of comics as well as those interested in the creation of comics and graphic narratives Love on the Racks Michelle Nolan, 2008-04-09 For the better part of three decades romance comics were an American institution Nearly 6 000 romance comics were published between 1947 and 1977 and there was a time when one of every five comics sold in the U S was a romance comic This is the first book devoted entirely to the rarely studied world of romance comics The text includes information on several types of romance comics and their creators plus the history numbers and publishing frequency of dozens of romance titles The author examines several significant periods in the development of the romance genre including the origins of Archie Comics and other teen romance publications the romance comic boom and bust of the 1950s and the genre's sudden disappearance when fantasy and superhero comics began to dominate mainstream comics in the late 1970s

Writing Speculative Fiction Eugen Bacon, 2019-04-24 In this engaging and accessible guide Eugen Bacon explores writing speculative fiction as a creative practice drawing from her own work and the work of other writers and theorists to interrogate its various subgenres Through analysis of writers such as Stephen King J R R Tolkien and J K Rowling this book scrutinises the characteristics of speculative fiction considers the potential of writing cross genre and covers the challenges of targeting young adults It connects critical and cultural theories to the practice of creative writing examining how they might apply to the process of writing speculative fiction Both practical and critical in its evaluative gaze it also looks at publishing as a promising publishing medium for speculative fiction This is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of creative writing looking to develop a critical awareness of and practical skills for the writing of speculative fiction It is also a valuable resource for creators commentators and consumers of contemporary speculative fiction Chapter 8 Horror and the Paranormal was shortlisted for the Australasian Horror Writers Association AHWA's 2019 Australian Shadows Awards Debriefing of an Unknown Form of Existence Yuri Dia Konov, Joseph Conrad Richard Curle, 1914 Henry James and the Ghostly T. J. Lustig, 2011-02-03 The importance of ghosts and liminal experience in general in the fiction of Henry James Modernist Short Fiction by Women Claire Drewery, 2016-04-15 Taking on the neglected issue of the short story's relationship to literary Modernism Claire Drewery examines works by Katherine Mansfield Dorothy Richardson May Sinclair and Virginia Woolf Drewery argues that the short story as a genre is preoccupied with transgressing boundaries and thus offers an ideal platform from which to examine the Modernist fascination with the liminal Embodying both liberation and restriction liminal spaces on the one hand enable challenges to traditional cultural and personal identities while on the other hand they entail the inevitable negative consequences of occupying the position of the outsider marginality psychosis and death Mansfield Richardson Sinclair and Woolf all exploit this paradox in their short fiction which typically explores literal and psychological borderline states that are resistant to rational analysis Thus their short stories offered these authors an opportunity to represent the borders of unconsciousness and to articulate meaning while also conveying a sense of that which is unsayable Through their concern with liminality Drewery shows these writers contribute significantly to the Modernist aesthetic that interrogates identity the construction of the self and the relationship between the individual and society Architect, 1922 The Architect, 1923 The Turn of the Screw and Other Stories Henry James, 2010-05-07 In 1898 Henry James wrote a novella that would become one of the most famous and critically discussed ghost stories ever written The Turn of the Screw Three other examples of James's tales of the supernatural The Altar of the Dead The Beast in the Jungle and The Jolly Corner are included in this edition These texts reveal on both the thematic and narrative levels James's deepest concerns as a writer The texts in this edition are all drawn from the New York Edition of James's works The introduction traces the extensive critical debate around The Turn of the Screw and situates the texts in contemporary discussions of the supernatural Appendices include material on the tales reception James's writings on the supernatural and the study of the supernatural in the nineteenth century English Literature: From Milton to Johnson, by Edmund Gosse Richard Garnett, Edmund Gosse, 1903 Ben Jonson: The man and his work Ben Jonson, 1925 The Complete Works: Novels, Short Stories, Plays, Essays, Memoirs and Letters Henry James, 2024-01-05

Dispatches from the World Bill Black, William Richard Black, 2012-10 Percival Phillips was born in 1877 He began writing for newspapers at the age of sixteen with articles about coal miners rioting in Southwestern Pennsylvania At the age of nineteen he began pursuing a dream of being a war correspondent with coverage of the Greco Turkish war and later the war in Cuba He next moved to London England and worked for the Daily Express covering wars in Japan and Russia Tripoli and the Balkans Although an American the British government selected him to be one of five correspondents to cover the British portion of the Western Front during the World War I as well as to cover the troubles in Ireland After the war he was knighted by King George for these services He next moved to the Daily Mail where he continued covering conflicts in Russia China and India as well as problems in Iraq the rise of Mussolini in Italy and Gandhi s activities in India In 1935 he joined the Daily Telegraph and later covered a revolution in Greece and the Italian invasion of Ethiopia His final war was the Spanish Civil War during which he died in 1937

The Bormann Brotherhood William Stevenson, 2019-05-07 While the flames of World War II still raged Roosevelt Churchill and Stalin issued a warning to the Nazi leaders Those responsible for the torture and murder of millions of innocent and defenseless civilians were promised that the three Allied Powers will pursue them to the furthest corners of the earth and deliver them to their judges so that justice may be done That promise was not kept Justice was not done In 1945 twelve of the most notorious Nazis were tried for crimes against humanity and sentenced to death by the International Military Tribunal convened at Nuremberg Martin Bormann his whereabouts unknown had been tried and convicted in absentia Subsequent war crimes trials ended in the conviction of other offenders But the majority of the torturers and murderers escaped found sanctuary and continued to work effectively toward the concept of eventual world domination Nazism did not die at Nuremberg This survival and resurgence was the result of a plan for the creation of a brotherhood initiated long before the end of the war by the least visible and most powerful of the Nazi war lords Martin Bormann The Brotherhood backed by virtually unlimited funds established safe houses inside Germany escape routes to other countries and continents and an extensive international group of industrial firms as financial reservoirs and as fronts for escaped Nazis This chronicle based upon independent investigation including numerous exclusive interviews and the examination of declassified and revealing documents casts a new light upon Bormann his strange role in the Third Reich and his devastating influence which cuts mercilessly into our present This is essential reading as fascinating as it is meaningful

Cryptic Subtexts in

Literature and Film Steven F Walker, 2018-07-17 One of the primary objectives of comparative literature is the study of the relationship of texts also known as intertextuality which is a means of contextualizing and analyzing the way literature grows and flourishes through inspiration and imitation direct or indirect When the inspiration and imitation is direct and obvious the study of this rapport falls into the more restricted category of hypertextuality What the author has labeled a cryptic subtext however is an extreme case of hypertextuality It involves a series of allusions to another text that have been deliberately inserted by the author into the primary text as potential points of reference This book takes a deep dive into a broad array of literature and film to explore these allusions and the hidden messages therein
