Power of the Gulf Bessma Momani, 2016-04-01 Bringing together for the first time distinguished Gulf experts to analyse the renewed geo economic prominence of the Gulf states this volume investigates some of the new power brokers in the world economy the oil exporting states of the Gulf The Gulf Cooperation Council s GCC members Bahrain Kuwait Oman Qatar the United Arab Emirates and Saudi Arabia collectively have the largest proven oil reserves in the world and are among the world's largest oil exporting states. Gulf Arab states are actively pursuing a variety of foreign investment strategies. Some of these investments are being managed by sovereign wealth funds, government investment corporations and government controlled companies. This renewed geo-economic status has received a lot of media attention but there has been a dearth of academic study on what this shift in global economic power means for the international economic system. This volume aims to fill this gap with a rigorous scholarly analysis based on primary sources and raw economic data. It brings together the expertise of academics who have devoted their career to careful study of the region and of renowned scholars of international political economy.

Protecting Intellectual Property in the Arabian Peninsula David Price, Alhanoof AlDebasi, 2017-09-13. This work examines the endeavours of the Arabian Peninsula States namely the Gulf Cooperation Council member States of Bahrain, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia and the UAE as well as Jordan and Yemen as prospective GCC members in establishing national intellectual property protection regimes which both meet their international treaty obligations and are also congruent with their domestic policy objectives. It uses the WTO's TRIPS Agreement of 1995 as the universal benchmark against which the region's laws are assessed. The challenges faced by the States in enforcing their intellectual property laws receive particular attention. Protecting Intellectual Property in the Arabian Peninsula considers the changing nature of the States' intellectual property laws since 1995. It argues that the decade immediately following the TRIPS Agreement was marked by a period of foreign forces shaping or influencing the character of the States' intellectual property legislative regimes primarily through multilateral or bilateral trade based agreements. The second and current decade however see a significant shift away from foreign influences and a move towards domestic and regional imperatives and initiatives taking over. The work also examines regional initiatives for the protection of traditional knowledge and cultural heritage as areas of intellectual property which fall outside the parameters of the TRIPS Agreement but which are of significant concern to the States and other developing countries and to which they are giving increasing attention in terms of providing proper protection.

Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Africa and the Middle East Terry M. Mays, 2015-06-18. The Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Africa and the Middle East focuses on international organizations in Africa and the Middle East. This makes sense for political, cultural and geographical reasons. North African countries and many located in the Sahel region are members of not only African but also Middle Eastern international organizations due to their cultural and religious heritage as well as geographic location between Sub-Saharan Africa and the Middle East. A limited number of global organizations are also included in this book when they have major programs focusing on Africa and/or the Middle East. This volume emphasizes intergovernmental organizations but many non-governmental organizations are also included. This is done through a chronology, an introductory essay, appendixes and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 700 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, thematic

Amirahmadi, N. Entessar, 2023-05-26 First Published in 1992 Reconstruction and Regional Diplomacy in the Persian Gulf goes beyond a description of the recent events by analysing the social political and economic patterns of interaction between the Gulf states The argument is strengthened by a consideration of the role of the superpowers in the region s political discourse and of religion as a force for a change Not only do the authors provide an easily accessible basis for explaining the current problems in the region but they also offer their own sometimes provocative policy prescriptions This book is an important read for scholars and researchers of Middle East politics and Middle East history Kuwait Amid War, Peace and Revolution Lori Plotkin Boghardt, 2006-10-31 This book explores Kuwaiti internal security challenges of terrorism sabotage and subversion and using untapped Kuwaiti government sources examines policy responses such as mass deportations and special security trials The study details how turmoil in neighbouring states and religious tensions threaten Kuwait s environment Does Membership in a Regional Preferential Trade Arrangement Make a Country More Or Less Protectionist? Faezeh Foroutan, 1998 Beyond Regionalism? Matteo Legrenzi, 2016-04-15 Regional cooperation regionalism and regionalization in the Middle East are usually considered to be weak and rather ceremonial However since September 11 2001 a new regional order is emerging and the impact of geostrategic changes in the international environment has yet to be satisfactorily studied With older regional organizations suffering from weaknesses new forms appear to be developing and flourishing due either to European support or growing sub regional identities This volume offers refined theoretical models and approaches which are attuned to the new dynamics and contradictions of a wide range of regionalist projects in the contemporary Middle East Case studies of the most important regional organizations in different policy fields offer comprehensive overviews of the main actors institutions historical development and current issues
