The Commons Under Scrutiny:

The Commons Under Scrutiny Michael Ryle, Peter G. Richards, 1988 Resource Efficiency Complexity and the Commons Bruce Lankford, 2013-09-05 The efficient use of natural resources is key to a sustainable economy and yet the complexities of the physical aspects of resource efficiency are poorly understood In this challenging book the author proposes a major advance in our understanding of this topic by analysing resource efficiency and efficiency gains from the perspective of common pool resources applying this idea particularly to water resources and its use in irrigated agriculture The author proposes a novel concept of the paracommons through which the savings of increased resource efficiency can be viewed In effect he asks who gets the gain of an efficiency gain By reusing economising and avoiding losses wastes and wastages freed up resources are available for further use by four destinations the same user parties directly connected to that user the wider economy or returned to the common pool The paracommons is thus a commons of and competition for resources salvaged by changes to the efficiency of natural resource systems The idea can be applied to a range of resources such as water energy forests and high seas fisheries Five issues are explored the complexity of resource use efficiency the uncertainty of efficiency interventions and outcomes destinations of freed up losses wastes and wastages implications for resource conservation and the interconnectedness of users and systems brought about by efficiency changes The book shows how these ideas put efficiency on a par with other dimensions of resource governance and sustainability such as equity justice resilience and access House of Commons - European Scrutiny Committee: Forty-First Report of Session 2013-14 - HC 83xxxviii Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: European Scrutiny Committee, 2014-03-28 House of Commons - European Scrutiny Committee - HC 683 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: European Scrutiny Committee, 2013-11-07 This is an assessment of each of the 129 measures subject to the United Kingdom's block opt out including the European Arrest Warrant This is an area of policy which is highly legally complex and politically sensitive Yet the Government has failed to provide the information Parliament needs to scrutinise these measures properly There are two sets of conclusions in the Report first the Committee asks detailed follow up questions on a number of the measures in question including the European Arrest Warrant Second the Government's overall approach is thoroughly analysed The Committee sees signs of incoherence in Government policy probably a consequence of coalition politics and observes that several of the explanations for the 35 measures the Government wants to rejoin appear to have been written as if the Government was not intending to rejoin them and vice versa The Committee concludes that the House must be given the opportunity to vote on each of the measures the Government proposes to rejoin before formal negotiations with the European Commission and Council begin Text, Cases and Materials on Public Law and Human Rights Helen Fenwick, Gavin Phillipson, 2013-03-04 Building on the strengths of the Sourcebook on Public Law this book has been comprehensively revised to take account of the radical programme of constitutional reform introduced by the Labour Government since 1997

Olson, 2015-02-24 This text summarizes the research on and experiences of democratic legislatures around the world It focuses on what legislatures are and what they do as both consequence of and contributor to democratic self government The Law and Parliament Dawn Oliver, Gavin Drewry, 1998-09 Written by members of the Study of Parliament Group this collection of essays on the law and parliament deals with subjects such as the Nolan Report devolution and an examination of the historical relationship between Parliament and European Human Rights law
