Abstraction 1910-1925 Gail Levin, 1978 Inventing Abstraction, 1910-1925 Leah Dickerman, Matthew Affron, 2012

This book explores the development of abstraction from the moment of its declaration around 1912 to its establishment as the foundation of avant garde practice in the mid 1920s. The book brings together many of the most influential works in abstraction's early history to draw a cross media portrait of this watershed moment in which traditional art was reinvented in a wholesale way. Works are presented in groups that serve as case studies each engaging a key topic in abstraction's first years: an artist, a movement, an exhibition, or thematic concern. Key focal points include Vasily Kandinsky's ambitious Compositions V, VI, and VII; a selection of Piet Mondrian's work that offers a distilled narrative of his trajectory to Neoplasticism; and all the extant Suprematist pictures that Kazimir Malevich showed in the landmark 0 10 exhibition in 1915. 0 Exhibition MoMA New York USA 23 12 2012 15 4 2013 Ezra Pound and the Visual Arts Ezra Pound, 1980. Gathers all the poet's art criticism from various sources as well as his articles explaining the new approach of vortography, the English avantgarde movement. A Memoir of Creativity Piri Halasz, 2009. A Memoir of Creativity chronicles one woman's life journey as she derives a theory revealing meaning in abstract painting from varied personal and professional experiences and tells how she locates this theory within a broader social context. In 1966 Piri Halasz became the first woman within living memory to write a cover story for Time and not just any cover story either: the notorious one on Swinging London. With wit and wisdom she provides a glimpse into her red diaper childhood as well as reporting on her climb at Time from research to the writing staff. Vividly she describes her controversial career as a female journalist during the sixties, offering an inside view of newsweekly rivalries during that tempestuous decade. Halasz then moves on to her initiation into the art world, her lively interaction with some of its most distinguished denizens, and her immersion in graduate school. She concludes with what she has learned about art, art history, and history itself since the early eighties, applying that knowledge to better understand the twenty-first century. Through sharing her life story, Halasz encourages others to remain open to new experiences, to try different ways of seeing, and to use creativity to tackle hurdles. American Watercolor in the Age of Homer and Sargent Kathleen A. Foster, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 2017-01-01. The fascinating story of the transformation of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925. The formation of the American Watercolor Society in 1866 by a small, dedicated group of painters transformed the perception of what had long been considered a marginal medium. Artists of all ages, styles, and backgrounds took up watercolor in the 1870s, inspiring younger generations of impressionists and modernists. By the 1920s, many would claim it as the American medium. This engaging and comprehensive book tells the definitive story of the metamorphosis of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925, identifying the artist constituencies and social forces that drove the new popularity of the medium The major artists of the movement Winslow Homer John Singer Sargent William Trost Richards Thomas Moran Thomas Eakins Charles Prendergast Childe Hassam Edward Hopper Charles Demuth and many others are represented with lavish color illustrations The result is a fresh and beautiful look at watercolor s central place in American art and culture The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M.
