fully fledged doctrine of signs with many horizons for the future was the result of Sebeok's work in the twentieth century. The massive influence of this work as well as Sebeok's convening of semiotic projects and encouragement of a huge number of researchers globally which in turn set in train countless research projects is difficult to document and has not been assessed until now. This volume using the testimonies of key witnesses and participants in the semiotic project offers a picture of how Sebeok through his development of knowledge of endosemiotics, phytosemiotics, biosemiotics and sociosemiotics enabled semiotics in general to redraw the boundaries of science and the humanities as well as nature and culture.
