Symphony 100 Viola

Joanne Haroutounian

Symphony 100 Viola:

Voices in the Wilderness Walter Simmons, 2006-02-24 Despite the Modernist search for new and innovative aesthetics and rejection of traditional tonality several twentieth century composers have found their own voice while steadfastly relying on the aesthetics and techniques of Romanticism and 19th century composition principles Musicological and reference texts have regarded these composers as isolated exceptions to modern thoughts of composition_exceptions of little importance treated simplistically and superficially Music critic and scholar Walter Simmons however believes these composers and their works should be taken seriously They are worthy of more scholarly consideration and deserve proper analysis assessment and discussion in their own regard In Voices in the Wilderness the first in a series of books celebrating the Twentieth Century Traditionalist Simmons looks at six Neo Romantic composers Ernest Bloch Howard Hanson Vittorio Giannini Paul Creston Samuel Barber Nicolas Flagello Through biographical overviews and a comprehensive assessment of musical works Simmons provides readers with a clear understanding of the significance of the composers their bodies of work and their placement in musicological history The chapters delve deeply and objectively into each composer's oeuvre addressing their origins stylistic traits and consistencies phases of development strengths and weaknesses and affinities with other composers The composers most representative works are identified and each chapter concludes with a discography of essential recordings Visit the author's website to read samples from the book and to listen to representative excerpts of each composer's work

Golden Years of the National Symphony Orchestra Joanne Haroutounian, 2021-08-15 Golden Years of the National Symphony Orchestra Stories and Photographs of Musicians and Maestros presents a rich and intimate perspective of the orchestra as it evolved in prominence and international expanse throughout the past nine decades Through hundreds of stunning photographs captured by NSO violinist William Haroutounian the tenure of seven NSO conductors major guest artists and NSO members are brought to life giving a rare and exciting glimpse of musical life on stage backstage and on tour Alongside these photographs are experiences from the members themselves pieced together by Joanne Haroutounian Humorous stories of mishaps during rehearsals and performances balance with some of the most historically significant moments in classical music history from Mstislav Rostropovich's return to Russia with the NSO and sheer excitement of the mobs to the sudden death of Gina Bachauer minutes before she was scheduled to perform in Athens The book memorializes this rich and varied history and will enhance an appreciation for concert life
