Syndebukkens krets Ebba Haslund, 1968 Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing Jane Eldridge Miller, 2019-07-23 Unique in its breadth of coverage Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing is a comprehensive authoritative and enjoyable guide to women's fiction prose poetry and drama from around the world in the second half of the twentieth century Over the course of 1000 entries by over 150 international contributors a picture emerges of the incredible range of women's writing in our time from Toni Morrison to Fleur Adcock all are here This book includes the established and well loved but also opens up new worlds of modern literature which may be unfamiliar but are never less than fascinating

A History of Norwegian Literature Harald S. Næss, 1993-01-01 Volume 2 Norwegian Women's Writing 1850-1990 Janet Garton, 2000-12-01 Volume One in a new series this book covers Norwegian women's writing over the last 150 years setting literary developments against the background of the emergence and growth of the women's movement in Norway The work is divided chronologically into three sections the period up to 1913 when the universal suffrage was granted the period from 1913 to 1960 a time of stagnation in the women's movement with little involvement in contemporary political social and economic debates and the period from 1960 to the present day which has seen an increasing participation of women in public life Chapters on individual authors concentrate on the images of the women portrayed and investigate the conflicts behind the text the tensions between the authors and their work and the ambivalent feelings of women authors towards the act of writing The book should be of interest to all those concerned with women's writing and with Scandinavian literature and culture The series provides a survey country by country of women's writing from the beginnings of the major struggle for emancipation up to the present day While the main emphasis is on literature the social political and cultural development of each country provides a context for understanding the position and preoccupations of women writers Modern critical currents are also taken into account in relating feminist criticism to recent critical theory Forthcoming volumes in this series include Women's Writing in Italy 1870-1990 and Swedish Women's Writing 1850-1990 An Encyclopedia of Continental Women Writers Katharina M.
