Dawn of Sunday Joshua Cockayne, Scott Harrower, Preston Hill, 2022-06-08 Whether we realize it or not our churches are full of those who have experienced and are living with the aftereffects of horror and trauma whether as survivors carers or perpetrators The central question of this book is simple How can our churches become open to the Trinity such that they are trauma safe environments for everyone How can we join the triune God to become trauma safe churches While the reality is bleak the church can dare to hope for healing because of the reality of God and the body of Christ Using the metaphor of the dawn of Sunday the authors propose a double witness to trauma that straddles the boundary between the deadly silence of Holy Saturday and the joy of Easter Sunday While witnessing loss and lament we can also be open to the possibility of new life through God's trinitarian works of safety and recovery in the church This involves adopting some basic principles and practices of trauma safety that every pastor congregation and layperson can begin using today Creating trauma safe churches is possible through God the Trinity

On Distance, Belonging, Isolation and the Quarantined Church of Today Pablo Irizar, 2022-01-13 From the closure of churches during the pandemic and therefore in the absence of a community of worship arises the pressing theological question what does it mean to belong from a distance Although many have reacted to this question by providing virtual alternatives for activities and by reaffirming solidarity in times of hardship a theological response requires articulating the effects of quarantine and distancing on what it means to belong in the Church Fundamentally what does it mean to belong and is it possible to belong anew after the pandemic This book addresses these questions by carefully drawing from the thought of Augustine of Hippo whose life and thought fittingly echoes the course of our times

Divine Fruitfulness Aidan Nichols,2007 This fifth and final book in Aidan Nichols Introduction to Hans Urs von Balthasar series covers Balthasar s prodigious output from the 1940s to his death in 1988 leaving aside the great multi volume trilogy Nichols identifies Balthasar s most significant sources including the Church Fathers especially Origen Gregory of Nyssa Maximus the Confessor and Augustine Henri de Lubac Karl Barth and Adrienne von Speyr He then guides the reader through Balthasar s works thematically covering fundamental theological themes revelation and theology divine providence the paschal mystery Mary and the church the saints prayer and mysticism and Christian literature

Subversive Spirituality L Paul Jensen,2011-06-30 Subversive Spirituality links the practice and study of Christian spirituality with Christian mission It develops a twofold thesis grace spiritual disciplines and mission practices are inseparably linked in the mission of Jesus of the early church and of several historical renewal movements as well as in a contemporary field research sample and amidst the collapse of space and time evidenced by our culture s increasingly hurried pace of life more time and space are needed for regular solitary and communal spiritual practices in church mission and leadership structures if Christian mission is to transform people and culture in our time This requires a subversion of the collapsed spatial and temporal codes that have infected our Christian institutions Jensen employs methods and approaches from a variety of academic disciplines to explore both spirituality in terms of space and time and mission in terms of deed and word Specifically Jensen examines the spirituality and mission of Jesus the early church the apostolic fathers Origen the Devotio Moderna the early Jesuits David Brainerd and several women in 19th century Protestant missions He considers the spirituality and mission that have arisen within the postmodern generations born after 1960 Based on the theological historical cultural and field analyses of this study a model for spirituality and mission is proposed The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to have widespread applicability to diverse cultures and eras Jensen s model is applied to the pluralistic and postmodern milieu of North America with recommendations for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures A derivative model for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy which also has application for non formal leadership development structures is also proposed

Follow the Ecstasy John Howard Griffin,2010 In 1969 one year after Thomas Merton s tragic and suspicious death John Howard Griffin was invited to write a biography of America s most famous monk a monk who strangely had become a best selling theologian The result was Follow the Ecstasy The Hermitage Years of Thomas Merton 1983 Both Merton and Griffin were converts to Catholicism and they had become fast friends during Griffin s occasional retreats to the Trappist Abbey of Gethsemani where Merton was cloistered As Robert Bonazzi writes in his Foreword With natural humility and intense spirituality they taught each other by example and silence Merton and Griffin were both photographers as well as writers Griffin wrote about Merton's painting and photography in A Hidden Wholeness: The Visual World of Thomas Merton 1970 They also shared a fascination with the French theologian Jacques Maritain as well as French modernists Pierre Reverdy, George Braque, and Albert Camus Griffin fell ill before he could finish his biography of Merton and the mantle of official biographer passed to Michael Mott author of The Seven Mountains of Thomas Merton an essential compendium of the monk's life Yet Follow the Ecstasy gets closer to the man a portrait made by one who shared not only personal histories and interests with Merton but an intuitive perspective of solitude

Baudelaire's Le Spleen de Paris Maria C. Scott, 2017-09-29 Maria Scott's study of the operation of irony in Baudelaire's Le Spleen de Paris contends that the principal target of the collection's spleen is its own readership Baudelaire as one of the most perceptive cultural commentators of the nineteenth century was naturally very keenly aware of the growing dominance of the bourgeoisie in France not least as a market for art and literature Despite being dependent on this market for his own writing the poet was highly critical of bourgeois values and attitudes Scott builds on existing criticism of the collection to argue that these are indirectly mocked in Le Spleen de Paris often in the person of the poet's supposed textual alter ego The contention is that the prose poems betray the trust of readers by way of an apparent transparency of meaning that functions to blind us to their embedded irony Though focused on Le Spleen de Paris Scott's study engages with the full range of Baudelaire's writings including his art and literary criticism Her book will be of interest not only to Baudelaire scholars but also to those engaged more generally with nineteenth century French culture
