitation counselors criminologists researchers policymakers government officials and students

Being (the Church) Beyond the South-North-divide Andrea Fröchtling,2003 This book testifies to the fact that the embodiment of ideas of partnership can occur in many ways Contributors from South Africa and Germany engage in a search for identities in othernesses and for common ground beyond the divide Seventeen contributions address a variety of partnership related issues ranging from ecumenical hermeneutical foundations to practical applications Andrea Fröchtling is teacher in Celle Germany Ndanganeni Phaswana is a bishop in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Southern Africa Central Diocese

Vision of Change in African Drama Sola Adeyemi,2019-08-05 Femi Fisan is a major dramatist from Nigeria who experiments with forms and theatrical traditions This book focuses on his development as a dramatist and his contribution to world drama as a postcolonial African writer whose major preoccupation has been to question the colonial and postcolonial issues of identity in theatre literature and performance The volume explores how Fisan exploits his Yoruba heritage in his drama and the performances of his plays by reading new meanings into popular mythology and by re writing history to comment on contemporary social and political issues Fisan has often introduced new motifs and narratives to energise dramatic performances in Nigeria and globally and this text discusses developments in his theatre practices in the context of changing cultural trends

New Vision 2050 Hiroshi Komiyama,Koichi Yamada,2018-05-04 This book presents the New Vision 2050 which adds the concept of the platinum society to the Vision 2050 The 20th century was a century in which energy led the development of material civilization resulting in depletion of resources global warming and climate change What form should sustainable material and energy take to protect the Earth The Vision 2050 was established 20 years ago as a model that we should pursue for the next half century Fortunately the world is on course for the Vision 2050 The 21st century will be a century in which we seek qualitative richness with the Vision 2050 as the material basis That is a platinum society that has resource self sufficiency and resource symbiosis and where people remain active throughout their lives and have a wide range of choices and opportunities for free participation Since the author presented the concept of Vision 2050 in 1999 the idea has been introduced in two books entitled Vision 2050 Roadmap for a Sustainable Earth 2008 and Beyond the Limits to Growth New Ideas for Sustainability from Japan 2014 The latter includes a chapter that sheds light on the concept of a platinum society In this publication the author presents the New Vision 2050 in more detail Violent

Internal Conflicts in Asia Pacific Asvi Warman Adam, Dewi Fortuna Anwar, 2005 The last decade has seen an upsurge in violent internal conflicts in southern Thailand southern Philippines Sri Lanka and a number of regions in Indonesia and the Pacific Like terrorism and nuclear proliferation violent internal conflicts are increasingly being seen as a global security issue

Political Liberalization and Democratization in Africa Julius O. Ihonvbere, John Mukum Mbaku Esq., 2003-12-30 Since the late 1980s Africans have been engaged in efforts to transform their societies and provide themselves with more effective governance and economic structures Unfortunately most of these efforts have not progressed beyond simple elections The contributors to this volume provide strategies that Africans can use to deepen democracy improve resource allocation and enhance their ability to coexist peacefully Mbaku Ihonvbere and their contributors while adopting a critical approach to the study of African political economy take a stand against Afro pessimism They articulate an holistic agenda for addressing Africa's multifarious problems reject received knowledge and through a dialectical methodology draw attention to the centrality of social categories classes the state civil society the environment communities and patterns of change in the continent Relying on fieldwork hard data and critical reviews of the extant literature the volume highlights the importance of democracy and democratization to the urgent restructuring that Africa needs in the new globalization Paying attention to the continent's historical experiences and its specificities the contributors draw attention to the importance of grassroots action leadership and the need to constitutionally entrench civil liberties Neo-Medievalism and Civil Wars Neil Winn, 2004-02-26

Since 1989 the concept of civil war has taken on new salience in international relations Significant inquiries into inter ethnic violence emphasising studies of political community identity sovereignty and political organisation have dominated the study of civil war in the past decade Processes of social denationalisation of national identity Every Household Its Own

Government Daniel Jordan Smith, 2022-03-08 An up close account of how Nigerians self reliance in the absence of reliable government services enables official dysfunction to strengthen state power When Nigerians say that every household is its own local government what they mean is that the politicians and state institutions of Africa's richest most populous country cannot be trusted to ensure even the most basic infrastructure needs of their people Daniel Jordan Smith traces how innovative entrepreneurs and ordinary citizens in Nigeria have forged their own systems in response to these deficiencies devising creative solutions in the daily struggle to survive Drawing on his three decades of experience in Nigeria Smith examines the many ways Nigerians across multiple social strata develop technologies businesses social networks political strategies cultural repertoires and everyday routines to cope with the constant failure of government infrastructure He describes how Nigerians provide for basic needs like water electricity transportation security communication and education and how their inventiveness comes with consequences On the surface it may appear that their self reliance and sheer hustle render the state irrelevant In reality the state is not so much absent as complicit Smith shows how private efforts to address infrastructural shortcomings require regular engagement with government officials shaping the experience of citizenship and strengthening state power Every Household Its Own Government reveals how these dealings have contributed to forms and practices of governance that thrive on official dysfunction and perpetuate the very inequalities and injustices that afflict struggling Nigerians

Human Rights Law in Africa, Volume 4 (1999) Christof Heyns, 2021-11-15 A wide range of topics is covered for the first time in this volume including resolutions of various OAU bodies in respect of human rights the relevant provisions of the treaties establishing sub regional inter governmental organisations and the founding documents of national human rights institutions in Africa

Crying for Our Elders Kristen E. Cheney, 2017-03-05 The HIV AIDS epidemic in Africa has defined the childhoods of an entire generation Over the past twenty years international NGOs and charities have devoted immense attention to the millions of African children orphaned by the disease But in Crying for Our Elders anthropologist Kristen E Cheney argues that these humanitarian groups have misread the orphan crisis She explains how the global humanitarian focus on orphanhood often elides the social and political circumstances that actually present the greatest adversity to vulnerable children in effect deepening the crisis and thereby affecting children's lives as irrevocably as HIV AIDS itself Through ethnographic fieldwork and collaborative research with children in Uganda Cheney traces how the best interest principle that governs children's rights can stigmatize orphans and leave children in the post antiretroviral era even more vulnerable to exploitation She details the dramatic effects this has on traditional family support and child protection and stresses child empowerment over pity Crying for Our Elders advances current discussions on humanitarianism children's studies orphanhood and kinship By exploring the unique experience of AIDS orphanhood through the eyes of children caregivers and policymakers Cheney shows that despite the extreme challenges of growing up in the era of HIV AIDS the post ARV generation still holds out hope for the future

A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon, 2005 Childhood, Youth and Migration Christine Hunner-Kreisel, Sabine Bohne, 2016-07-15 This book shows the different ways in which migration matters in the context of global and local childhood and youth Furthermore it highlights that childhood youth and migration as well as local and global perspectives need to be thought and analyzed together to address the significant dimensions of social inequality in the context of growing up Migration as a phenomenon is most often motivated by the search for a better life Very often children and young people migrating alone or together with their families migrate to ameliorate their own or others living conditions and seize opportunities for realizing a good life Today as well as in the past this search for a better life is very often triggered by socio economic reasons war or terrorism Against the backdrop of the topic raised above the book deals with children and young people s own perspective in countries of migration It promotes the idea of connecting global and local issues of childhood and youth with a special focus on questions of education It studies questions of global and local living and highlights living circumstances shaped by patterns of migration and mobility

Disability is not Inability Nathaniel Amanze,S. Nkhoma,2020-07-24 This book is about people with disabilities PWDs and the extraordinary talents they have that can contribute towards the world economy generally and that of Southern and Central Africa in particular The papers selected for this book were presented at an international conference that was held at the University of Botswana from 16th to 19th October 2018 The conference was held in order to address the injustices discrimination and exclusion that people with disabilities face in their daily life The papers discuss the need to train families and leaders in disability awareness for clear national policies the funding needed to address issues that affect PWDs inclusive education and the need to create a conducive environment and the implementation of policies strategies and programmes The book also points to the importance of sharing stories and experiences of success as a strategy of empowering PDWs

Environmental Protection, Security and Armed Conflict Onita Das,2013-01-01 Environmental Protection Security and Armed Conflict is a timely reminder of the need to integrate sustainable development into key areas of international law including all phases of armed conflict Onita Das cleverly picks her way through the applicable law and derives solid suggestions for the future Karen Hulme University of Essex UK This book explores environmental protection relevant to security and armed conflict from a sustainable development perspective The author details how at each stage of the armed conflict life cycle policy law and enforcement have fallen short of the sustainable development model and concludes with a set of suggestions for how to address this pressing concern The book considers and discusses Environmental protection relevant to security and armed conflict from a holistically sustainable development perspective Environmental protection relevant to security and armed conflict in the life cycle of armed conflict pre conflict in conflict and post conflict Uses substantive sustainable development principles duty of states to ensure sustainable use of natural resources equity and the eradication of poverty common but differentiated responsibilities precautionary principle public participation good governance integration and interrelationship and polluter pays principle as tools or objectives to achieve sustainable development in the context of environmental protection relevant to security and armed conflict The concept of sustainable development is utilized to fill the gaps left by policy and law in the field of environmental protection relevant to security and armed conflict The book also examines 5 case studies relating to Somalia Darfur Sudan Sierra Leone the First Gulf war and the Kosovo conflict This fascinating and detailed study will strongly appeal to academics and postgraduate students in the fields of both environmental protection and international law researchers policy makers NGOs and individuals working in the field Economic Recovery in Africa V. Makhan, 2002-05-17 African countries have experienced modest economic recovery during the 1990s But these countries are caught in a vicious circle in which the existing economic structure cannot generate enough savings and export earnings needed to finance their development and mount a sustained assault on widespread poverty Yet foreign aid has been cut back sharply and the continent receives only a trickle of foreign investment flows New policy regimes are now in place creating the right environment for external financing to make a major difference Development finance is one of the foremost challenges facing African countries and the international community in the new century The Kingdom of Character Michael Parker, 2008-01-09 The Unseen Heroes of the Global Missionary Movement The Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions was a Protestant missionary recruiting organization Launched in the late nineteenth century it played an indispensable role in the creation of the modern missionary movement While it was influenced by the optimism and expansiveness that characterized Americans at the turn of the century it also mirrored the period's provincialism and ethnocentrism The Kingdom of Character provides a thorough history of the Student Volunteer Movement SVM exposing both its strengths and weaknesses Parker highlights how these student leaders addressed issues such as gender roles the social impact of World War I and various internal controversies while emphasizing an American middle class worldview that stressed the Victorian idea of character in their hope to spread the gospel around the world The Kingdom of Character is a great read for those interested in the creation of the modern missionary movement Contemporary Social Issues in Africa Mokong Simon Mapadimeng, Sultan Khan, 2010 This volume comprises of incisive and perceptive essays that analyse social issues in contemporary post colonial and post apartheid Africa using cases in three African cities Durban in South Africa Gaborone in Botswana and Kampala in Uganda It is an outcome of collaboration by colleagues from Universities of Kwazulu Natal Makerere Botswana and Dar es Salaam to establish a structured collaborative scholarly partnership programme The partnership is called Rethinking Africa Programme which is consistent with the 21st century ideals of Africa's renewal Its key objective is to re think Africa through academic and research initiatives sensitive to our own experiences as Africans as well as through a critical revisiting of western based social sciences in order to build new analytical models and concepts that capture processes and dynamics that derive from African experiences It thus has as its related aim to counter the proliferation of texts by western scholars on African social issues which dominate lecture rooms and libraries as teaching and learning resources in African universities It is hoped that this volume will encourage future partnerships on research and teaching of contemporary African social issues amongst African scholars within the continent Further it should serve as a teaching and training resource for academic programmes with strong focus on social issues in Africa today
