The Comedy Of Survival In Search Of An Environmental Ethic:

The Comedy of Survival Joseph W. Meeker, 1980 The Comedy of Survival Joseph W. Meeker, 1980-01-01 The Nightmare Considered Nancy Anisfield, 1991 These essays assess the nature of nuclear war literature from a variety of perspectives Scholars activists novelists poets and teachers challenge nuclear ideologies and traditional readings of apocalyptic texts Included Holocaust literature of the 1950s Michael Dorris and Louise Erdrich poetry and nuclear war Riddley Walker Fiskadoro haiku and Hiroshima Kopit's End of the World O'Brien's The Nuclear Age and Vonnegut's cataclysmic novels Revisioning Environmental Ethics Daniel A. Kealey, 1990-01-01 Using the psychohistorical schema of Jean Gebser Kealey analyzes the positions of environmental ethicists and concludes that the first four of Gebser's structures of consciousness are inadequate to meet the present crisis Drawing on Plotinus Aurobindo and Max Scheler Kealey outlines an adequate fully integral ecological ethic The Ecocriticism Reader Cheryll Glotfelty, Harold Fromm, 1996 This book is the first collection of its kind an anthology of classic and cutting edge writings in the rapidly emerging field of literary ecology Exploring the relationship between literature and the physical environment literary ecology is the study of the ways that writing from novels and folktales to U.S. government reports and corporate advertisements both reflects and influences our interactions with the natural world Environmental Criticism for the Twenty-First Century Stephanie LeMenager, Teresa Shewry, Ken Hiltner, 2011-05-09 Environmental Criticism for the Twenty First Century showcases the recent explosive expansion of environmental criticism which is actively transforming three areas of broad interest in contemporary literary and cultural studies history scale and science With contributors engaging texts from the medieval period through the twenty first century the collection brings into focus recent ecocritical concern for the long durations through which environmental imaginations have been shaped Contributors also address problems of scale including environmental institutions and imaginations that complicate conventional rubrics such as the national local and global Finally this collection brings together a set of scholars who are interested in drawing on both the sciences and the humanities in order to find compelling stories for engaging ecological processes such as global climate change peak oil production nuclear proliferation and food scarcity Environmental Criticism for the Twenty First Century offers powerful proof that cultural criticism is itself ecologically resilient evolving to meet the imaginative challenges of twenty first century environmental crises Postcolonial Ecologies Elizabeth DeLoughrey, George B. Handley, 2011-04-20 The first edited collection to bring ecocritical studies into a necessary dialogue with postcolonial literature this volume offers rich and suggestive ways to explore the relationship between humans and nature around the globe drawing from texts from Africa and the Caribbean as well as the Pacific Islands and South Asia Turning to contemporary works by both well and little known postcolonial writers the diverse contributions highlight the literary imagination as crucial to representing what Eduardo Glissant calls the aesthetics of the earth The essays are organized around a group of thematic concerns that engage culture and cultivation

arboriculture and deforestation the lives of animals and the relationship between the military and the tourist industry With chapters that address works by J M Coetzee Kiran Desai Derek Walcott Alejo Carpentier Zakes Mda and many others Postcolonial Ecologies makes a remarkable contribution to rethinking the role of the humanities in addressing global environmental issues

Towards an Ecocritical Theatre Mohebat Ahmadi, 2022-04-27 Towards an Ecocritical Theatre investigates contemporary theatre through the lens of Anthropocene oriented ecocriticism It assesses how Anthropocene thinking engages different modes of theatrical representation as well as how the theatrical apparatus can rise to the representational challenges of changing interactions between humans and the nonhuman world To explore these problems the book investigates international Anglophone plays and performances by Caryl Churchill Stephen Sewell Andrew Bovell E M Lewis Chantal Bilodeau Jordan Hall and Miwa Matreyek who have taken significant steps towards re orienting theatre from its traditional focus on humans to an ecocritical attention to nonhumans and the environment in the Anthropocene Their theatrical works show how an engagement with the problem of scale disrupts the humanist bias of theatre provoking new modes of theatrical inquiry that envision a scale beyond the human and realign our ecological culture art and intimacy with geological time Moreover the plays and performances studied here through their liveness immediacy physicality and communality examine such scalar shifts via the problem of agency in order to give expression to the stories of nonhuman actants These theatrical works provoke reflections on the flourishing of multispecies responsibilities and sensitivities in aesthetic and ethical terms providing a platform for research in the environmental humanities through imaginative conversations on the world's iterative performativity in which all bodies human and nonhuman are cast horizontally as agential forces on the theatrical world stage This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre studies environmental humanities and ecocritical studies

Ecological Interconnections Shruti Das, Mridul Bordoloi, 2024-12-04 Ecological Interconnections Critical Readings on Ethics Sustainability and Interspecies Communication in Literature and Culture argues that literature and cultural studies are vital tools for understanding and addressing ecological issues This edited book of sixteen essays explores how literary texts and cultural iconography can highlight ecological ethics promote sustainability and enhance interspecies communication By critiquing anthropocentric perspectives and emphasizing non human ecologies the book explores the importance of deep ecology and ecoprecarity in contemporary discourse Divided into three sections Interspecies Communication and Intersection Eco ethical Intersection and Responsibility and Towards Ecological Sustainability the essays advocate for a practical shift from theoretical considerations to active ecological commitment The book demonstrates that literature can cultivate eco consciousness and empathy fostering sustainable coexistence Through its interdisciplinary approach this book provides a comprehensive understanding of the interconnectedness of human and non human life making it an indispensable resource for scholars students and eco conscious individuals

of Sohrab Sepehri and James Baldwin Bahar Davary points to the interrelation of religion poetry and ecology from a comparative perspective with an emphasis on decoloniality This work shows how authors Sohrab Seperhi and James Baldwin sought social justice by building their work on love and an authentic way of knowing the world based on an interconnected knowledge of the self The layers of depth in Sepehri and Baldwin s works and their immediacy for our time has yet to be fully understood but through Ecotheology and Love Davary takes a significant step towards achieving such a fuller understanding
