The Collected Stories Of Chester Himes:

The Collected Stories of Chester Himes Chester B. Himes, 1990 Spanning over forty years of the author's writing career this collection of short stories uncovers the internal struggle of black people caught between rage and resignation in American society The several lives of Chester Himes, 1997 The Writings of Chester Himes are colored by a fascinating blend of hatred and tenderness of hard boiled realism and generous idealism His life was complex his relationships complicated How did this gifted son of a respectable southern black family become a juvenile delinquent How did he acquire self esteem and a new sense of identity by writing short stories while in the Ohio state penitentiary Drawn from his letters notebooks memoirs and fiction this straightforward account of Himes's varied episodic life attempts to trace the origins of his significant literary gift It details the socioeconomic familial and cultural background that fed his ambivalent views on race in America His Deep South childhood his adolescence in the Midwest his young manhood in prison his years as a menial laborer his struggle as an author in California and New York City and finally his glory days as an expatriate and celebrity in France and Spain are plumbed deeply for their effects upon his creative urges and his works In his native country Himes is recalled more as the author of successful detective novels such as Cotton Comes to Harlem than as a practitioner of the art of fiction In France and Spain his adopted countries he is regarded as a literary master This critical biography is the bittersweet story of a troubled man who found salvation in writing

Conversations with Chester Himes Chester B. Himes, 1995 Himes was equally revealing in the many interviews he granted during his long and tumultuous career in America and France

Short Story Index, 1994 Chester Himes James Sallis, 2022-03-08 A smart conscientious often stylish biography of the great African American crime writer of the mid twentieth century The New York Times Best known for The Harlem Cycle the series of crime stories featuring Coffin Ed Johnson and Grave Digger Jones Chester Himes was a novelist and memoirist whose work was neglected and underappreciated in his native America during the 1950s and 60s even as he was awarded France's most prestigious crime fiction prize In this major biography literary critic and fellow writer James Sallis examines the life of this fascinating figure combining interviews of those who knew Himes best including his second wife with insightful and poignant writing Publishers Weekly Himes wrote some of the 20th century's most memorable crime fiction and has been compared to Jim Thompson Raymond Chandler and Dashiell Hammett His life was just as spectacular as his novels Sentenced to 25 years in prison for armed robbery when he was 19 he turned to writing while behind bars and when released after serving eight years published two novels Their poor reception by the white establishment only confirmed Himes's beliefs about racism in America He eventually moved to Paris spending most of the rest of his life abroad While in Paris he began to produce the crime fiction that would make him famous including A Rage in Harlem and Cotton Comes to Harlem a riveting biography Library Journal starred review Satisfying thoughtful long overdue Publishers Weekly As intelligent and as much fun to read as a book by Himes himself There is no higher praise The Times London The Postwar African

American Novel Stephanie Brown, 2011-03-14 Americans in the World War II era bought the novels of African American writers in unprecedented numbers But the names on the books lining shelves and filling barracks trunks were not the now familiar Richard Wright and Ralph Ellison but Frank Yerby Chester Himes William Gardner Smith and J Saunders Redding In this book Stephanie Brown recovers the work of these innovative novelists overturning conventional wisdom about the writers of the period and the trajectory of African American literary history She also questions the assumptions about the relations between race and genre that have obscured the importance of these once influential creators Wright's Native Son 1940 is typically considered to have inaugurated an era of social realism in African American literature And Ellison's Invisible Man 1952 has been cast as both a high mark of American modernism and the only worthy stopover on the way to the Black Arts Movement of the 1960s But readers in the late 1940s purchased enough copies of Yerby's historical romances to make him the best selling African American author of all time Critics meanwhile were taking note of the generic experiments of Redding Himes and Smith while the authors themselves questioned the obligation of black authors to write protest instead penning campus novels war novels and in Yerby's case costume dramas Their status as lesser lights is the product of retrospective bias Brown demonstrates and their novels established the period immediately following World War II as a pivotal moment in the history of the African American novel

Race, Gender and Empire in American Detective Fiction John Cullen Gruesser, 2013-08-29 This book highlights detection's malleability by analyzing the works of particular groups of authors from specific time periods written in response to other texts It traces the roles that gender race and empire have played in American detective fiction from Edgar Allan Poe's works through the myriad variations upon them published before 1920 to hard boiled fiction the origins of which derive in part from turn of the 20th century notions about gender race and nationality and it concludes with a discussion of contemporary mystery series with inner city settings that address black male and female heroism

Deadpan Tina Post, 2023-01-10 Deadpan The Aesthetics of Black Inexpression is an examination of the aesthetic assertions that inhere in gestures of expressionlessness inscrutability and emotional withholding in African American cultural production

Biblical Strategies for a Community in Crisis Colleen Birchett, 1995-04 Through inspirational messages and warnings 11 leading Christian thinkers share with readers the major challenges facing the African American community and its church Readers are given biblical strategies for facing these challenges 12 lessons Leader's Guide also available

America Noir David Cochran, 2016-06-21 In America Noir David Cochran details how ten writers and filmmakers challenged the social pieties prevalent during the Cold War such as the superiority of the American democracy the benevolence of free enterprise and the sanctity of the suburban family Rod Serling's The Twilight Zone featured victims of vast faceless bureaucratic powers Jim Thompson's noir thrillers such as The Grifters portrayed the ravages of capitalism on those at the bottom of the social ladder Patricia Highsmith in The Talented Mr Ripley placed an amoral con man in an international setting implicitly questioning America's fitness as leader of the free world Charles

Willeford's pulp novels such as Wild Wives and Woman Chaser depicted the family as a hotbed of violence and chaos. These artists pioneered a detached ironic sensibility that radically juxtaposed cultural references and blurred the distinctions between high and low art. Their refusal to surrender to the pressures for political conformity and their unflinching portrayal of the underside of American life paved the way for the emergence of a 1960s counterculture that forever changed the way America views itself.
