Six Silver Bullets:

Six Silver Bullets Lauran Paine, 1990 Six Silver Bullets George Flynn, 1990-01-01 Front Lines Miguel Martínez, 2016-09-13 Front Lines documents the literary practices of imperial Spain's common soldiers. The epic poems, chronicles, ballads, and autobiographies that these soldiers wrote at the front provide a critical view from below on state violence and imperial expansion. Undisciplined Nihad Farooq, 2016-07-19 Reciprocity Wonder Consequence Object Lessons in the Land of Fire Of Blindness Blood and Second Sight Transpersonal Journeys from Brazil to Ethiopia Creole Authenticity and Cultural Performance Ethnographic Personhood in the Twentieth Century Performing Diaspora The Science of Speaking for Haiti Conclusion I Danced I Don't Know How Media Race and the Posthuman The Vampire Survival Bible - Identifying, Avoiding, Repelling And Destroying The Undead - Volume 2 Mark Stephen Penke, 2012-12-01 A guide to surviving an attack by hordes of the predatory undead explains vampire history, physiology, and behavior, the most effective defense strategies, and how to destroy the vampire if needed. Papa, PhD Mary Ruth Marotte, Paige Reynolds, Ralph James Savarese, 2011 A collection of personal essays from men who wrestle with what it means to be a father in academia today. Organized in three sections, the stories of the contributors depict not merely a balancing act of parenting, teaching, and writing, but also the revelatory collision and occasional fusion of competing identities. Essays in the first section, Fathers in Theory, Fathers in Praxis, focus on challenges related to merging work and parenting. The authors contemplate to what degree we engage our children in the academy while also allowing them to grow independently, recognizing the challenge of keeping the roles of parent and teacher distinct. The second section, Family Made, explores fatherhood against the grain and includes narratives of single dads, fathers raising children with disabilities, biracial families, and other non-traditional parenting situations. Forging New Fatherhoods, the third section, articulates the strategies created by men to balance diapers and a doctorate or to reconcile fatherhood with professional ambition. The contributors' reflections reveal how fatherhood is instrumental to their successes and failures in the workplace and demonstrate that the relationship between fatherhood and academia is a rich and legitimate subject for study. Selling the Silver Bullet Avi Santo, 2015-04-15 Originating as a radio series in 1933, the Lone Ranger is a cross-media star who has appeared in comic strips, comic books, adult and juvenile novels, feature films, and serials, clothing, games, toys, home furnishings, and many other consumer products. In his prime, he rivaled Mickey Mouse as one of the most successfully licensed and merchandised children's properties in the United States, while in more recent decades the Lone Ranger has struggled to resonate with consumers, leading to efforts to rebrand the property. The Lone Ranger's eighty-year history as a lifestyle brand thus offers a perfect case study of how the fields of licensing, merchandizing, and brand management have operated within shifting industrial and sociohistorical conditions that continue to redefine how the business of entertainment functions. Deciphering how iconic characters gain and retain their status as cultural commodities, Selling the Silver Bullet focuses on the work done by peripheral consumer product and licensing divisions in selectively extending the characters reach and in cultivating investment in these characters among potential stakeholders Tracing the Lone Ranger s decades long career as intellectual property allows Avi Santo to analyze the mechanisms that drive contemporary character licensing and entertainment brand management practices while at the same time situating the licensing field s development within particular sociohistorical and industrial contexts He also offers a nuanced assessment of the ways that character licensing firms and consumer product divisions have responded to changing cultural and economic conditions over the past eighty years which will alter perceptions about the creative and managerial authority these ancillary units wield Managing Technological Change Nancy M. Blue Moon Sherry Hutchison,2025-09-25 Magic runs deep in Conjure Cove but so does vengeance The blue moon is rising and with it the veil between worlds grows thin At last the witch sisters Edwina and Violet are ready to open their doors raise their coven and claim their place in the magical world As the townspeople prepare for the annual Midsummer Eve Festival something far older than folklore begins to stir Familiars fairies sprites ghostly spirits witches and warlocks gather at the edges of the sisters land some in celebration others with darker intentions Among them lurk a pack of cursed wolfhounds bound to the will of the vengeful witch Melisandre whose wrath has not cooled since Violet and her wizard love Orin rescued an innocent child from her grasp Now Violet must trust in Orin s power and embrace her awakening gifts before darkness takes hold once more But Melisandre s revenge is not the only threat the sisters face Whispers have spread through the magical community about Edwina's bond with a mortal man and many see him as a weakness to exploit. What they fail to understand is how far Edwina will go to defend the one she loves and what kind of magic rises when a witch fights to protect her own. The sisters must stand together or risk losing everything they've just begun to build. In Conjure Cove, sisterhood is strength; love is its own kind of magic, and beneath the light of a blue moon anything is possible.
