The Commodification Gap Matthias Bernt, 2022-04-25 THE COMMODIFICATION GAP In an elegant and careful theoretical analysis this book demonstrates how gentrification is always entwined with institutions and distinctive contextual processes Matthias Bernt develops a new concept the commodification gap which is tested in three richly researched cases With this the concept of gentrification becomes a multiplicity and the possibility of conversations across different urban contexts is expanded A richly rewarding read Jennifer Robinson Professor of Human Geography University College London UK Urban studies has reached a stalemate of universalism versus particularism Matthias Bernt is breaking out of this deadlock by being very precise about what exactly is universal and what is not and how one can conceptualize both The Commodity Gap is a key contribution to not only gentrification studies but also to comparative urbanism and urban studies at large Manuel B Aalbers Division of Geography Tourism KU Leuven Belgium The Commodification Gap provides an insightful institutionalist perspective on the field of gentrification studies The book explores the relationship between the operation of gentrification and the institutions underpinning but also influencing and restricting it in three neighborhoods in London Berlin and St Petersburg Matthias Bernt demonstrates how different institutional arrangements have resulted in the facilitation deceleration or alteration of gentrification across time and place The book is based on empirical studies conducted in Great Britain Germany and Russia and contains one of the first ever English language discussions of gentrification in Germany and Russia It begins with an examination of the limits of the widely established rent gap theory and proposes the novel concept of the commodification gap It then moves on to explore how different institutional contexts in the UK Germany and Russia have framed the conditions for these gaps to enable gentrification The Commodification Gap is an indispensable resource for researchers and academics studying human geography housing studies urban sociology and spatial planning Knowledge Power Renée Marlin-Bennett, 2004 A provocative introduction to the interconnected roles of intellectual property information and privacy and the rules that govern them in our lives and our global society

1650-1850 Kevin L. Cope, Samara Anne Cahill, 2025-06-17 Exploratory investigative and energetically analytical 1650 1850 covers the full expanse of long eighteenth century thought writing and art while delivering abundant revelatory detail Essays on well known cultural figures combine with studies of emerging topics to unveil a vivid rendering of a dynamic period simultaneously committed to singular genius and universal improvement The contributors to volume 30 join with Enlightenment thinkers in pulling pushing and stretching the elastic boundaries of human experience Essays on comical apocalypticism the evolution of satire and the Asian periphery of English literature open a volume that offers two special features on extreme aspects of a modernizing world The first probes the undiscovered world of last wills and testaments while the second explores the soaring world of eighteenth century birds As always 1650 1850 culminates in a bevy of book reviews critiquing the latest scholarship on long established specialties unusual subjects and broad reevaluations of the

Dannehl, 2017-05-15 Whilst there has been much recent scholarly work on retailing during the early modern period less is known about how people at the time perceived retailing both as onlookers artists and commentators and as participants Centred on the general theme of perceptions the authors address this gap in our knowledge by looking at a different aspect of consumption They focus on two ancillary themes the first is location and how contemporaries perceived the settlements in which there were shops the other is distance Pictures prints novels diaries and promotional literature of the tradespeople themselves provide much of the evidence Many of these sources are not new to historians but they have not been scrutinized and analysed with the questions in mind that are posed here The methodology to be employed has been developed by Nancy Cox over the last decade and is used successfully in her book The Complete Tradesman and in the compilation of the forthcoming Dictionary of Traded Goods and Commodities 1550 1800 This book will find a ready market with scholars concerned with British social and economic history in the early modern period Although it is first and foremost a book written by historians for historians it nevertheless borrows concepts and approaches from various disciplines concerned with theories of consumption material culture and representational art Internationalization Strategies of German Universities

Ulrich Bremer, 2018-05-08 Ulrich Bremer examines the internationalization process of German public research universities extracts multiple expected factors of impact from existing theory tests them against data and thus delivers implications for research and practice Strategy based international partnerships specialization and university size represent most relevant factors The complex interplay of strategy and leadership are shown a framework for their assessment is provided and conclusions in the fields of digitalization uncontrolled migration and growing nationalism are drawn Consuming the Body Dawn Woolley, 2022-09-08 Consuming the Body examines contemporary consumerism and the commodified construction of ideal gendered bodies paying particular attention to the new forms of interaction produced by social networking sites Describing the behaviours of an ideal neoliberal subject Woolley identifies modes of discipline forms of pleasure and opportunities for subversion in an examination of how individuals are addressed and the ways in which they are expected to respond Key modes of address that compel the consumer to consume are sadistic commands communicated in adverts TV programmes and magazine articles a fetishistic gaze that dissects the body into parts to be improved through commodification and a hystericized insistent presence that compels the consumer to present their body for critique and appreciation that is exemplified in the selfie Woolley interprets the visual characteristics of different types of selfies including fitpiration thinspiration fatspiration and bodypositivity to understand how they relate to current body ideals Healthism and culture bound illnesses such as hysteria and eating disorders are examined to demonstrate the impact of commodified body ideals on consumers bodies An analysis of thinspiration images photographs of emaciated bodies shared on pro eating
