The Circles Search For Its Center:

Obscure Locks, Simple Keys Chris Ackerley, 2010-09-07 Obscure Locks offers a detailed annotation of Samuel Beckett's most enigmatic novel Watt. It provides a page by page account of the demented details literary philosophical theological biographical and other that went into the making of this encyclop The Mirror in the Text Lucien Dällenbach, 1989-07-27 The Mirror in the Text is concerned with the literary and artistic device of mise en abyme the use of an element within a work which mirrors the work as a whole like the play within a play in Hamlet. In this classic study Lucien Dällenbach provides the first systematic analysis of this device and its literary and artistic applications from Van Eyck and Velasquez to Gide Beckett and the French nouveau roman. Alongside this wealth of examples Dällenbach constructs his theoretical argument with elegance and clarity assuming no previous knowledge of arcane and specialized theory but guiding the reader helpfully through the maze of literary criticism. The result is a new conceptual field a new grammar of the mise en abyme and an examination of its function within the work of art and literature. The highly original study has been acclaimed as one of the most important works of contemporary literary theory. It will be of interest to all students of English and European literature as well as to students of the visual arts The Cambridge Companion to the Novel Eric Bulson, 2018-06-28 This Companion focuses on the novel as a global genre with a 2 000 year history. The first section includes an examination of the various genres out of which it emerged epic history romance the picaresque and the different ways in which fiction and realism magical hyper and social were developed in response to specific political social and economic forces. The second section focuses on how the novel works considering how it has played a crucial role in the formation of more abstract social political and familial identities. The third section considers what the novel has become and will continue to become in the twenty first century. It examines the recent interest in graphic novels as well as data digitization and a global literary marketplace's role in shaping the future of the novel. This book will be a key resource for students and scholars studying the novel as a genre.

Behold an Animal Thangam Ravindranathan, 2020-01-15 As animals recede from our world what tale is being told by literature's creatures? Behold an Animal Four Exorbitant Readings examines incongruous animals in the works of four major contemporary French writers: an airborne horse in a novel by Jean Philippe Toussaint; extinct orangutans in Ric Chevillard; stray dogs in Marie NDiaye; vanishing bits of hedgehogs in Marie Darrieussecq. Resisting naturalist assumptions that an animal in a story is simply literally or metaphorically an animal, Thangam Ravindranathan understands it rather as the location of something missing. The animal is a lure, an unfinished figure fleeing the frame, crossing bounds of period genre even medium and language. Its flight traces an exorbitant self portrait in which thinking admits to its commerce with life and flesh. It is in its animals at the same time unbearably real and exquisitely unreal that literature may today be closest to philosophy. This book's primary focus is the contemporary French novel and continental philosophy. In addition to Toussaint Chevillard NDiaye and Darrieussecq, it engages the work of Jean de La Fontaine, Eadweard Muybridge, Edgar Allan Poe, Lewis
