Sinking Of The Princess Sophia Taking The North Down With Her:

The Sinking of the Princess Sophia Kenneth Coates, William Robert Morrison, 1990 A historical sociological account of the wreck of the Princess Sophia a Canadian Pacific Steamer which sank in Lynn Canal in 1918 along with 353 residents of the Yukon and Alaska a large percentage of the population of the Klondike at that time and the impact of the wreck on Northern society

Ordinary Reactions to Extraordinary Events Ray Broadus Browne, Arthur G. Neal, 2001 The essays in this collection present communities beset by unexpected social and physical events Some outline immediate responses that soon pass and some that will not go away Who would have foreseen that Elvis would be a phenomenon apparently as lasting as the faces on Mount Rushmore Cultural history will not allow us to forget the H G Wells account of the Martian attack nor can we ever forget the continued terror of the Chernobyl explosion Ordinary Reactions to Extraordinary Events catalogues on the Geiger counter of human emotions societal reactions to events both earthshaking and culture disturbing

Best Left as Indians Kenneth Coates, 1993 Barely a hundred and fifty years have passed since the first white people arrived at the upper Yukon River basin During this time many non Natives have come and gone and some have stayed Ken Coates examines the interaction between Native people and white

Land of the Midnight Sun, Third Edition Ken S. Coates, William R. Morrison, 2017-09-30 While the Klondike Gold Rush is one of the most widely known events in Canadian history particularly outside Canada the rest of the Yukon's long and diverse history attracts little attention Important developments such as Herschel Island whaling pre 1900 fur trading the post Second World War resource boom a lengthy struggle for responsible government and the emergence of Indigenous political protest remain poorly understood Placing well known historical episodes within the broader sweep of the past Land of the Midnight Sun gives particular emphasis to the role of First Nations people and the lengthy struggle of Yukoners to find their place within Confederation This broader story incorporates the introduction of mammoth dredges that scoured the Klondike creeks the impressive Elsa Keno Hill silver mines the impact of residential schools on Aboriginal children the devastation caused by the sinking of the Princess Sophia the Yukon's remarkable contributions to the national First World War effort and the sweeping transformations associated with the American occupation during the Second World War Land of the Midnight Sun has long been the standard source for understanding the history of the territory This third edition includes a new preface to update readers on developments in the Yukon's economy culture and politics including Indigenous self government

Resources and Sustainable Development in the Arctic Chris Southcott, Frances Abele, David Natcher, Brenda Parlee, 2018-10-04 Over the past thirty years we have witnessed a demand for resources such as minerals oil and gas which is only set to increase This book examines the relationship between Arctic communities and extractive resource development With insights from leading thinkers in the field the book examines this relationship to better understand what if anything can be done in order for the development of non renewable resources to be of benefit to the long term sustainability of these communities The contributions synthesize circumpolar research on the topic of resource extraction in the Arctic and highlight areas that need further investigation such as the ability of northern communities to properly use current regulatory processes fiscal arrangements and benefit agreements to ensure the long term sustainability of their culture communities and to avoid a new path dependency This book provides an insightful summary of issues surrounding resource extraction in the Arctic and will be essential reading for anyone interested in environmental impact assessments globalization and Indigenous communities and the future of the Arctic region

Outrageous Seas Rainer K. Baehre, 1999-11-17 There was a time in history when the sea was as important as the land for defining a country's social and cultural identity Outrageous Seas is about that time and about the harrowing almost mythic experience of shipwreck near shipwreck and survival in waters off Newfoundland Travellers from many walks of life explorers and missionaries traders fishers and mariners Native Peoples aristocrats and immigrants have left rare and fascinating first hand accounts of such disasters Their narratives span four centuries and touch many historical sub themes such as the appeal of religion in times of crisis gender roles and the ocean as workplace Apart from its obvious scholarly appeal this collection evokes psychic responses to calamity and brushes with death perhaps the most universal experience of all

Good Time Girls of the Alaska-Yukon Gold Rush Lael Morgan, 1999 Morgan offers an authentic and deliciously humorous account of the prostitutes and other disreputable women who were the earliest female pioneers of the Far North At the turn of the century tens of thousands of Americans left their homes escaping a worldwide depression ruthless heartbreakers Cad Wilson French Marie Larose who auctioned herself off as a wife to the highest bidder Edith Neile called the Oregon Mare famous for both her outlandish behavior her soft hearted generosity These good time girls crossed geographic social frontiers finding freedom independence hardship heartbreak sometimes astonishing wealth They were an important part of this key chapter in the history of the West which holds a special place in the American imagination

On Time Delivery William S. Schneider, 2012-03-15 From the turn of the twentieth century in interior Alaska dog team mail carriers were charged with maintaining the trail systems and carrying the mail until they were replaced in the late 1930s and 40s by airplane mail service With the advent and widespread adoption of aviation many of the trails were abandoned and a generation of rural Alaskans has now grown up with few ties to the overland trail system that supported their grandparents and inspired modern traditions such as the world famous Iditarod Race In addition to chronicling the history of this unique postal service On Time Delivery pays tribute to the men who carried the mail and the families who supported them and considers the changing nature of how people experience the country where they live and how this is affected by the systems of communication and transportation upon which they depend

From the Klondike to Berlin Michael Gates, 2017-04-09 No part of the Empire has given up more completely of her splendid men than Yukon Such being the case the Dominion should not be forgetful of this region the Empire's farthest North and take pride in the encouragement of the spirit that dominates the people of the Land of the Midnight Sun Dawson Daily News May 15 1918 Nearly a thousand Yukoners a quarter of the population enlisted before the end of the Great War They were lawyers bankers piano tuners dockworkers and miners who became soldiers nurses and snipers brave men and women who traded the isolated beauty of the north for the muddy crowded horror of the battlefields Those who stayed home were no less important to the war s outcome by March of 1916 the Dawson Daily News estimated that Yukoners had donated often and generously at a rate of 12 per capita compared to the dollar per person donated elsewhere in the country Historian Michael Gates tells us the stories of both those who left and those on the home front including the adventures of Joe Boyle who successfully escorted the Romanian crown jewels on a 1 300 kilometre journey through Russia in spite of robbers ambushes gunfire explosions fuel shortages and barricades Gates also recounts the home front efforts of Martha Black who raised thousands of dollars and eventually travelled to Europe where she acted as an advocate for the Yukon boys Stories of these heroes and many others are vividly recounted with impeccable research

Lifeboat John R. Stilgoe, 2003 The fire extinguisher the airline safety card the lifeboat Until September 11 2001 most Americans paid homage to these appurtenances of disaster with a sidelong glance if at all But John Stilgoe has been thinking about lifeboats ever since he listened with his father as the kitchen radio announced that the liner Lakonia had caught fire and sunk in the Atlantic It was Christmas 1963 and airline travel and Cold War paranoia had made the images of an ocean liner s distress the air force dropping supplies in the dark a freighter collecting survivors from lifeboats seem like echoes of a bygone era But Stilgoe already a passionate reader and an aficionado of small boat navigation began to delve into accounts of other disasters at sea What he found was a trunkful of hair raising stories of shipwreck salvation seamanship brilliant and inept noble sacrifice insanity cannibalism courage and cravenness even scandal In nonfiction accounts and in the works of Conrad Melville and Tomlinson fear and survival animate and degrade human nature in the microcosm of an open boat as in society at large How lifeboats are made rigged and captained Stilgoe discovered and how accounts of their use or misuse are put down says much about the culture and circumstances from which they are launched In the hands of a skillful historian such as Stilgoe the lifeboat becomes a symbol of human optimism of engineering ingenuity of bureaucratic regulation of fear and frailty Woven through Lifeboat are good old fashioned yarns thrilling tales of adventure that will quicken the pulse of readers who have enjoyed the novels of Patrick O Brian Crabwalk by G nter Grass or works of nonfiction such as The Perfect Storm and In the Heart of the Sea But Stilgoe whose other works have plumbed suburban culture locomotives and the shore is ultimately after bigger fish Through the humble much ignored lifeboat its design and navigation and the stories of its ultimate purpose he has found a peculiar lens on roughly the past two centuries of human history particularly the war tossed technology driven history of man and the sea
