Social Psychology Identities And Relationships:

Social Psychology Kopano Ratele, Norman Duncan, 2003 Using current socio political thought and research this book examines topics such as violence social and political transition race and racism and sexualities Theoretical and empirical research are related to topical problems highlighting the complex relations of individuals to their societies and to one another The histories and complexities of problems and their interconnectedness are examined and possible solutions are suggested Special attention is paid to class sexuality gender and race making psychology in general and social psychology in particular relevant and exciting Social Psychology, 2017 Social Psychology - Identities and Relationships K. Ratele, N. Duncan, 2004-05-01 Community Psychology Anthony Naidoo, Jace Pillay, Brett Bowman, 2007 Book CD Community Psychology contains a rich diversity of insights and critical debates on the key theoretical analytic teaching learning and action approaches in community psychology The book offers an incisive examination of a range of contextual factors that influence the practice of community psychology in South Africa Social Psychology Stainton Rogers, Wendy, 2011-06-01 This is an introductory social psychology textbook that acknowledges two very different approaches being taken to social psychology experimental and critical These conflicting approaches are brought together in a single coherent text Handbook of International Feminisms Alexandra Rutherford, Rose Capdevila, Vindhya Undurti, Ingrid Palmariy, 2011-08-23 The goal of Handbook of International Perspectives on Feminism is to present the histories status and contours of feminist research and practice in their respective regional and or national contexts The editors have invited researchers who are doing this work to present their perspectives on women culture and rights with the objective to illuminate the diverse forms that feminist psychological work takes around the world and connect these forms with the unique positions and concerns of women in these regions What does feminist psychology look like in Japan In South Africa In Sri Lanka In Canada In Brazil How did it come to look this way How do psychologists in these countries or regions each with unique political economic and cultural histories engage in feminist work in the societies in which they live How do they employ the tools of psychology broadly defined to do this work and what tensions and challenges have they faced

Inter-group Relations Kopano Ratele, 2006 Following the undoing of the racist apartheid government this study critically examines the social and psychological issues that continue to trouble South Africans Topical concerns include language barriers homelessness stereotyping and racism HIV AIDS social influence and dominance as well as different ways of understanding intergroup conflict and cooperation The Routledge Handbook for Advancing Integration in Mixed Methods Research John H. Hitchcock, Anthony J. Onwuegbuzie, 2022-05-10 This groundbreaking edited book The Routledge Handbook for Advancing Integration in Mixed Methods Research presents an array of different integration ideas with contributions from scholars across the globe This handbook represents the first major volume that comprehensively discusses this topic of integration Perhaps the most fundamental and longstanding question in mixed methods research is

How does one best integrate disparate forms of information to produce the best form of inquiry Each of the 34 seminal chapters in this handbook accelerates the discussion of integration across a broad range of disciplines including education arts based analyses and work in the Global South as well as special topics such as psychometrics and media research Many of the chapters present new topics that have never been written about before and all chapters offer cutting edge approaches to integration They also offer different perspectives of integration leading the introductory chapter to offer a new and comprehensive definition for integration as follows referring to the optimal mixing combining blending amalgamating incorporating joining linking merging consolidating or unifying of research approaches methodologies philosophies methods techniques concepts language modes disciplines fields and or teams within a single study The concluding chapter offers a meta framework that accounts for this definition and is designed to help scholars think more about integration in a way that represents a continuous dynamic iterative interactive synergistic and holistic meaning making process This handbook will be an essential reference work for all scholars and practitioners using or seeking to use mixed methods in their research

Blackwashing Homophobia Melanie Judge, 2017-08-22 As lesbian gay bisexual transgender and intersex identities increasingly secure legal recognition across the globe these formal equality gains are contradicted by the continued presence of violence Such violence emerges as a political pressure point for contestations of identity and power within wider systems of global and local inequality Discourses of homophobia related violence constitute subjectivities that enact violence and that are rendered vulnerable to it as well as shaping political possibilities to act against violence Blackwashing Homophobia critiques prevailing discourses through which violence and its queer targets are normatively understood exploring the knowledge regimes in which multiple forms of othering are both reproduced and or resisted This book draws on primary research on lesbian subjectivity and violence in South Africa examining the intersections of sexual gender race and class identities and the contemporary politics of violence in a postcolonial context What are the contending ways of knowing queers and the violence they face How are the causes characters consequence of and cures for violence constructed through such knowledges and what are their power effects The book explores these questions and their implications for how violence as an instrument of power might be countered Blackwashing Homophobia is a timely intervention for theorising the discourse of homophobia related violence and what it reveals and conceals enables and hinders in relation to queer identities and political imaginaries in times of violence The book s interdisciplinary approach to the topic will appeal to social and political scientists philosophers and psychology professionals as well as to advanced psychology undergraduates and postgraduates alike

Perspectives on Youth, HIV/AIDS and Indigenous Knowledge Anders Breidlid, Austin M. Cheyeka, Alawia Ibrahim Farag, 2015-10-13 This volume is the result of academic cooperation between scholars in Norway Sudan Zambia and South Africa linked to a master s program in international education and development It draws upon studies carried out in Sudan Zambia Namibia and South Africa Most of the chapters deal with the HIV AIDS pandemic in various ways Because youth are the group most vulnerable to HIV AIDS the various chapters discuss the complex discursive spaces that youth inhabit and navigate and where the interlocking concepts of social identity power inequality sexuality vulnerability and resilience are brought together Many of the chapters discuss the HIV AIDS pandemic in relation to indigenous knowledges and argue for including indigenous knowledges in the fight against the pandemic The suggestion to include indigenous knowledges opens space for a more varied holistic and comprehensive approach to the pandemic The book invites readers to explore the oppressive and often dangerous socioeconomic situation that many youth in sub Saharan Africa experience also beyond the HIV AIDS pandemic Chapters on street youth in Namibia and youth in a township in Cape Town discuss the often creative coping mechanisms employed by youth to escape or mitigate the oppressive situations they find themselves in

Affective Health and Masculinities in South Africa Hans Reihling, 2020-04-03 Affective Health and Masculinities in South Africa explores how different masculinities modulate substance use interpersonal violence suicidality and AIDS as well as recovery cross culturally With a focus on three male protagonists living in very distinct urban areas of Cape Town this comparative ethnography shows that men s struggles to become invulnerable increase vulnerability Through an analysis of masculinities as social assemblages the study shows how affective health problems are tied to modern individualism rather than African tradition that has become a cliché in Eurocentric gender studies Affective health is conceptualized as a balancing act between autonomy and connectivity that after colonialism and apartheid has become compromised through the imperative of self reliance This book provides a rare perspective on young men s vulnerability in everyday life that may affect the reader and spark discussion about how masculinities in relationships shape physical and psychological health Moreover it shows how men change in the face of distress in ways that may look different than global health and gender transformative approaches envision Thick descriptions of actual events over the life course make the study accessible to both graduate and undergraduate students in the social sciences Contributing to current debates on mental health and masculinity this volume will be of interest to scholars from various disciplines including anthropology gender studies African studies psychology and global health

Educating Citizen Designers in South Africa Elmarie Costandius, 2018-09-07 Educating Citizen Designers in South Africa is the first book of its kind to appear in post apartheid South Africa and it is therefore both overdue and extremely welcome The book aims at sharing critical citizenship design teaching and learning pedagogies by including contributions from a range of design educators and one student who work in different design disciplines such as architecture graphic and product design Critical citizenship education is explicated in relation to a range of theories and new and existing models Numerous contemporary case studies and examples of design projects from a range of South African Higher Education Institutions are included As such a variety of perspectives emerge including the consensual where the aim of critical citizenship education is viewed as promoting social justice shared values and critical thinking to the conflicting where critiques are levelled against conceptions of critical citizenship education

Contentious contesting and contradictory views are inevitable and necessary given the South African context as it is only in open debate that the one point of agreement among the authors the need for social change can be worked towards Prof Deirdre Pretorius Univeristy of Johannesburg

Contested Masculinities Robert Stegmann,2020-10-27 In Contested Masculinities the author argues for the importance of critical consciousness and attentiveness to the interplay of the biblical text context and the long complex histories of interpretation that play out in the construction of masculinities Locating his reading of 1 Thessalonians within the thickly textured setting of a postcolonial post apartheid South Africa the author seeks to recontextualize Paul providing a nuanced understanding of how Paul s letters exercise authority over both the church and the academy The author maintains that attempts to frame either the biblical text or notions of masculinity as singular and universal perpetuate and reinforce binary formulations church academy global north global south colonizer colonized male female and entrench hierarchies of power The author re reads 1 Thessalonians exploring the fissures that come into view when training a postcolonial and gender critical lens on the biblical text and delivers a refreshing account that is playful and open and porous especially as a conversational piece for masculinity ancient and contemporary

IAAP Handbook of Applied Psychology Paul R. Martin,Fanny Cheung,Michael C. Knowles,Michael Kyrios,Lyn Littlefield,J. Bruce Overmier,José M. Prieto,2011-03-01 The IAAP Handbook of Applied Psychology an up to date and authoritative reference provides a critical overview of applied psychology from an international perspective Brings together articles by leading authorities from around the world Provides the reader with a complete overview of the field and highlights key research findings Divided into three parts professional psychology substantive areas of applied psychology and special topics in applied psychology Explores the challenges opportunities and potential future developments in applied psychology Features comprehensive coverage of the field including topics as diverse as clinical health psychology environmental psychology and consumer psychology

Self, Community and Psychology Norman Duncan,2004 A reader for students at the University of South Africa studying community psychology It addresses ideologies of race gender and sexuality that together create particular South African post colonial realities which legitimise oppression and cultural dispossession

The Dynamics and Complexities of Interracial Gay Families in South Africa: A New Frontier Oluwafemi Adeagbo,2018-12-12 This book provides an in depth account of a qualitative study on the familial arrangements and domestic settings shaping interracial gay partnerships in the South African context and it offers both empirical and theoretical insights on the topic While heterosexual intimate relationships particularly mixed race couples have attracted societal and scholarly attention in South Africa due to the country s past history of racial segregation it is however striking how little emphasis is placed on understanding same sex unions in a transforming South Africa This book is timely and important because it explores the vignettes complexities and dynamics of interracial gay intimate relationships an area that hardly gets the scholarly attention it deserves The book addresses the intersectionality and the question of how sexuality gender racial identity and personal resources influence the relationship as well as the way resilience strategies are drawn upon to sustain the partnership

The Palgrave Handbook of Critical Social Psychology Brendan Gough, 2025-05-19 This handbook is the second edition of a highly cited and impactful collection which was the first to bring together the latest theory and research on critical approaches to social psychological challenges Edited by a leading authority in the field the volume helped to establish critical social psychology as a discipline of study distinct from mainstream social psychology The book helps to explain how critical approaches to social processes and phenomena are essential to fully understanding them and covers the main research topics in basic and applied social psychology including social cognition identity and social relations alongside overviews of the main theories and methodologies that underpin critical approaches This second edition adds four new chapters from two UK authors one US and one from New Zealand on the subjects of Indigenous Psychologies M ori communities Deleuze and arts based research It also adds a new introduction from the editor This volume features a range of leading authors working on key social psychological issues and highlights a commitment to a social psychology which shuns psychologisation reductionism and neutrality It provides invaluable insight into many of the most pressing and distressing issues we face in modern society including the migrant and refugee crises affecting Europe the devaluing of black lives in the USA and the poverty ill health and poor mental well being that has resulted from ever increasing austerity efforts in the UK Including sections on critical perspectives critical methodologies and critical applications this volume also focuses on issues within social cognition self and identity This one stop handbook is an indispensable resource for a range of academics students and researchers in the fields of psychology and sociology and particularly those with an interest in social identity power relations and critical interventions

Fanon, Psychoanalysis, and Critical Decolonial Psychology Derek Hook, 2025-04-08 This groundbreaking book examines the psychological dimension of decolonial thought in reference to foundational texts Previously published as A Critical Psychology of the Postcolonial this new edition foregrounds the central role of Fanon s psychology Highlighting the contributions of anti colonial authors to the theorization of racism and oppression the book demonstrates the pertinence of postcolonial and decolonial thought for critical social psychology and psychoanalysis via an investigation of a series of key topics It explores the psychology of embodiment and racialization resistance strategies to oppression extra discursive facets of racism the phobogenic and sexual dimensions of anti Blackness and the roles of desire fantasy and unconscious in ideologies of racism The book makes a distinctive contribution through discussing the work of authors drawn from anti apartheid psychoanalytic and critical social theory traditions including Steve Biko J M Coetzee Frantz Fanon Julia Kristeva Chabani Manganyi and Slavoj i ek This second edition continues to showcase a crucial set of critical resources for an anti racist decolonial agenda and is fully updated with new discussion references and images with a new chapter on desire fantasy and apartheid ideology to strengthen the book s engagement with apartheid racism This is an invaluable text not only for students of critical social psychology psychoanalysis and sociology but for students enrolled in courses on race racism or decolonial studies It will also appeal to postgraduates academics and anyone interested in psychoanalysis in relation to societal and political issues Psychology of Liberation Maritza Montero, Christopher C. Sonn, 2009-04-28 Since the mid 1980s the psychology of liberation movement has been a catalyst for collective and individual change in communities throughout Latin America and beyond and recent political developments are making its powerful transformative ideas more relevant than ever before Psychology of Liberation Theory and Applications updates the activist frameworks developed by Ignacio Martin Baro and Paulo Freire with compelling stories from the frontlines of conflict in the developing and developed worlds as social science and psychological practice are allied with struggles for peace justice and equality In these chapters liberation is presented as both an ongoing process and a core dimension of wellbeing entailing the reconstruction of social identity and the transformation of all parties involved both oppressed and oppressors It also expands the social consciousness of professionals bringing more profound meaning to practice and enhancing related areas such as peace psychology as shown in articles such as these Philippines the role of liberation movements in the transition to democracy Venezuela liberation psychology as a therapeutic intervention with street youth South Africa the movement for representational knowledge Muslim world religion the state and the gendering of human rights Ireland linking personal and political development Australia addressing issues of racism identity and immigration Colombia building cultures of peace from the devastation of war Psychology of Liberation demonstrates the commitment to overcome social injustices and oppression The book is a critical resource for social and community psychologists as well as policy analysts It can also be used as a text for graduate courses in psychology sociology social work and community studies Research Handbook on Gender, Sexuality and the Law Chris Ashford, Alexander Maine, 2020-03-28 This innovative and thought provoking Research Handbook explores not only current debates in the area of gender sexuality and the law but also points the way for future socio legal research and scholarship It presents wide ranging insights and debates from across the globe including Africa Asia Eastern Europe and Australia with contributions from leading scholars and activists alongside exciting emergent voices
