The Common Heritage:

The Concept of the Common Heritage of Mankind in International Law Kemal Baslar, 2024-02-06 The concept of the common heritage of mankind is one of the most extraordinary developments in recent intellectual history and one of the most revolutionary and radical legal concepts to have emerged in recent decades The year 1997 marks the thirtieth anniversary of the advent of the concept in the domain of public international law Ever since its emergence it has become evident that no other concept notion principle or doctrine has brought as much intensive debate controversy confrontation and speculation as the common heritage phenomenon did This is because it is a philosophical idea that questions the regimes of globally important resources regardless of their situation and requires major changes in the world to apply its provisions In other words the application and enforcement of the common heritage of mankind require a critical reexamination of many well established principles and doctrines of classical international law such as acquisition of territory consent based sources of international law sovereignty equality resource allocation and international personality This book aims to explore the legal theory and implications of the concept of the common heritage of mankind It addresses almost all aspects of the concept in the light of the experience of three decades The author takes into account the elements of the common heritage concept in the fields of jurisprudence outer space law the law of the sea the law of Antarctica international environmental law human rights and general principles of public international law It tries to develop a normative framework through which the concept may offer alternatives for the governance of the global commons

The Common Heritage of Mankind: Then and Now M.C.W. Pinto, The Concept of the Common Heritage of Mankind Vladimir Mikhaïlovich Postyshev, 1990 Cries of the Sea Peter B. Payoyo, 1997-10-30 A treasure lies at the bottom of the oceans This treasure takes the form of a legal and ethical principle which may illuminate the potential for an enriching international community in a world of growing disparities It is the principle of the Common Heritage of Humanity The 1982 United Nations Convention on Law of the Sea delineated an Area and then proclaimed the Area and its resources the common heritage of mankind The author suggests that the terms common heritage and humanity invite a larger perspective on the law underlying the Convention Cries of the Sea provides a unique view of the deep blue sea through the lens of the politics of international ocean law and policy and in particular through the exposition of the Common Heritage of Humanity as a fundamental principle of international law The book explains why and how the Common Heritage principle constitutes an indispensable ingredient in any global programme for sustainable development Legal philosophers and practitioners alike in the ocean arena and beyond will find that this work offers an intriguing intellectual and moral challenge This book received the first Arvid Pardo Prize for outstanding scholarship on the Law of the Sea

The Common Heritage of Mankind and the Developing Law of the Sea Deborah C. Trefts, 1980 The Common Heritage of Mankind: Then and Now (Volume 361). , 2013 The Common Heritage Arvid Pardo, 1975 International Law and the Genetic Resources of the Deep Sea David Kenneth Leary, 2007 Deep sea genetic resources and the interest of the biotechnology industry in their exploitation are emerging as a significant challenge for international oceans governance This book is the first comprehensive examination of this issue and explores its relationship with marine scientific research and other activities in the deep sea As well as a detailed survey of the state of industry interest in this new field of biotechnology it also sets out proposals for future sustainable management of these resources utilizing many existing international law and policy regimes National Sovereignty, the Common Heritage of Mankind and the Role of the International Seabed Authority Zlatibor R. Milovanović,1980 The Common Heritage of Mankind Edward Guntrip,2001
